

NIGHT EDITION

FINAL ARGUMENTS

Made in Case of Mrs. Dodge Charged With Murder

GUILDHALL, VI., May 12.—A belated bit of evidence having an important bearing on the case of Mrs. Florence M. Dodge of Lunenburg, whose trial for the alleged murder of William Heath is drawing to a close in the Essex county court here, was received today by Attorney Harry Blodgett of St. Johnsbury, senior counsel for the defendant. Whether this evidence can be placed before the jury is a matter of doubt, inasmuch as the case is closed so far as evidence is concerned and arguments are now in progress. The belated evidence is in the form of a letter which is written by Mrs. Dodge to Miss Edwina Blodgett, daughter of Attorney Blodgett. The letter was dated "Concord, N.H. Dec. 27, 1910" and was mailed upon the same date according to the postoffice stamp. The letter acknowledged Mrs. Dodge's receipt of and thanks for a Christmas gift sent to her by Miss Blodgett.

The importance of this letter rests in the fact that it would tend to support Mrs. Dodge's claim that she was at Concord, N.H., on Dec. 27, 1910. This is the date on which a letter was mailed from Brookline, Mass., to Attorney General Sargent signed "M. J. S." and giving a brief description of the appearance and movements of "the man who shot Heath." It is claimed that this letter is in Mrs. Dodge's handwriting and when Mrs. Dodge was being cross-examined by the attorney general she was obliged to write, at the attorney's dictation, the text of the "M. J. S." letter. A handwriting expert, testifying for the state, said that in his opinion the original "M. J. S." letter was written by the same person who wrote the text in dictation.

The biggest crowd of the trial tried to get inside the courthouse this morning to hear the final arguments in the case. Yesterday State Attorney Ames argued for the state and was followed by Attorney Harland B. Howe of Mrs. Dodge's counsel. Today another of Mrs. Dodge's counsel, Porter Dale of Island Pond, spoke the final words in behalf of the accused woman and it was arranged that Attorney General Sargent should make the closing argument for the state.

As soon as court had opened Attorney Howe asked permission to "enter as evidence the letter written by Mrs. Dodge to Miss Blodgett." Neither State Attorney Ames nor Attorney General Sargent offered any objection and the letter was admitted and entered as an exhibit. In showing the letter to the jury Mr. Howe called attention to what he considered dissimilarities between the handwriting as compared with the "M. J. S." letter sent to Attorney General Sargent. Mr. Howe to the surprise of almost everyone in the courtroom, then resumed his plea, which it was generally thought he had completed before yesterday's adjournment.

Mr. Howe said that the handwriting of the letter sent to the attorney general indicated that the letter had been written by a man who was accustomed to writing. He characterized it as the work of a crank and throughout his argument whenever he had any occasion to refer to this exhibit he called it the "crank letter."

"Mrs. Dodge," said he, "never wrote that letter; never, never, never. It is incredible that she could mail that letter in Brookline, Mass., when she was ill at Concord, N.H. It is not reasonable. It is not sensible."

"After that terrible accident occurred the state's attorney was there on the same day, and he asked her how it happened. She told the story of the affair. It was taken down by a stenographer and Mrs. Dodge signed it. This statement corresponds in every detail with her testimony given here."

Just before closing Mr. Howe took up the contention of the prosecution that Mrs. Dodge's first two shots alleged to have been fired at Heath struck the floor and that the third shot was the one that caused the victim's death. He called attention to the testimony of several witnesses that there was an interval of one second between the first two shots while there was an interval of about four or five seconds between the second and third shots. Then he declared that Heath would not have remained for four or five seconds in range of the weapon but would have managed to get away. He closed at 3:47 a.m. and was followed by Mr. Dale.

"Our client, over and over again, in this case, but on the other hand repeatedly asserts her innocence," said Mr. Dale. He declared that Mrs. Dodge heard only two shots, for if she had heard three she would have been present when they were fired and it could then be claimed that she fired them. It is the theory of the defense that two of the shots went off so close together that they sounded like one and that the third shot followed a minute or two later. Mr. Dale dwelt at considerable length on the appearance of Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand and the emphasis with which she denied her guilt.

"She acted just as you or I would have done had we been wrongly accused of a crime of this nature," said Mr. Dale.

The prosecution bases its case upon that of reasonable opportunity while Mrs. Dodge was on that of a reasonable accident," continued Mr. Dale.

Mr. Dale then took the three exploded shells in his hand and pointed out the similarity between the two of them, while the third was entirely different and said that this tended to show that the two went off at nearly the same instant while the third was fired subsequently.

SKETCH OF THE DUMP FIRE ON THE HIGH STREET EXTENSION LAST NIGHT ENDANGERING ADJACENT PROPERTY

Gave the Firemen Plenty of Work to do

A barn in Riverside street belonging to Paul Vigeant was gutted by fire last night, a valuable horse was burned and practically all of the contents of the building destroyed. Mr. Vigeant also had a narrow escape from being burned.

Shortly before nine o'clock Mr. Vigeant, as has been his custom, went to change his horse from one stall to another. Having occasion to go upstairs he lighted a lantern and in descending the stairs tripped and fell. The lantern which he was carrying exploded and set fire to some loose hay which was on the floor, and in a very short time the interior of the building was ablaze. Mr. Vigeant made an attempt to rescue the horse but was unsuccessful.

When Mr. Vigeant found that he was unable to save the horse he realized that his means of exit from the building was cut off, but finally succeeded in working his way to the rear of the building and jumped to the ground.

Members of Mr. Vigeant's family attracted by the flames noticed some boys who were passing and the latter sent in an alarm from box 27 and in a short time a portion of the fire department was on the scene. But for the prompt response of the firemen the house, which is but a few feet away from the barn, would also have been destroyed.

A dangerous brush and grass fire broke out in Westford and West Acton last yesterday afternoon and raged for several hours. Scores of men who were out on the scene, but for the prompt response of the firemen the house, which is but a few feet away from the barn, would also have been destroyed.

Fire broke out in the woods back of the Elliot French house on Sprague avenue in Weymouth about 5 o'clock last night and kept many men busy.

until 11 o'clock, when they finally succeeded in getting it under control. There was no property damage, outside of that to the land.

DANGEROUS FIRE

BROKE OUT IN GORHAM STREET THIS MORNING

Several persons were rescued from a building in Gorham street shortly after midnight when fire broke out in an ell of the building numbered 32-35 Gorham street. The blaze for a time threatened to extend to other structures in the vicinity but the prompt work of the fire department kept it confined to the place where the fire started. The fire attracted hundreds of people who at first believed that the surrounding buildings were doomed. The smoke from the burning ell entered the tenements at 31 and 33 Gorham street and forced the occupants to leave in all possible haste. When nine persons had made their way out of the building, inquiry was made and it was learned that there were some left behind. Officer O'Keefe who patrols that section, rushed up the stairway, quickly followed by Sergeant Ryan and Michael Connors, a call fireman, and soon returned with Mrs. William Sheeley, who was overcome by the smoke, her baby and sister, and two other young girls who were partially overcome. Undertaker James McDermott who owns the property opened his place of business and here the occupants of the building took refuge until such time as the fire was extinguished. Several citizens rendered valuable assistance prior to the arrival of the firemen, among them a young man named O'Day, James F. Gagan, who was the earliest arrival on the scene and Ralph Cullinan. McDonald's fish market and the saloon of Jeremiah McGlinchey were damaged.

At 1:32 this morning the fire broke out again, but it was extinguished before any damage was done.

FIRE ON DUMP

THREATENED PROPERTY IN VICINITY OF FORT HILL PARK

At various times since the opening of spring the fire department has been called to extinguish small fires on the dump on the High street extension. None of these fires, however, amounted to very much and they were promptly put out, but last evening there was a blaze on this dump that might well have been reserved as a bon fire for the Fourth of July.

The park department during the season had dumped a lot of brush wood and branches clipped from trees by the north gang over the embankment and then the ash men came and unloaded rubbish over this, almost completely covering it. The continued dry weather had left the dump in good condition to feed the flames when once they started. It is supposed that some boys set a match to the brush wood in the dump last evening and in a very short space of time there was a big blaze in progress with the embers rising high in the air and blowing over the houses close by.

DANGEROUS FIRES IN POLICE COURT

Man Rudely Deprived of an Ocean Voyage

Taken From Steamer in Boston and Brought to Lowell to Account for Drawing on Wife's Bank Account

Alexander McKenzie, an elderly man who goes off on periodical sprees, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning at the conclusion of the regular session on a complaint charging him with the larceny of $94 from his wife. According to the testimony offered it would appear that some of the local banks are lax in the manner of delivering money to persons.

Mrs. McKenzie is a hard working woman and by depriving herself of little needs is able to save some money. During the past few years she managed to accumulate $94, which she placed in one of the local banks.

While she was at work during the early part of the week her husband managed to locate the bank book and yesterday despite the fact that he knew he was violating the law he went to the bank where the money was deposited and drew it out.

After receiving the money he made his way to Boston, where he purchased a ticket for Glasgow, changed the remainder of his money into sovereigns and after sampling some of the liquor distributed by the saloonkeepers in the Hub, boarded a steamer and was making himself comfortable for his voyage.

When Patrolman Jeremiah Doolley who had been detailed on the case, tapped him on the shoulder and informed him that he was wanted in Lowell.

Alexander allowed that he would much prefer to take the trip across the water owing to the intense heat in these parts, but seeing that he was wanted in Lowell he would return. He admitted that he had taken the money but said his wife should be satisfied seeing that he had left her in good health.

Judge Hadley, who knows McKenzie, decided to continue the matter in order that a settlement might be made.

About three years ago McKenzie "borrowed" some money from his wife in a similar way, and made a "trip across," but on that occasion she did not prosecute him.

Thomas Murphy, whose face was badly battered, admitted that he had been drinking heavily of late, but upon promising to do better in the future was given a suspended sentence of three months.

Frank Charles and Thomas Butler were fined $5 each and one first offender was fined $2.

THE FIRE DEPT.

Was Kept on the Jump Again Today

The fire department was kept pretty busy again today, notwithstanding the fact that its members worked a part of the night. The first alarm was at 10:13 this morning when a portion of the department was called by telephone to the syndicate dump in High street. Then at 11:05 o'clock another telephone alarm was sent in from East Chemsford where a brush fire was in progress. A portion of the department went as far as the city limit, and then returned to their respective quarters. A still alarm was sent in at 12:23 o'clock for a fire in the Belvidere hotel in Prescott street, but the only trouble there was a stove acting suspiciously.

BOARD OF POLICE

Made a Tour of Inspection Today

The members of the board of police made a tour of inspection this morning, visiting a number of the places where applications have been made for licenses of the first and fourth class.

In many of the places changes have not been made and it will be several days before the changes will have been perfected.

According to rumors which were current it was expected that the board would meet in special session tonight and grant the 15 liquor licenses which have not been acted upon, but there will not be any session of the board tonight and nothing will be done on the license question until next week.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

NEW YORK, May 12.—Despatches to R. G. Dun's review indicate that retail trade expands under the stimulus of more seasonable weather, reports from some sections being notably better. There has been a good distribution of spring and summer merchandise at Boston and some improvement is also noted in jobbing lines. Drygoods are active, sales in some instances being in excess of last year but at first hands cotton goods continue quiet and mills are steadily curtailing. Larger duplicate orders are received for men's wear woollens and sales of wool have expanded slightly although there is no general activity and prices remain low.

Bank exchanges this week at all leading cities aggregate $2,655,799,993, a decrease as compared with the corresponding week last year of 7.0 per cent. and compared with 1909 of 8.5 per cent. This is a much closer comparison with a year ago than was made last week, when a loss was reported of 12 per cent.

The Massachusetts Home Furnishers' Association will hold its annual meeting at the New American House, Wednesday, May 17, at 8:30 p.m.

Eugene Chaput has been granted a license for the erection of a two-family dwelling on the northerly side of Orange street. The building will be 25 by 44 feet, two and one-half stories, and the estimated cost is $3800.

BIG CORPORATIONS

May be Forced to Pay Penalties Amounting to $30,000,000

CHICAGO, May 12.—Three thousand corporations in the Chicago district which have failed to file schedules with Internal Revenue Collector Fitch may be forced to pay approximately $30,000,000 in penalties to the government. On June 1 Mr. Fitch will ask United States District Attorney Sims to institute suits against all the corporations delinquent on that date. Final notices have been sent to all. The penalty for failure to respond is a fine of from $1000 to $10,000. On the other hand approximately 12,000 corporations in this district have filed schedules and it is believed thousands of dollars more in taxes will be collected this year than last when the law first became applicable.

THE GRAND JURY

Wants to Hear From Lawrence Men

LAWRENCE, May 11.—As a result of the Essex county grand jury probe into local municipal affairs subpoenas were placed in the hands of the local police last night summoning eight well known men to appear in superior court at Newburyport today in "John Doe" proceedings.

State Police Officer Fred F. Flynn, who has been conducting the investigation, assisted by State Officer Barrett, brought the papers here and they were turned over to an inspector for service.

Those upon whom summonses were served were: Alderman James R. Walker, Ezra F. Manahan, Jr., secretary to the mayor; Ex-Alderman John Tobin, Henry H. Gifford and Maurice J. Mahoney, Jr., automobile agents; Wallace A. Nickerson, a reserve policeman; Jacob Wegman, a contractor; and John J. Evans, a business man, whom Mayor Cahill has appointed assistant fire engineer several times, but the aldermen have refused confirmation.

FOUR INJURED

IN A COLLISION OF AUTOS AT FALL RIVER

FALL RIVER, May 12.—Four persons were injured when two automobiles came into collision head on at Beakley's turn on the Providence road in South Scituate yesterday.

Dr. D. R. Ryder of 294 Rock street and his mother occupied one car. Mrs. Ryder was thrown onto the forward part of the car and apparently severely injured. Dr. Ryder escaped with a few bruises.

The other car was occupied by William Brightman, of 82 Avon street, Providence, and a young woman companion. Both were thrown out. The woman is in a serious condition from bruises and nervous shock and her left ankle was injured. Brightman's front teeth were knocked out and his face was bruised.

Other automobilists went to their assistance and the injured people were taken into the home of William Pritchard, Dr. William P. Pritchard of Fall River was summoned. Mrs. Ryder was taken to Trussdale hospital in this city. Brightman and his companion were taken to Trussdale hospital.

The accident occurred on a sharp turn in the road. Brightman was coming toward Fall River and Dr. Ryder toward Providence. Brightman bore hard over to his right until within two feet of a stone wall and brought his car to a sudden stop, but the other car bore down directly upon him, it is said. Both were going at a fair rate of speed.

WOULD LIE AWAKE ALL NIGHT WITH ITCHING ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferer Ever Since He Can Remember. Utterly Intolerable. Seemed Beyond Medical Power to Cure. "My Disease Was Routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment."

"I take great pleasure in praising the wonderful Cuticura Cures. Ever since I can remember I was a terrible sufferer of eczema, and other irritating skin diseases. I would lie awake all night, and my suffering was intolerable. A curly humor settled on my back, and being but a child, I naturally scratched it. It was a burning, itching sensation, and utterly intolerable, in fact, it was so that I could not possibly forget about it. It did not take long before it spread to my shoulders and arms, and I was almost covered with a mass of raw flesh on account of my scratching it. I was in such a condition that my hands were tied.

A number of physicians were called, but it seemed beyond their medical power and knowledge to cure me. Having tried numerous treatments without deriving any benefit from them, I had given myself up to the mercy of my dreadful misery, but I thought I would take the Cuticura treatment as a last resort. Words cannot express my gratitude to the one who created "The Cuticura Miracle," as I have named them, for thank heaven there was such a miracle as the Cuticura Remedies came to the suffering world, and now I feel as if I never suffered from even a pimple. My disease was routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I shall never cease praising the wonderful merits they contain. I will never be without them. In fact, I can almost date any skin diseases to attack me so long as I have Cuticura Remedies in the house." (Signed) C. Louis Green, 924 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 26, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 139 Columbus Ave., Boston. 25¢ Mailed free, samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 32-p. book on skin treatment.

If You Love Your Wife Buy Her One of Our REFRIGERATORS

Quinn Furniture Co., 160-162 Middlesex St., Lowell Mass.

Gentlemen:—I received one of your twelve dollar refrigerators yesterday, and must say it is the finest refrigerator I have ever used. I always kept my butter and provisions in the cellar, but, thank goodness, I will not be obliged to do so any longer. My cat accidentally got into the box the other evening and the next morning it was frozen to death. I think your ice box is lovely. The only thing I am afraid of is that my husband may get into the box some night, and if he meets the same fate as my cat it will kill me. Please let me know if you have any refrigerators that don't get so cold. I have a friend who wants to buy one, and she is so chilly I want her to get a warmer box. If you have one please save it for her. With best wishes, I am,

Yours truly,

MRS. JONES.

MAYOR MEEHAN

To Go to Boston on Civil Service Business

THE PUBLIC HALL SITE CON- SIDERED

Another Effort Will Be Made to Agree Upon a Site—Board of Charities to Meet Next Tuesday

Mayor Meehan will go to Boston, Tuesday for a conference with the civil service commission relative to the status of Lowell's assistant fire engineers. It will be remembered that the mayor reappointed Edward Meloy, Charles E. Alway and Charles Stackpole as assistant engineers and these appointments have not yet been confirmed by the board of aldermen. The question has arisen, it appears, as to whether the assistant engineers come under the jurisdiction of the civil service commission and that is the matter that the mayor will iron out with the civil service commission on Tuesday.

New Public Hall

The sub-committee from the commission on appropriations will meet with the Huntington hall commission this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the proposition for a new hall. It is understood that an attempt will be made to agree upon a site other than the Old Washington tavern site. This is the site recommended by the commission and since that recommendation was made other sites have not been very seriously considered.

Other Meetings

The board of health will hold its regular meeting this afternoon and the next regular meeting of the board of charities will be held next Tuesday.

EXCITING SCENE

Gypsies Were Held up by the Police

NEWBURYPORT, May 12.—A tribe of Brazilian gypsies, numbering 75 persons, travelling in a dozen or more wagons was held up by the local police yesterday on request of the Amesbury police, and for a time there was an exciting scene in front of the station house.

James Colby said two women travelling with the band had picked his pocket of a pocketbook containing $30. The parties were described and the chief of the tribe was told that all would be held on suspicion unless the money was restored.

After a delay of an hour the chief of Acting City Marshal Ayers said that they would settle, and the men of the tribe contributed to make up the sum lost by Mr. Colby.

The gypsies were then allowed to depart, with Portland, Me., as their objective destination. It was said the caravan had come over the road from Lawrence earlier in the day.

QUEEN MOTHER

HAS RETURNED FROM CRUISE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

LONDON, May 12.—Queen Mother Alexandra, who returned a week ago from a cruise in the Mediterranean, has taken up a residence at Sandringham palace, where she will remain until after the coronation. During the cruise and since her return the queen mother has enjoyed good general health. She reached here just in time to be present at the memorial service on the anniversary of the death of King Edward and her distress during the service was marked. As yet she has scarcely recovered from this strain but otherwise the royal widow is in excellent health.

VISITING IN LOWELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. Marcell of Biddeford, Me., who are enjoying a honeymoon trip in this city as the guests of Mrs. Joseph Vezina and Mr. and Mrs. Hector G. Laroche, will leave tomorrow for Somersworth where they will visit relatives before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcell, the latter formerly Miss Emma Norrman, were married last week in Biddeford. They left immediately on a wedding tour, including Boston, Haverhill, Woburn, Webster and Lowell. They arrived here a few days ago, and were given a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Laroche. While in this city they were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts.

Some Harem Skirt, Prescott Saturday.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

The following marriage intentions were issued at the office of the city clerk today:

John Mather, 27, U. S. Army, 112 Fort Hill avenue, and Mabelle M. Russell, 25, at home, 331 Wilder street.

Constantinos Ladas, 22, laborer, 3 Dummer street, and Margeta Carlidaki, 26, weaver, same address.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The show at this house for the remainder of the week is one that contains many novel features. The musical Rossini have a very classy musical offering and one that is out of the ordinary run, including dancing and acrobatic work. Betty Barlow extemporaneous comedian, entertains in parodies and stories. Spilsell Bros. and Engel in "The Dutchman's First Night" have a funny pantomime acrobatic act. The bill includes the latest in motion pictures.—Adv.

PREACHED ON SCANDAL

Powerful Sermon Delivered by Rev.
Fr. Kelly, O. P.

An extremely large congregation of women last evening listened to a powerful sermon on "Scandal" given by Rev. Father Kelly, O. P., one of the Dominican fathers now giving the mission at St. Michael's church. The sermon was preceded by a most interesting talk on the effects of the rosary by Fr. Donohue. Fr. Kelly took for his text the words of Jesus Christ: "It must needs be that scandal come, but woe to the man by whom that scandal cometh. It were better for him that a millstone be hanged about his neck and that he be drowned in the depths of the sea, than that he scandalize one of these my little ones." There is nothing here left to conjecture. It is very evident that those who by evil example or influence work detriment to souls purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ are not exempt from responsibility even though the scandal given be not intentional. Our Blessed Lord declares scandal inevitable, but he emphasizes strongly the responsibility of those who give it and the chastisement that follows. Not every sin gives occasion to scandal. Many crimes of mankind are known only to God and the perpetrators of them, and bad as these may be in themselves, no scandal accompanies them. Scandal, then, the preacher defined, as any word or act that would be the occasion of sin to another. It might be by bad example one was led astray, by bad advice, by improper conversations, by undue censure, or unwarranted praise. The blasphemer scandalizes his listeners. Scandal may be given by consent, cooperation, encouragement, intemperance, neglect of duty particularly religious duties—in short anything that will exert a bad influence, anything that will induce others to do wrong. That what is said or done be a simple matter in itself and not really wrong, it has the appearance of sin and leads others into sin there is scandal given. St. Paul refers to this kind of scandal when he warns the early Christians not to eat before those newly converted from paganism, the meats offered to the gods, lest they imagine these meats possessed some special value or power. Surely eating or not eating the meat mattered little in itself but St. Paul feared the use of these meats might prove a stumbling block, hence he advised the Christians to abstain, lest scandal be given.

Direct scandal the speaker defined as the intentional seducing of others into sin and if a soul be ruined in this way the scandal is surely malignant and diabolical. Indirect scandal is given without a conscious intention of leading others astray, yet if scandal be given in this way, the givers of it consider the anathema of Jesus Christ: "Woe be to the man by whom scandal cometh." Being thrown into the sea is mercy compared to the punishment awaiting those who scandalize or lead others into sin. The Son of Man shall send his angels to gather together the scandal mongers and cast them, not into the sea, but into the depths of hell. Though this crime is enormous in the eyes of Jesus, we do not realize the effects of it as we should. When we read or hear of an assassin putting his dagger into the heart of his victim, we are shocked to hear of this violation of God's command. Worse, far worse, is spiritual murder, the murder of the soul. Grace is the life of the soul. Apostasy deprives it of that life, it kills the soul and this spiritual death is far more deplorable than the death of the body, just as the soul itself is more valuable than the body. While there is life there is hope of salvation, of course, but it often happens that those who give scandal, lose with their bodily lives the life of their souls as well.

The scandal giver is the emissary of the devil. In Genesis we read of the murderer of souls, the serpent, tempting Eve to the transgression of God's command. In the New Testament he is spoken of as a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. In these days he is neither the serpent nor the lion but he cunningly inveigles souls through the instrumentality of the scandalizer. The latter, dogmatist work, sowing the cockle seed that destroys the good seed of Jesus Christ. The scandal giver will not realize this side the grave the result of his work. The weak and unsuspecting are led astray, thinking what others do so openly cannot be so very bad. They soon imitate what they see, enrolling themselves and others too, perhaps, under the banner of Satan. Like an epidemic the work of the scandalizer spreads. Even when his bones are rotting in the grave it has not ceased. His memory may be forgotten but his influence continues, ruining souls redeemed by Jesus Christ. As long as the world lasts, and not till the Judgment Day will the extent of the ruin, the devastation be known. And here we have one of the reasons for that Day of Judgment. Just as the work of apostle and missionary will be, for the first time, made known to the whole world in all its magnitude, so will the evil wrought by example, by bad influence, be shown up in all their malignity.

It is easier to drag souls down than to raise them up. From the very tendencies of our nature we are more easily influenced by bad than good. Only the grace of God can raise us from evil. It is hard to change a sinner from a vicious life to one of virtue. It is far easier to lead a soul astray. Souls fall into sin all too easily, but see what is required of Jesus Christ to bring back his lost sheep to the fold. See how he suffered to purchase our souls for the kingdom of God. Weary steps during long days over mountain and plain, nights of incessant prayer, total annihilation of himself. See him in his agony, in his scourging. Behold him crowned with thorns, buffeted, upon, betrayed, mocked, beaten, forced to bear the heavy weight of the cross, forced to shed the last drop of his blood. And scandalizers would steal from him the souls he died to save. Can not the scandal giver see in every crucifixion, in city or country, in church or elsewhere, a mute but terrible witness to his crime? Can he not hear a voice more eloquent than that of any preacher cry out to their souls, "Woe be to the man by whom scandal cometh?"

And who are they who give scandal? Those indeed who repeat scandalous stories, calumniators, detractors, those who make scandals the topic of conversation, the blasphemer, the user of profane words the man or woman who insults into innocent hearts thoughts of evil, parents who connive at petty thefts of children, thus making themselves responsible for their after lives of crime as burglars, yeggmen, etc. Allying our falls, our reformatories, our prisons, parents whose children seldom or never see them pray, parents who absent themselves from mass and the sacraments, parents who do not carefully guard the literature, the pictures, etc. that come into the home, who, taking pleasure in this literature and these pictures themselves, give to the children what in common decency should be banished from the home. "He who has not care of his home, he has denied the faith."

There are parents giving scandal by drinking intoxicating liquors before their children and doing what is worse still, pressing the cup to these innocent lips, thus starting these young souls down an incline that leads to what God only knows. There are thousands of records on the registers of our jails, courts and penitentiaries that tell us of careers started at home when the impression was given that to dally with the glass of liquor was not dangerous. It is no wonder children grow up a disgrace to the home, the country and the church to which they belong.

Those who give or lend dangerous books to others are giving scandal, so also are those who mock or deride religion or are ashamed of it; those who are Catholics only in name and whose lives are a contradiction to their professions, those who remain from mass or the sacraments for months or years, those who go to dances, not properly conducted, those who consort with irreligious people, those who scout the authority of the church in marriage laws. "He who hears you hears me," said our Blessed Lord, and he who despises you despises me." Those who by their position are expected to exert a beneficial influence and who by their neglect to do so scandalize, those who naturally look to them for good example.

Parents especially are responsible for the souls of their children. God has appointed you the guardian angels of

GOOD ADVICE ABOUT ECZEMA

Eczema is so common and so many people suffer from it in one form or another that in medical circles the advice is sometimes jokingly given to call every doubtful skin eruption eczema. This is really not bad advice, for if the eczema treatment fails, then the disease is plainly something else. A good plan, whenever there is an eruption is to apply Cadum. If there is itching, Cadum will stop it, and the sore places will heal. In other forms of skin diseases, such as redness, pimples, blotches, rash, roughness, scaly skin, chafings, acne, sores, ulcers, eruptions, blives, tetter, itch, herpes, psoriasis, ringworm, itching piles, etc., Cadum will also be found highly beneficial. By all means try this remarkable remedy, and satisfy yourself as to whether your trouble is eczema or something else. Trial box 10c.

we may not be aware of the influence good or bad that we exert, it will be recorded and made known at the Day of Judgment. Far off on the mighty deep there are swells and heavy seas, too distant to be visible to the eye, but whose far reaching effects are seen in the desling spray, the roaring breakers that roll up on the sandy beach. Just so, the good or bad influence of our lives, when we ourselves have passed from sight, may surge and foam and break over other lives in ways of which we never dreamed. Comfort them and edify your neighbor just as far as you can. Be blameless children of God. Let your light shine before men, not for favor or esteem, but that others, seeing your work may glorify your Father in heaven. In so doing, you will become associates of Jesus Christ, who assumed our human nature to obtain for us salvation. Remember, He has promised that even a cup of cold water given for His sake will not go unrewarded; how unspeakably great, then, the reward in store for those who have won souls to His service. God is not less munificent in His rewards than He is terrible in His punishments. For love of Him, then, let us do all we can to help our fellow travellers on the way to heaven by precept, advice, encouragement, but above and beyond all, by example.

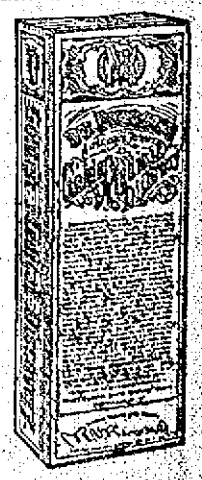

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale-people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach. A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the Great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

CASE OF LEPROSY

Boston Woman to be Sent to Penikese

BOSTON, May 12.—A second case of leprosy has been discovered by the physicians at the Massachusetts general hospital. The victim, a Sicilian woman, has been confined since Wednesday in the pesthouse connected with the City hospital in Southamp-ton street. She will be transferred to the leper colony on Penikese island to-morrow. The doctors say there is no occasion for alarm over this case, which is described as a very mild one. The woman is 42 years old and married, but she has no children. She came to this country four years ago. The physicians are of the opinion that she has been suffering from the disease at least two years. Because so many years are required for development of the disease, the doctors think the woman may have suffered from it in a slight form some years before she came to this country.

The authorities have declined to divulge the patient's name, to avoid giving unnecessary alarm to the people.

SUNBURN SUFFERERS

Are you one of those people with a sensitive skin who suffer from agony from sunburn? Then you will thank us for suggesting Tolleine as a means of bringing immediate relief. Tolleine works wonders in taking out the pain of sunburn and restoring the skin to its normal condition. You can get it at the drugists anywhere. Tolleine relieves inflammation of all kinds and can be taken internally or used externally. For coughs, colds and throat troubles it is excellent. For cuts, burns and bruises it is also efficacious.

X. Mahoney of the board of health, who is acting chairman in the absence of Dr. Durgin, immediately ordered that the woman be transferred to the pesthouse and cared for until arrangements were made for her removal to Penikese.

The woman and her husband were shocked on learning that she had leprosy. She was made comfortable by the hospital authorities. It is said her case is not regarded as very far advanced.

Gov. Pothier of Rhode Island has asked Gov. Foss for permission to send Harry Sheridan, the Pawtucket leper, to Penikese and he may possibly be sent there.

THE AUTO TRADE

AMERICAN DEALERS MAKING GREAT GAINS

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Automobiles of American manufacture are steadily increasing the share which they supply of the world's demand for that article. March exports of automobiles and parts thereof showed an increase of 62 per cent. when compared with those of March a year ago, while the exports during the nine months ending with March, are practically 50 per cent. greater than those for the corresponding period of last year. The total of automobiles and parts thereof exported from the United States in March, 1911, was $1,888,947, against $1,007,387 in March, 1910, the increase of $881,560 being especially noticeable in view of the fact that during the past year the bureau of statistics, of the department of commerce and labor, has adopted effective measures to prevent the reporting of exports by collectors of customs of such automobiles as leave the country for touring purposes only. Under the instructions of the bureau of statistics, only those automobiles are reported as exports that are actually intended for sale in a foreign country.

The growth in the exports of automobiles and parts thereof, has been especially rapid in the last three years, the figures for the nine months ending with March having increased from $3,729,026 in 1908, to $6,332,211 in 1910, and $9,837,151 in 1911, suggesting that the total for the fiscal year which ends with next month will be about $14,000,000. In addition to the figures above quoted of automobiles and parts thereof, of exports of the automobile tires, shown separately under the heading of manufacturers of India rubber, amounted for the nine months ending with March to $1,325,903.

This growth in the exports of automobiles and parts thereof occurs in the trade with nearly all the principal countries. Comparing the movements out of the country during corresponding nine months' periods of the last three fiscal years, exports to Canada have increased from $223,478 in 1909 to $2,509,310 in 1910, and $3,834,447 in 1911; those to the United Kingdom, from $931,534 in 1909 to $1,344,500 in 1910, and $1,557,990 in 1911; those to France, from $215,954 in 1909 to $476,165 in 1910, decreasing, however, to $345,222 in 1911. Other European countries, except Italy, show substantial gains. To Mexico the exports of automobiles have also increased since 1909, the total for the nine months period of that year standing at $279,733 compared with $406,870 in 1910, and $455,642 in 1911. Marked gains are noted in the exports to South America, British Oceania, and other countries of Asia and Oceania. To British Oceania the exports have increased from $50,308 in 9 months of 1909 to $297,301 in 1910, and $305,654 in 1911; to Asia and Oceania, from $32,147 in 1909 to $208,432 in 1910, and $142,420 in 1911, and to South America as a whole, from $108,947 in 1909 to $231,534 in 1910, and $594,254 in 1911.

Canada leads all other countries as a market for American automobiles, the total exports to that country in the 9 months of the current fiscal year being $2,509,310, compared with $1,344,500 in 1910, and $1,557,990 in 1911. The United Kingdom, $3,834,447; France, $345,222; Germany, $345,641; Mexico, and $3,837,151 to all foreign countries. During the month of March alone, an even larger proportion of the exports went to Canada—$775,402 out of a total of $1,638,917.

France is the world's leading export-er of automobiles, the figures of the five leading countries being: for the calendar year 1910, the latest period for which comparative figures are available: From France, $44,466,000; United States, second in rank, $13,150,296; United Kingdom, $12,634,000; Germany, $7,535,000; and Italy, $4,347,000.

The United Kingdom ranks first in the importation of automobiles, the figures for the calendar year 1910 being $24,982,000, against $2,737,203 for the United States, $2,457,000 for Germany, $1,864,000 for France, and $1,024,000 for Italy.

Imports of automobiles into the United States are decreasing, the total for March, 1911, having been but $120,829, against $301,236 in March of the preceding year; and for the 9 months ending with March, 1911, $1,583,215, compared with $2,979,756 in the corresponding period of 1910, and $2,622,824 in 1909.

Most of the automobiles imported into the United States come from France, that country being credited in the calendar year 1910 with $1,065,350 worth out of a total importation of $2,680,555, exclusive of parts of automobiles. The next largest importation was from Germany, $314,577, followed by $312,478 from Italy, $212,969 from the United Kingdom, and $174,175 from all other countries.

Prices of automobiles imported into the United States are gradually increasing while those of automobiles exported are decreasing. The 1113 complete automobiles imported into the country during the 9 months ending with March, 1909, had an average valuation of $1,834 each; the 1,149 imported in the like period of 1910 had an average valuation of $2,049 each, while 621 machines imported in the 9

Big Forest Fire Caused Heavy Damage

WENDELL, Mass., May 12.—It is estimated that a great forest fire which raged yesterday in the sections known as Egypt and Mormon hollow caused a money loss of about $50,000.

It rained timber in an area 5 miles wide and as many long, threatened the village of Wendell with destruction and was turned back only after four houses and some barns had been destroyed, and late last night was threatening the village of Irving. Four miles from Wendell. The flames were still uncontrolled last night, although it was thought Wendell would be saved.

More than 10 men and women fought the flames here all day long. Several times the blaze drove back the fire fighters and advanced to within a few rods of outlying houses of the village before it could be checked and despite the efforts of the men and the bucket brigade of women four houses were lost, with some outbuildings.

Wendell people were aided in fighting the fire by men from Irving and New Salem and a delegation of Orange firemen.

One of the finest residences in the town, owned by Mrs. Bertha N. Torrey and occupied by Wilson Best and family of New York, was lost. It was valued at $5000. The other buildings destroyed were the house of Miss May Richards, less $300; house and barn of William H. Roberts, less $500, and the house and barn of N. S. Simons, less $2500. At one time the household goods were removed from nearly every house in the village, so critical did the situation become.

One of the heaviest losers was the Wendell town farm, where a very good timber lot was ruined with a loss of $20,000. A large part of the property burned over in the past 24 hours consists of valuable timber lots, with very little scrub growth.

MAN KILLED

HE WAS STRUCK BY A LOCOMOTIVE

BOSTON, May 12.—Coleman Gilmartin, a track employee of the Boston & Albany railroad, was killed at 5.30 last night under the Huntington avenue bridge. He was carrying a truck gauge and was crossing the track, when a train bore down on him. He tried to jump aside, but the locomotive struck the gauge. The blow turned him around and in falling, he was struck by the locomotive and hurled a considerable distance.

He was picked up by fellow workmen and carried into a workmen's charity and aid was called, but the 5 man was dead. Associate Medical Examiner Leary found the man probably died from a fracture of the skull. The body was sent to the City hospital morgue. Gilmartin was about 30 years old and lived at 32 Gold street, South Boston.

ANNUAL FAIR

OF MT. ZION LODGE DREW A LARGE ATTENDANCE

There was a large attendance at the second night of the annual fair of Mt. Zion lodge in Good Templars hall in Gorham street last night. The attendance was large, a delightful entertainment program was carried out and the different booths did a good business. Among those who contributed to the entertainment program were Horatio Leggal, Robert Rodgers and Charles Crab giving songs and Mr. Joseph Higginbottom piano numbers.

INSIDE HISTORY

by Ward's Suit

NEW YORK, May 12.—Baseball ethics figure in the suit for $50,000 damages brought by John M. Ward against Ban Johnson, president of the American league. Ward was once manager of the New York Giants, but quit baseball fifteen years ago to become a lawyer. He bases his claim for damages on the allegation that John son referred to him, as a "trickster" two years ago when Ward was a candidate for president of the National league. During the trial Ward was a witness and was kept on the stand two days while he was quizzed regarding his ideas on baseball and legal ethics. Ward represented George S. Davis, the shortstop who jumped the Chicago White Sox in 1903 to join the New York Giants, but who was sent back to the Chicago team by the National baseball commission. It was shown that the Chicago club was paying Davis $4000 a year and that the New York club offered him $6300 and agreed to pay the cost of any legal action in which he might become involved because of his changing his allegiance. Many baseball magnates have attended the trial and have closely followed the testimony.

MAN ARRESTED

Is Charged With Shooting a Rival

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., May 12.—Mosi Fillangan, a rejected suitor for the hand of Miss Santi Peloni, is charged with firing a shot which killed John Bosso, a successful rival, and slightly wounded the girl at Dearth last night. The shots were fired at a silhouette of the victims in fond embrace on a window shade. One bullet hit both and a second shot went wild. Fillangan fell in love with a picture of the girl, corresponded with her, proposed marriage and was accepted. When the girl came to this country she did not love Mosi and was soon to wed Bosso. Fillangan escaped after the shooting.

BIG FESTIVAL

PALACE TODAY

LONDON, May 12.—The festival of Empire, a combination of an industrial exposition with pagantry illustrative of the striking periods and episodes in the history of the different parts of the British empire was opened at the Crystal Palace today by King George and Queen Mary. It was the first public ceremony of their majesties since the court mourning for King Edward was ended and the first of a long series of functions which promises to make the coronation season memorable.

The king and queen drove in a semi-state carriage drawn by four horses with outriders from Buckingham Palace to College road, opposite which a new entrance to the Crystal Palace had been made for their use. Enormous crowds lined the route as the procession passed. In Camberwell Green the royal pair were greeted by 10,000 school children who had been given

FIRES ARE RAGING

In Towns of Marlboro
and Roxbury

KEENE, N. H., May 12.—Keene today was covered by a dense cloud of smoke from fires raging in the forests near the towns of Marlboro and Roxbury, adjoining Keene on the east and southeast. Since Wednesday the flames have swept over almost a thousand acres of woodland, including valuable tracts of pine and the loss already amounts to several thousand dollars. More than 250 men from this city and adjoining towns fought the fire yesterday and still more went to their assistance today. No buildings have yet been destroyed.

Schooner Wrecked and Washed Ashore

PENSACOLA, Fla., May 12.—It was established today that the vessel which was wrecked and washed ashore near here two weeks ago was the schooner Queen of the Standard Oil Co. Her crew of five were undoubtedly drowned. This boat is a total loss. The identification was made by men who reached the wreck in small boats. The Queen was loaded with oil in barrels and was bound from Tampa to Panama City, Fla.

THE YALE SHELL

ARRIVED AT SPRINGFIELD THIS MORNING

NEW HAVEN, May 12.—The shell which will be used by Yale in the race with Pennsylvania at Springfield tomorrow having been shipped last night, the Yale eight followed it today, expecting to have a pull over the course this evening. The seating of the men has not been changed from that of the exhibition pull last Saturday. The men are in excellent form. Indications point to a very large delegation of Yale students leaving tomorrow to see the race. It is also the only opportunity for the undergraduates to see the varsity crew in a race as they will be dispersed to their homes at the time of the New London regatta.

INJURIES FATAL

Man Was Thrown Down

MEDFORD, Ore., May 12.—Jack Louder, one of the last of the old-time stage drivers, was fatally injured yesterday at Haze hill, 15 miles from Grant's pass while driving a four horse team which had become frightened. Knowing that he was approaching a high cliff and sharp curve, Louder drew his revolver and shot one of the leaders dead. This failed to stop the team, however, which dragged the dead horse several yards and over the embankment. Louder was thrown down the precipice and his skull was fractured. Two passengers jumped from the stage and escaped with slight injuries.

NEW RACE TRACK

BUFFALO, May 12.—Another border race track will be added to the Canadian circuit within a year, according to an announcement made here by W. W. Murray, the well known starter who has been appointed general manager by the backers of the new venture. The track will be located at Niagara Falls, within an hour of Buffalo and Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Murray has been engaged for a term of five years. The association has only a half mile track but it is asserted that after the spring and summer meetings of this year a mile track will be built that will be the equal of any in Canada.

STATE OF ANARCHY

Caused by the Extreme Violence by the Insurrectos

CHIHUAHUA, May 12.—This city, long in dread of attack, is now in greater fear than ever because of the extreme violence by the insurgents in their northward march. The whole district embracing Durango, Torreon and intermediate towns has been in a state approaching anarchy. To conceal their movements the insurgents have destroyed all railroad and telegraph lines so that Chihuahua with its 30,000 inhabitants has been isolated for practically two weeks. This dispatch is sent 225 miles overland by auto to El Paso, Texas. The situation in the south is reported here as follows:

Torreon, 20,000 population, including many Americans, is surrounded by insurgents estimated at 2000 in number; communication in all directions frequently cut off.

Laredo, three miles from Torreon, in hands of insurgents under Pablo Lavin; condition chaotic, looting and acts of violence.

Palacio Gomez, near Torreon, invaded by insurgents without resistance.

Durango, 32,000 population, capital of state of same name, surrounded by insurgents.

Agua Calientes, 55,000 population, capital of state, described as a hotbed of revolutionists who frequently make incursions into the town and receive encouragement from the inhabitants.

Paral, located on a branch line from Jimenez, just south of here, sent out a distress signal. Fifteen hundred insurgents surround the town and already have captured Minatitlan, a suburb. As soon as the appeal came from Paral an armored train was sent out from here as relief. The train went as far as Jimenez, and was proceeding to Paral when it suddenly stopped and came back. The official report states that insurgents were seen ahead in such great numbers that it was deemed unsafe to proceed.

PEACE AGENTS

ARE TO MEET PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT MADERO

JUAREZ, May 12.—Senors Obregon and Brailiff, the voluntary go-between, that have endeavored in an official capacity for weeks to bring about a termination of the conflict in their native country, will meet Francisco Madero, Jr., provisional president, at his headquarters in Juarez today. Their talk with the rebel leader will be the first exchange of impressions between representatives of the federal and insurgent governments since the battle of Juarez.

Whether this renewal of efforts on the part of Senors Obregon and Brailiff will result in a proposition either from Madero or Judge Carbajal, the federal peace envoy, for a renewal of the peace negotiations abruptly broken off last week will probably depend on the meeting of Provisional President Madero's cabinet scheduled to follow the first holding out of the olive branch.

In the opinion of the insurgents the peace commission was permanently dissolved last week and it is now at least possible that if another formal endeavor to end the rebellion be made it will be through the provisional minister of foreign relations alone, conducted directly with the representative of the federal government.

In the meantime the victorious rebel leaders are taking measures to guard against possible loss of the advantage they have gained in the capture of Juarez. Last night 250 insurgents marched out of camp. Whether they went to intercept General Rabago, reported marching from Chihuahua with a small band to relieve the federal garrison at Juarez or Col. Luque, reported heading this way from Ollanga was not announced.

THE REBELS

MAY BE IN POSSESSION OF SALINAS CRUZ

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 12.—From reports brought by the American-Hawaiian liner Nebraska, which arrived here yesterday from Salinas Cruz, the western terminus of the Tehuantepec railroad, it is probable that the rebels are in possession of that place. According to Captain Knight of the Nebraska five days ago when the steamer left Salinas

Cruz the rebel forces were at San Geronimo. They had taken possession of the Tehuantepec railroad offices at that point and were preparing for an advance upon Salinas Cruz. The people of the latter city did not plan any resistance and it is believed the place capitulated without loss of life.

SUPREME COURT

May Have to Pass on Whittenton Mfg. Co.'s Troubles

BOSTON, May 12.—Unless the stockholders of the Whittenton Mfg. Co., a cotton manufacturing corporation of Taunton, adjust their differences over the proposed plan to reorganize the company the case will be reported to the full bench of the supreme court on a question of law as to the right of the company to carry out the contemplated plans of readjusting the capital stock. The suggestion of a compromise was made by Col. Benton, counsel for Edward D. Page, former Governor of Massachusetts, who maintained that the company had the right to readjust the capital stock without the consent of the stockholders. The plaintiffs are the owners of 3994 shares of common and 240 shares of the preferred stock and Arthur T. Lyman and Arthur Lyman, defendants, a loss of $88,000 to the plaintiffs and a net gain of over $21,000 to the defendants. William L. Putnam, who appeared for the defendants, said that the exigencies of the corporation were serious and that prompt action should be taken. Under the statutes a majority of stockholders have an absolute right to reduce and at the same time to increase the capital stock. The evidence of the value of the assets of the company is to be heard and reported on by a master as one of the preliminaries of preparing the case for the full court.

LOWELL REALTY CO.

Gets a Big Boom by the Board of Trade

Plan to Build Plants for New Industries in Lowell Starts With Subscription of $10,000 — "Shoe Night" Proved a Grand Success

The board of trade last evening, in sporting parlance pulled off a "double-header" when at its regular meeting and smoke talk in Lincoln hall, it held an innovation known as "Shoe Night," and incidentally started a most effective boom for the organization of a Lowell Realty company, whose object is to erect buildings suitable for manufacturing purposes in order to induce new industries to come to Lowell. At the opening meeting, $10,000 was subscribed to capitalize the company and Secretary Murphy received the assurances of much more from men of capital who were present.

The money will be raised by a committee of 25 and the nucleus of the committee consists of J. L. Chaffoux, Patrick O'Hearn, George E. King, Harford A. Elliott and E. B. Carney.

The plan for a structure was offered for examination and the drawings showed a building six stories in height, conspicuous for its windows, 300 feet long and 50 feet wide. It provides elevator service, sprinklers, wiring for light and power, heating plant, complete, fire escapes and dust conveyors. Its cost would be approximately $100,000 above the land.

The reason for connecting "Shoe Night" with the opening gun in the campaign for a Realty company is that the right spirit they could get just what they want.

Other Shoe Speakers

Thomas F. Anderson of Hoston, secretary of the New England Shoe and Leather association then spoke briefly after which Carl M. Phil, of the new industries committee of the board of trade, outlined the growth of the shoe industry in Lowell. It was started 24 years ago when the Phillips came here and located. Now there are nine shoe factories which will turn out in 1911, 29,700 pairs of shoes, a gain of 300 per cent. in the 21 years. The value of the Lowell shoe shipments in 1910 was $3,670,000 and the wages paid in 1910 totaled $734,000. He said that the Lowell shoe shops in 1910 stood third in the state in production compared to capacity.

Speaking of Lowell industries Mr. Phil declared this city to have the greatest diversity of industries, as there are now 153 different industries established here. The establishment of shoe shops means much to the city and the city should encourage them.

Charles P. Brigham, of the Lowell shoe company, speaking of the reasons why he selected Lowell as a location for a shoe factory said that the elements going to make up the labor situation here are devoid of the disagreeable features that obtain in other cities, that the people are efficient, economical and that labor is abundant.

Sec. Murphy's Remarks

At this point President Greene introduced the subject of the Lowell Realty company and introduced Secretary John H. Murphy who has made a study of the matter.

Mr. Murphy spoke in part as follows: I shall endeavor to give you briefly a summary of my investigations in Lynn and Haverhill.

The Lynn Realty Company was projected in 1901 and the idea originated with Mr. Edward D. Strout, a contractor and builder.

Mr. Strout procured a plan for a factory 200 ft. x 50 ft.—8 stories high—and also secured an option upon a lot, the property measuring about $120,000.

Mr. Strout had no means of his own but interested men who were pithy, spirited, and they formed a Realty Trust, and attempted to sell stock.

With no prospective tenants the matter of disposing of stock was no easy task. People did not approve of the idea and the matter of raising sufficient money was accomplished after much diligent work.

However, $30,000 was secured, and a mortgage of $50,000 was obtained from a Cambridge bank at 5 per cent. The building was started and before it was completed was rented.

The results from the first venture were so gratifying that arrangements were made by the issuing of mortgage bonds whereby another factory was erected and from 1901, starting with a factory measuring 8000 square feet involving $120,000, today the Lowell Realty company is operating about 800,000 square feet, and the money involved represents about a million and a third, and the stock held by about 340 people.

The factories have never been without a tenant. Lynn manufacturers do not hesitate to state that in these modern factories they can produce more shoes and better shoes in less floor space than in old factories because of better light and air.

A rental of 20c. a square foot, including heat and power, is charged, and three leases have been renewed the present year at 25c and notice has been served upon the holders of other leases of the intended advance.

With the advance in rent the gross income of the holdings will be increased $25,000 a year, which the trustees intend to set aside as a sinking fund.

The buildings are of brick, modern in every way, and enjoy a low insurance rate.

In Haverhill the proposition is operated as in Lynn, only on a smaller scale.

The Haverhill project was started in 1908 after an investigation of the Lynn company had been made. The declaration of trust is similar to the one in Lynn. The selling of stock at the start was accomplished only by hard work, but today in Haverhill the stock is in great demand.

A building 200 ft. x 50 ft.—8 stories high—was contracted for, $35,000 was raised and $50,000 borrowed at 4 1/2 per cent. When the building was started there were no tenants in view, but before the building was completed all the floor space was rented on 5 year leases.

One year after the first building was completed another was erected and rented before it was finished.

So successful have the ventures proven that outside parties have this year begun the erection of buildings one to be 200x50—8 stories and the other 320x50—8 stories.

The Haverhill company receives about 12c per foot and does not furnish power, heat or light.

The buildings now in course of construction by outside parties have been rented for 15c per sq. ft. which appreciates rather than depreciates the holdings of the Haverhill Co., because it can secure 15c rather than 12c when the present leases expire.

In Haverhill no new concerns were secured for the new buildings, but local firms increased their business and their old places were filled by overcrowded tenants.

The situation of Lowell today is such as to warrant the formation of a Realty Co. All the available sites suitable for the manufacture of shoes are occupied, and there are many concerns that could be induced to locate in Lowell. There are many concerns located in our city that are cramped shoe factories would make a most desirable acquisition to the industries already established in Lowell, several plans having come to Lowell within recent years.

There were over 100 members in attendance besides local shoe manufacturers and dealers.

Lowell made cigars were passed around, the Social Ten, Buck's Best, Old Hundred and Gorham being enjoyed.

President Harvey B. Greene called to order and explained the reason for the meeting. Lowell he said hasn't the plants to meet the demands of new industries. He said Lowell was becoming a shoe center and manufacturers shoes that will compare with any other city's production. He said it was a permanent business, as shoes must always be worn.

Alfred W. Donovan

The first speaker was Alfred W. Donovan of Rockland, proprietor of the "Just-Wright" shoe plant and president of the New England Shoe and Leather association and vice-president of the state board of trade. Mr. Donovan spoke extemporaneously and he had never until five or six years ago thought of Lowell as a shoe city but rather as a textile city. Diversification of industries he approved of as an economic benefit to the city and because it was well not to get too deep in any one industry. There was no reason why Lowell should not be a good shoe city.

Mr. Donovan had a strong word to say in approval of Secretary Murphy of the board of trade before taking up the need for a Realty company. In Lowell, he said there should be citizens broad enough to look out for the general welfare of the city rather than the four walls within which they conduct their own affairs. Lowell is entering an era, he said, when there will be no excuses to be made, but when co-operation and good feeling will be needed. Lowell is to be a shoe center and with joint effort the citizens could make it a success. Good help is needed, character and capacity among the men, and capital. Of course the main requisite then is the right sort of a factory establishment.

The age of a single owner or promoter of factory buildings is past, he declared, and collective ownership is the method. He advised the Lowell men to look ahead 10 or 20 years and plan a building to allow for growth. Rightly managed it should be as sound an investment as any stocks or bonds. The opportunity for Lowell is now, he said, and its citizens must co-operate and stay together. He maintained that there is enough money going into the moving picture shows every week to make a good start on a Realty building. If the men should organize with the right spirit they could get just what they want.

Other Shoe Speakers

Thomas F. Anderson of Hoston, secretary of the New England Shoe and Leather association then spoke briefly after which Carl M. Phil, of the new industries committee of the board of trade, outlined the growth of the shoe industry in Lowell. It was started 24 years ago when the Phillips came here and located. "Mrs. Beebe was an invaluable assistant to me," the professor said last night. "Without her I could not have accomplished half of what I did. She was especially diplomatic in dealing with the women of the wild tribes we had to encounter. These tribal women exercised great sway over the men, who would refuse to lend us any aid in securing the specimens until won over by the women. A traveler with a tactful wife in a wild country, I am convinced, can get along twice as well as a bachelor."

FACTORY BURNED

Fire in Manchester, N.H. Caused $6000 Loss

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 12.—A mattress factory, conducted by Young brothers, Hyman and Joseph, at 15 Prospect street, was destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon and property worth $6000 was destroyed.

The building, a wooden structure, 60 feet deep by 60 feet front, contained besides the mattresses and the material and machinery necessary for their manufacture, a large quantity of automobile supplies of Arthur A. Dumas, owner of the building and who formerly used it as a garage. Mr. Dumas places his loss at $2000 and Young brothers' loss an equal amount.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it was discovered by Cornelius Moran, who was working near and who pulled in an alarm.

There was a high wind blowing at the time and on the arrival of the fire department the flames were running from 25 to 30 feet high and embers and sparks were being driven a long distance. It was in a locality where there were many wooden buildings and Chief Lane detailed the members of two companies on patrol.

Every shingled roof was covered and six fires on different roofs were stopped.

The insurance will cover one-half of the loss.

During the progress of the fire Edward Reagan, aged 15, whose home is at 298 Sagamore street, is alleged to have thrown stones at the firemen. He was arrested and locked up. He refuses to give any explanation of his conduct.

PROF. BEEBE RETURNS FROM A VISIT TO THE JUNGLES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—After 17 months in the jungles of Asia, where he was sent to study the pheasant, Prof. Charles William Beebe, curator of ornithology of the New York Zoological society, yesterday returned with his wife, on the Chiyu Maru. India, Ceylon, the Himalayas, Tibet, Yuccan, China, Borneo, Java and Japan were visited by the expedi-

PACKERS' DEMURRERS OVERRULED

CHICAGO, May 12.—The demurrers of the Chicago packers in the beef trust case were overruled today by Judge Carpenter in the district court. In his ruling Judge Carpenter declared that the Sherman anti-trust law which had been attacked by the packers is constitutional. He also held that the indictment charging J. Ogden Armour and other packers with violating its provisions is valid.

FAVORS WOMAN SUFFRAGE

LONDON, May 12.—The advocates of woman suffrage gave their cause another boost in the commons today when Lord Mayor John J. Furrell, at the head of a deputation from the corporation of Dublin presented at the bar of the house a petition urging the passage of a female suffrage bill at the present session of parliament. The members of the deputation appeared in the full regalia of their offices, and the ceremony was attended with picturesque details.

Lowell Team Pounded Friel for 16 Bingles

Three Home Runs Within the Grounds—Jake Boules Made Four Hits With a Total of Ten

Haverhill put in its best pitcher, Friel, in the game with Lowell at Spalding park yesterday, but he did not seem to leave the local players in the least for in the first inning they hammered him for two three-baggers and a two-bagger which netted three runs and in all got 16 with a total of 31.

Tom Fleming who at one time managed a Lowell team officiated as umpire and gave general satisfaction. The attendance was large and the weather conditions were excellent. Prior to the game it was announced that Duval had been released to Haverhill.

First Inning
Lowell scored three runs in the first inning while the visitors failed to send a man across the plate. Courtney opened with a line drive to Boules and failed to reach first. Aubrey struck out and Barrett fled to Magee.

In the latter half of the inning Moulton sent the ball to deep left field for a three bagger. Courtney made a good attempt to gather in the ball, but failed to do so. Dugan hit over Hollis' head for a three-bagger scoring Moulton. Courtney fled to Courtney and Dugan scored on the put out. Magee hit to left field for two bases, stole third and scored on O'Donnell's hit. Courtney hit to Friel and was retired at first. Wright hit to Friel and died at first.

Second Inning
The visitors went out in one, two, three order in the second inning. Hollis went out on strikes. Grubb hit to Moulton and died at first while McGamwell struck out.

MANAGER OF DETROIT NOW THE MAN OF THE HOUR IN BASEBALL

DETROIT, May 12.—Hugh Jennings, manager of the Tigers, is now the man of the hour in baseball. The wonderful showing of his team is the talk of every fan in the country. Just before the campaign started the general opinion of the critics was that the team was due for a berth in the second division, but once more Jennings has surprised them, and right now the Tigers look like the one best bet for the pennant in the American league. Not alone did the Tigers enter the month of May with the longest lead in baseball history, but the club has established a record for scoring runs for the season. In the first twenty-four games Jennings' men piled up 141 runs. This is almost an average of about six runs to a game and one that greatly exceeds the number by any other club in the league. Should they be able to keep up their present speed they will have scored 555 times before the final game is played and the championship decided. And if they are able to do this there is not the slightest doubt as to where the championship will go. One thing that makes the Tigers believe that they will be able to keep up the pace set by them in scoring is the fact that now the infield has started hitting the ball. Up to the present time they have relied almost solely on ton was caught between the bases. Dugan going to ground on the play. Courtney walked to first after being hit by a pitched ball. Magee singled to center field and Dugan and Courtney scored. Fluharty hit to left field for a single. Wright sent the ball into the left corner of the grounds for a home run, scoring Fluharty and himself. Boules hit to center field for two bases but Huston hit to Friel and was out at first.

Fifth Inning
Haverhill broke the ice in the fifth inning and scored three runs. Grubb started off with a base on balls and McGamwell followed with a fly to Courtney. Pfeiffer walked to first and O'Donnell made Haverhill's first hit scoring Grubb. He then stole second. Friel flied to Huston, the latter making a pretty catch. Courtney singled to center field scoring Pfeiffer and O'Donnell. Aubrey singled to center but Barrett went out on a foul fly to Huston.

In Lowell's half Warwick fled to Courtney, Moulton fled to Barrett and Dugan hit one to Friel who succeeded in knocking it down and Pfeiffer flied it to first in time to get the runner.

Sixth Inning
The visitors scored another run in the sixth. Hollis hit over Fluharty's head for a home run inside the grounds. Grubb was retired on a fly to Boules and McGamwell followed with a single to left field. Pfeiffer hit to Boules who threw to Courtney who got McGamwell at second and the ball was sent to first for a double play.

Seventh Inning
Wheeler singled and Friel hit to Warwick forcing Wheeler at second. Courtney hit to Moulton forcing Friel at second. Aubrey singled to right field but Barrett was third out on a fly to Huston.

Wright hit to Aubrey and failed to reach first. Boules then sent the ball over Courtney's head for a home run inside the grounds. Huston fled to Barrett. Warwick singled to center field and Moulton sent a grounder to Grubb and was out at first.

Eighth Inning
Hollis opened the eighth by striking out. Grubb went to first on a free pass. McGamwell went out on a fly to deep right field. Pfeiffer flied to Huston.

Dugan hit a red hot grounder which struck Aubrey on the knee causing a delay in the game. Dugan stole second. Courtney singled to left scoring Fluharty. Boules stole second. Huston fled to Barrett and Boules stole third on the put out. Warwick struck out.

Ninth Inning
Wheeler fled to Magee. Friel got his base on balls. Courtney hit to Moulton forcing Friel at second. Courtney threw bad to first allowing Courtney to go to second. Aubrey drew a base on balls. Barrett struck out.

DIAMOND NOTES

Lawrence is here today.

Tommy Caterson gets his $50 from the Bull Durham company today.

Big Bill Duval has gone to Haverhill. Manager Gray intended to release either Duval or Quinn and Haverhill offered to take either and it was decided to let them have Duval.

Jake "watched out" yesterday all right. Four hits with a total of 10 is going some.

Did you ever see such a day for high scores all over the country?

Jim Cudworth, the old time New England league star has the right dope on the high scores. Says Jim: "These are the days when the batter gets a chance. Even the Spalding people are making a better and livelier ball, giving the batsmen a better chance for hits, while that ball now in use in the New England league is the liveliest kind of a sphere and it's a pleasure to hear the ring as the bat connects with it. Ninety-nine out of every 100 fans like plenty of free hitting. They're getting it now and the result will be that the general interest in the game will be greater than ever before." Jim is now steward at the Elks club and after regales the members with interesting reminiscences of by-gone days on the diamond.

Crawford and Cobb to batter down the defense of their opponents, with Davey Jones doing some heavy work at the opening of the season. Recently Gair or started slugging the ball at such a clip that he threatens to pull down the big lead gained by Crawford and Cobb. Since the Tigers opened their long stretch of games on the local grounds Gair or battled for a percentage of .474. This can hardly last, but it goes to show what the youngster has done for the Tigers to win victories. Recently Bush and Delehanty have been hitting the ball. They have both been in a slump in previous contests and now believe they will be able to be of aid in bringing in the batters who precede them on the bases.

Frankie Courtney, back from the big league played left field for Haverhill and the crowd got his goat ere game had fairly started. Courtney likes to talk back and doesn't seem to realize that one man trying to stop 300 has a big job on his hands, or more correctly his think-tank.

It begins to look as though Brockton will never be beaten until Lowell comes around and does the job.

Of all the punk fielding ever shown by a professional team Haverhill handed it out yesterday.

Warwick charitably let up on the visitors after the fourth inning. Up to that time the visitors had scored neither a run nor a hit.

THE LINCOLNS

UP AGAINST THE REAL THING AT EVERETT TOMORROW

The Lincolns will journey to Everett, Saturday, to cross bats with the strong Woodlawn team of that town, composed of former crack Boston high school players. Last year the Woodlawn team claimed the championship of the state by defeating most of the strongest teams in the state. The Lincolns are playing good ball this year, having won four games and lost one. The battery for the Lincolns will be: Edwards, and Durkin or Rockwell.

MANAGER DOON SUSPENDED

NEW YORK, May 12.—President Lynch of the National league today announced the suspension until further notice of Manager Doon of the Philadelphia club and Catcher Gibson of Pittsburgh because of the trouble they had in the game at Philadelphia yesterday.

TOMMY MURPHY

Defeated by "Knockout" Brown

NEW YORK, May 12.—In a lively 10-round bout "Knockout" Brown of New York outfought and easily won the popular decision over Tommy Murphy of Brooklyn at the Whirlwind A. C. of Brooklyn last night. The tow-headed little Brown was the aggressor from the outset, and while Murphy fought a heady fight, he had not the strength to carry his skill to advantage. One of the biggest crowds which ever attended a fight in Brooklyn saw the bout. The fight by rounds follows:

Round 1—Brown at once became the aggressor and forced Tommy to the ropes with left to the body. Murphy worked to the center and in the clinch upturned with his right to the jaw. Brown continued boring in, taking Tommy's rights and battering away with both hands to the body. Murphy sent in several straight rights to the face, but it was Brown's round.

Round 2—Brown rushed, and Murphy met him with a right to the body. A left swing sent Murphy's nose to bleeding, and the two exchanged swings to the head. Brown rushed again and Murphy upturned his right to the jaw, almost putting Brown through the ropes. Brown was back quickly and was fighting last at the bell. Murphy's round.

Round 3—Brown rushed Tommy to the ropes and landed a left to the body. Murphy retaliated with a nasty right to the face, cutting Brown's mouth, but K. O. whipped in a right to the jaw that sent Murphy to the ropes. Brown was fighting like a wildcat and got in a hard one to the chin at the bell. Brown's round.

Round 4—They met in the ring center and Murphy drove three clean rights to Brown's chin. Brown rushed and landed a left to the body. Murphy rushed Brown through the ropes, but did no damage. The pace seemed to be telling on Murphy.

Round 5—They opened with a clinch, in which Tommy upturned, with his right to the face. Brown forced him to the ropes and reached the body with his right. Murphy tried to hold, but Brown was too strong for him. Brown was still doing the forcing and had a shade the better of the round.

Round 6—Brown continued pounding Murphy's body with hard lefts. Murphy used his uppers in clinches, but Brown's swings to the head forced him to break ground. Brown followed fast taking Murphy's short punches and working away at the body.

Round 9—Brown reached the head with his left and Murphy retaliated with a right uppercut to the chin. A left swing sent Tommy's head back and a right to the body sent him to the ropes. Murphy landed an uppercut to the face and ducked a left swing. Murphy was fighting carefully and had a shade the better of the round.

SENATE AND HOUSE BLEW OPEN SAFE

Engaged in a Game of Hide and Seek

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The senate and house of representatives to all appearances are engaged in a game of hide and seek. The senate was in session yesterday and the house was not. The house was in session today and the senate was not. Tomorrow neither will be session. The senate will meet again on Monday but the house will not. The house will meet Tuesday but the senate will not.

In the house today the most important business promised was a report from the committee on territories recommending statehood for Arizona and New Mexico after the people of each territory shall have voted on proposed amendments. A minority report signed by the republican members of the committee urged the immediate admission of New Mexico.

Burglars Get Away With Twenty Dollars

RUTLAND, Vt., May 12.—Burglars broke into the Fairhaven grist mill, owned by W. C. Crippen, some time last night, blew open the safe, took about $20 and got away. From the way in which they operated it is supposed that the break was the work of the same gang of vagabonds who visited the C. E. Clark store at Pawlet last Saturday night.

When the mill employees assembled for work this morning they found that the front door had been pried open and the door of the safe in the office had been blown. So well was the work done that people were not awakened in nearby houses and only one of the office windows a few feet away was broken by the jar. The methods of the gang were the same as those in use by the burglars who have filled a number of Vermont postoffices and stores within the last few years.

A big hammer and some chisels were stolen at the Connor blacksmith shop in Hydeville and with these tools the burglars succeeded in gaining entrance to the mill. They also stole a shotgun belonging to Mr. Connors.

In the safe with the money there were a number of checks and other valuable papers, but these were not taken. A neighbor saw a light in the vicinity of the mill about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, but there are no wheel tracks or other clues to show the direction taken.

NEW PARISHES

Have Been Formed by Archbishop

BOSTON, May 12.—One of the most important shifts of clergymen ever made by Archbishop O'Connell has just been announced. It involves the creation of two new parishes, one at Framingham, where Rev. Fr. Augustine J. Miller, chaplain of the state prison, will be the head, and the other, to relieve the congestion in St. Francis de Sales parish, Charlestown, and the parishes of St. Ann and St. Joseph in Somerville, will have at its head Rev. Fr. Garrett J. Barry, for some years past at Foxboro.

Rev. Fr. James A. O'Rourke is transferred from Campello to Foxboro in place of Fr. Barry.

Other changes are Rev. M. J. Scanlan of the cathedral of the Holy Cross, given charge of the diocesan charity office, 43 Tremont street, in place of Rev. Dr. M. J. O'Connor.

Rev. Fr. Joseph F. McGlinchey from St. Paul's church, Cambridge, given charge of office of society for the propagation of the faith, 41 Malden street, with living quarters at the cathedral house.

Rev. Fr. Augustine F. Hickey, from St. Columbkille's parish, Brighton, becomes assistant to Rt. Rev. Mgr. M. J. Spillane, rector of the cathedral, in place of Fr. Scanlan.

Rev. Fr. John H. Powers of St. John's church, Blue Hill avenue, goes to St. Stephen's church, North End.

Rev. Fr. James L. McGuinness of St. Peter's, Lowell, goes to St. Margaret's, Cambridge.

Rev. Fr. Michael J. Murphy leaves St. James' church, Harrison ave., for St. Mary's, Charlestown.

Rev. Fr. D. J. O'Connor departs from St. Stephen's, North End, and goes to the church of the Most Precious Blood, Hyde Park.

Rev. Fr. Reardon, hitherto of St. Agnes' church, Reading, will go to St. Columbkille's church, Brighton.

Rev. William J. Foley severs his connection with St. Stephen's church, South Framingham, and goes to St. James' church, Salem.

THE HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT

The high school concert will take place tonight in the school hall. The Mandolin club will play selections from "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Madame Butterfly," "The Girl in the Green," and the beautiful "Havercarrie" from "The Hoffmann." The Glee club, under the direction of F. O. Blunt, will sing some lively songs. Miss DeMott will give an original reading. Horatius Leggat and Chas. Hillier will sing. Get your ticket at the door. 25 cents.

A Home Formula That Stops Dandruff

Ray Run 6 oz.
Lavender de Compoze 52 dr.
Menthol Crystals 52 dr.
These are all staple, standard and inexpensive pharmaceutical products that you can buy from any good drug-gist. You can mix them yourself at home or the druggist will do it for you. Allow to stand one-half hour before using. Apply at night and morning, rubbing briskly into the scalp with finger tips or a medium stiff brush. This one 8 oz. bottle should, in most cases, be sufficient to completely clear the head of dandruff and kill the germ, thereby preventing its return. This treatment is also excellent for making the hair grow and to keep the hair from falling out and although not a stain or dye, will restore natural color to gray, streaked or faded hair in from 15 to 30 days simply by its action on the hair roots. Be careful not to apply where hair is not desired.

Before publication we presented this prescription to Mr. Raymond Doug Co., this city, and they state that they have used it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

WEST CHELMSFORD

The annual May party and dance of the St. John's auxiliary were held last night in the town hall. There was a very large attendance and like all other parties conducted by this organization it was a social as well as financial success. From 8 to 8.30 a concert program was given by Gilmore's orchestra after which dancing commenced and continued until 10 o'clock when an intermission was taken and dancing resumed in the lower hall. Dancing was resumed and continued until 12 o'clock. The hall was tastefully decorated with blue and white, and the stage was banked with flowers and a lattice work of red, white and blue. After the party a late car returned to Lowell with a merry throng who were present from the city. The committee to which much credit is due, was General Manager Mary Valentine, Assistant Manager Lillian Welch, Floor Director Nellie Ward, Assistant Belle Valentine, Chief Aid Jennie Lavelle, and chairman of reception committee, Mrs. Fred Gaudette.

DANGEROUS FIRES

Continued

A telephone alarm was sent to the central fire station at 7.35 o'clock and in a short time there was a sufficient number of fire wagons on the scene to handle the fire effectively. A few minutes after 11 o'clock this morning word was telephoned to the central fire station that there was a lively blaze in a building just beyond the Edson cemetery. Several pieces of apparatus were sent to the scene, but the firemen upon reaching the city found that the fire was in a shanty in East Chelmsford.

Something New in Good Clothes

The term "good clothes" is hardly descriptive of Adler-Rochester—they're really the best clothes made. Season after season, for nearly half a century, their superiorities have been proven. You have but to see our stock to understand why this is so.

ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES

The way Adler-Rochester coats fit around the neck, the shapeliness of the shoulders, and the rare finish of every detail—all testify to the care and skill of the makers.

And Adler-Rochester cloth experts command the "new" in every material. There is the choice of the most fashionable patterns and shades.

So it is that in Adler-Rochesters you get what is unusual in clothes—individuality.

DEATHS

CONNOLLY—Joseph Connolly, aged 64 years, died last night at the Chelmsford Street hospital, after a brief illness. Mr. Connolly was a devout member of St. Michael's church, and is survived by one sister, Miss Della Connolly. His remains were removed to the undertaking rooms of Jas. W. McKenna, 419 Bridge Street.

BARRETT—One of the oldest residents of St. Patrick's parish, Mrs. Nancy Barrett, died last night at her home in Salem street, aged 76 years. She is survived by three sons, Edward J., Alderman Andrew B., and William M.; also one daughter, Miss Catherine Barrett, and 13 grandchildren. She was a native of Ireland and resided in this city for 70 years. She resided on Salem street for 50 years. Mrs. Barrett was a kind and motherly woman, and possessed of a true Christian spirit. She was beloved by all who knew her, and in her death the family has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

CONDON—Mrs. Mary Mahoney Condon, aged 28 years, died this morning at her late home, 12 Rogers street. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, Daniel Condon, two children, Jeremiah F. and Mary N., also her father, Daniel Mahoney in Ireland.

CROSBY—Died today in this city, Charles T. Crosby, aged 69 years, 7 months and 25 days, at his home, 77 Marlborough street. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ada Frances Crosby, and one daughter, Mrs. George A. Wilson.

WILSON—Justus B. Wilson, aged 63 years and three months, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Percy J. Wilson, 32 Hanks street. Mr. Wilson was born in Embden, Maine, and came to Lowell when a young man. At the opening of the Civil war he enlisted in the 26th Mass. regiment and served until the close of the war. He was a prominent member of the Worthen Street Methodist church, was a past commander of Post 185, G. A. R., and was also a member of Pentucket lodge of Moose. He is survived by a son, Alfred E. Wilson of Flushing, N. Y.; two daughters, Mrs. J. Harry Hammond of Colebrook, N. H., and Mrs. Percy J. Wilson of Lowell, well known in musical circles; two brothers, Augustus H. Wilson of Readfield, Maine, and John F. Wilson of Boston, Maine; and a sister, Mrs. Maryella (Beale) of Lowell; also three grandchildren in Flushing, N. Y.

BARROW—Mrs. Rhoda Barrow, the beloved wife of Thomas H. Barrow, died at her home, 69 Southward street, Thursday morning, aged 34 years, one month. She is survived by her husband, one son, Harry Barrow, and three brothers, John M. Dean of Putnam, Connecticut; James E. Dean of Beverly, Mass., and Joseph Dean of this city.

DRENDEL—Charles R. Drendel, a well known resident of Dracut, died yesterday at his home, 21 Swan street, aged 36 years. He leaves a wife, one son, Paul R., and a daughter, Mrs. Emma F. Merrill.

SMITH—William A. Smith, aged 45 years, 10 months, 26 days, died at his home, 167 Stevens street, yesterday. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ella M. Smith.

REED—Mrs. Melissa J. Reed died yesterday at her home, 72 First street. Her age was 55 years, 8 months and 24 days. Beside one son, Bird C., she is survived by five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

HALLETT—The death of Mrs. Sarah Parkhurst Hallett occurred last evening at the home of C. George Armstrong in Bilkeria street, Chelmsford. She was in her 57th year. She was a daughter of the Rev. John Parkhurst, first pastor of the Baptist society in Chelmsford and was born in 1825 at the old Parkhurst homestead in South Chelmsford. After her marriage to John Allen Hallett they made their home in Chelmsford until 1874, when they removed to Sussex, N. H. The death of her husband occurred there in 1894, and in 1911 she returned to Chelmsford, where she has since made her home with her daughter, Mrs. C. George Armstrong. She is survived by a son, Edgar H. Hallett of Boston, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Waldo Perham and Mrs. C. George Armstrong of Chelmsford; also three sisters, Mrs. E. A. Fiske of Chelmsford; Mrs. Dexter Battles of South Chelmsford; Mrs. Susan Buchanan of Greenwood, and two brothers, John Parkhurst of Boston, and Charles W. Parkhurst of Medford.

FUNERALS

CONRON—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Conron took place yesterday morning from her home in Taunton, and at 9.30 o'clock a mass of requiem was sung at the Sacred Heart church, Taunton, by Rev. Fr. Talbot. The bearers were: Howard and Daniel McDonald, Michael Tighe and Jeremiah Connelley. At the conclusion of services the body was brought to this city and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FARROW—The funeral of George M. Farrow took place Thursday at 3 o'clock from his home in Taunton, the Rev. George E. Brown officiating. A quartet composed of Misses Clara and Helen Browne, Mrs. Fannie Little and Mrs. Cora Kable sang appropriate selections. The services were largely attended by the townspeople. The body will be taken to Greenland, N. H., today for burial. C. M. Young in charge of the funeral arrangements.

SULLIVAN—The funeral of Dennis

Sullivan took place this morning from the Middlesex street station on the arrival of the 3 o'clock train from Boston, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Large wreath, from son of deceased; wreath of roses inscribed "Rest," Yacubian brothers; spray of roses and pinks from John Walker, George Oettinger and Frederick King. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Rev. Joseph Curtin of St. Patrick's church, reading the committal prayers. Undertaker Peter H. Savage was in charge.

QUIET IN MEXICO
MEXICO CITY, May 12.—Despite the rumors of a student uprising and a possible attack on the city by the rebels which gave the more timid residents some uneasiness last night, nothing out of the ordinary has occurred at the capital this morning.

BURGLARS BUSY

BROKE INTO HUNTING LODGE OF JOHN PURROY MITCHELL

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 12.—Sheriff Scherp of Westchester county was asked yesterday to look for burglars who broke into the hunting lodge of John Purroy Mitchell, president of the New York board of aldermen, at Somers, in the northern part of the county, yesterday and carried away practically everything that was movable. Fresh wagon tracks were found leading to the house.

Several weeks ago, the caretaker, Richard G. Davenport, was arrested for killing Thomas Hefernan, a laborer who applied for work and shot at Davenport, so the prisoner alleges. Since then the house has been without a caretaker.

MINE FIRE EXTINGUISHED

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 12.—The fire in the Boston mine of the Delaware and Hudson Co. at Larksville, where five men were suffocated by smoke, was extinguished today. The company officials say the damage to the workings will be comparatively slight. The mine is expected to resume operations on Monday.

Plain Cookies

These are "the cookies that mother used to make," but she never made them with skimmed milk; she used rich cream. You can get the same result if you use Borden's Evaporated Milk—adds richness and fine flavor.

RECIPE

Beat two heaping tablespoonsful butter to a cream; add gradually one cup sugar, and beat again. Then add two well beaten eggs, four tablespoonsful Borden's Evaporated Milk diluted with three-fourths cup water, one teaspoonful baking powder, one half teaspoonful grated nutmeg and flour enough to make a moderately soft dough. Mix thoroughly, roll, cut with a round cutter and bake a light brown in a moderate oven.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

The so-called county rings of Middlesex and Essex counties are defeated in their efforts to have the legislature legalize expenditures unauthorized by law. The treasurers we presume are under bonds and should be held responsible for the proper disposal of the funds placed in their charge.

POLICING THE COMMON

Supt. Welch says that police officers are so continuously around or in the vicinity of the South common that it is as well policed as any other part of the city. That statement differs very materially from the charges made in Mr. Corbett's letter; but while several police beats end at the common, none of them leads through it. Why not have an officer assigned there day and evening and held responsible for the preservation of order and decorum in every part of the common?

THE CITY CHARTER

The city charter bill for Cambridge has been favorably reported by the senate, and its passage is thereby assured. We cannot see why Cambridge, Haverhill, Lynn, Chelsea and other cities can have new charters enacted by the legislature, while Lowell is refused. It is now stated that the legislative committee in charge of the Lowell measure is likely to report unfavorably at the last moment. That would be a gross injustice to our city and it would be a denial of the right of home rule which has been freely granted to other cities. The people of Lowell want a chance to vote upon the new charter, and the legislative committee in charge of the measure will be open to grave criticism if it does not report favorably on the bill.

THE 'ANNEXATION' BUGABOO

One George S. Ladd, who is prominent in the Massachusetts state grange, was in Washington the other day and told the senate committee on finance that reciprocity with Canada is not possible except by absolute commercial union which would mean the first step to annexation. Mr. Ladd is one of the men who are cunningly using the annexation bugaboo instead of argument. He knows very well that if England can be impressed with the idea that the commercial union under reciprocity might bring about a feeling in favor of annexation, then the British government will strongly oppose it. The Canadians, we believe, as well as most of the British will be able to see through this deceitful plan, and will discount it when the proper time comes.

The Gloucester fishermen backed up Mr. Ladd with protests against reciprocity on the ground that it would injure the fish industry. There is no reason why the fish trust should be protected against a little competition because that agency has kept up the price of fish, and has made it very difficult to get fresh fish at any price. The Gloucester fishermen should have no consideration in this fight for reciprocity.

"MOTHER'S DAY" AND "FATHER'S DAY"

Somebody has instituted next Sunday as mother's day, and appeals to the public generally to observe the day as such. We do not know of anything the mothers need more than a day's rest, so that if Sunday be observed as mother's day, it is to be hoped that the mothers will be allowed to rest during the entire day, leaving others to do their work so far as that is possible.

When a fad of this kind is put out, of course, it suggests something else of a similar kind, and there is always somebody to come forward with another proposition, and as a result Mrs. John B. Dodd, of Spokane, Washington, has taken up the cause of the neglected "old man," and has fixed upon June 16th as the date of the observance of "Father's day," and part of the observance is to consist in wearing a colored flower in honor of father if he be living, and a white flower if dead. It will be a great opportunity for sermons and editorials upon the commandment "Honor thy father and thy mother."

If the observance in either case will make the lot of the average father and mother any happier, it is to be highly commended, or if on the other hand it will instill into the minds of the young a proper respect and reverence for their parents then it is to be commended. We don't imagine that the observance will make much of an impression in these parts.

WANTED—A NATIONAL ANTHEM

We are sadly at a loss for a national anthem that will be stirring in its patriotism and sublime in its poetical inspiration and conception. The hymn "America," by Dr. Smith, does not fully answer the purpose, while "The Star Spangled Banner" is good enough in its way, but it refers to a special incident in our history and is decidedly the nearest approach of all our songs to what a national anthem should be. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Julia Ward Howe, has the same objection, although a bit more stately than Mr. Keys' effort. None of these answers the purpose of a national anthem suitable to a country at peace with the world, an asylum for the oppressed of all lands and a beacon light of freedom to all the world. Dr. McPatrick, chairman of the Chicago board of education, would have a prize of $500,000 raised to be offered for the poem most suitable as a national anthem. It may be said that money has rarely ever inspired any great poem; yet it is barely possible that the desire for money may set the Muses to work in a manner that will bring out something superior to anything we have at present. The real national anthem must be an inspiration, not only from the patriotic, but the poetical and musical standpoints. Although we are a peace loving nation, no anthem worthy of the name can exist in any but a martial strain. Some, of course are sung as a funeral dirge, but that is not the proper spirit for the anthem that will swell the heart of young America. We do not imagine that the prize idea emanating from Chicago will accomplish much for the reason that every poet in the land, and we have a few, knows that a fortune awaits the man or woman who supplies this great national demand for an anthem worthy the greatness, the spirit and the patriotism of our republic.

SEEN AND HEARD

It is amazing to what an extent the industry of sharpening safety razor blades has grown. A few days ago I met Henry Carr, the Gosham street business man, coming out of the post office with a bundle of small packages under his arm. I learned that each package contained at least twelve blades which were sent to him to be sharpened. These packages came from all parts of the United States and Canada, and three of them were from Porto Rico. On invitation of Mr. Carr, I visited his place of business which is located at 12 Bleachery street and here I found four young women busily engaged making the dull razors as sharp edged as the day they were first used. Hundreds of orders were waiting to be filled and Mr. Carr remarked that this was the usual busy daily scene at the workshop. "You may wonder," said Mr. Carr, "how it is that we receive hundreds of packages of razor blades each week from all parts of the country, but it is because I advertise extensively and am getting great results. My ad in The Sun has resulted in a great increase in my local business and therefore I am satisfied to spend money when the results are coming my way." Mr. Carr has built up an immense business in a short time and a visit to his shop will repay one interested in seeing the work done and the number of blades turned out daily.

A number of answers given by applicants for the positions of public school teachers in Vermont reveal some strange notions of commonplace subjects. Of course these papers represent only the rare instances and are not characteristic of the average examination in Vermont or any other state. The following are the remarkable answers that caused so much mirth among those whose duty it was to pass on them:

"Congressman-at-large" is when congress is in session.

"Monroe Doctrine." Monroe was rejected and died in one month after he was president; this has been spoken of as the Monroe doctrine.

"Humidity" is the human race; also the average length of human life. Benjamin Franklin was the inventor of lightning.

"Civil Service Reform" is a bill passed a few years ago in regard to all civil questions of the government.

"The Suez Canal" is between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario.

"Coterie" is a place where pigeons are kept.

"Where was Vermont first settled? Settlements were made on the Champlain canal in Vermont where Plattsburgh is now, and at Crown Point in the early part of 1700."

"Slavery was introduced by William Lloyd Garrison."

"The war of 1812 arose from a dispute over the annexation of Texas."

"Absorption" is breathing pure air into your lungs and blowing it back through the nostrils.

"Letters of marque are letters of importance, and letters of reprisal are letters to be returned."

"Compare fore! Fore, forer, forest."

"Correlation" means to wear crowns or to be crowned."

What poem tells of hardships of Pilgrims? Pilgrims' Progress.

Name the divisions of the brain? Cerebrum and cerebellum. The cerebrum is situated over the chest and protects the heart. Cerebellum is situated between the shoulders on the back of the body.

The cavities of the skeleton are the skull, the ball and socket joints, the shoulders and hips.

Digestion is when food does not come up or feel bad in your stomach. Saliva is a kind of soup made in the salivary glands.

What is bi-metalism? Bi-metalism is anything which has twice the metal of something else named.

Dialects are parts of the body. What was the Council of Safety? It was something similar to the National Guards to protect early settlers from Indians.

The tongue is a strong muscle covered with a horny substance. A deodorizer is a person that has a disease that he don't know about.

At the civil service reform six men met together and decided they would break away from their drunken habits, and since they have become temperate.

What are the benefits of citizens from taxes? They are protected by the government, and enjoy all the rights belonging to the Lord.

A deciduous person is one who is very decided.

What is hygiene? Hygiene is the principal article of food without which the body would die; every kind of food contains hygiene.

What is anatomy? Pure air and correct use of ventilation.

What is suffrage? A dispute, settled by vote.

The plural of tense? Tents.

Absorption is when moisture is combined with some other substance and the moisture ignites and goes off in the air in the form of vapor.

The feminine of drake is crane.

Preparations for the Judson centennial celebration in 1913-14 have already begun. On March 15 at Rochester, President A. H. Strong was elected chairman of a special commission. The object of this celebration is to show to every Baptist church in America the history, the results, and the needs of mission work in foreign fields. Special emphasis will be put at all times on Burma, the centre of Baptist foreign mission work. A deputation will be sent to Burma. All Baptist churches will observe a special Judson day and a Judson centennial volume will be published during the winter of 1913-14.

PASTOR'S WIFE

Was Killed in an Auto Accident

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mrs. Daniel H. Overton, wife of the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Islip, Long Island, and who was pastor of the Green Avenue church in Brooklyn for many years, was killed yesterday afternoon when an automobile in which she was riding was upset between Islip and King's Park.

Mrs. Overton was caught underneath the machine. Three others were slightly hurt. A baby was thrown 200 feet and escaped without a scratch.

The machine was owned by John E. King, manager of the Bailey Lumber company's yards at Islip. He got the machine, a five passenger car, two weeks ago, and yesterday afternoon, invited Mrs. Overton to go for a ride to Central Islip and King's Park. In the party were Mrs. King, her 2-year-old daughter, and Mrs. John C. Dossie. Mr. King was at the wheel.

The party drove to Central Islip and had luncheon and then started home by way of King's Park. When they were about a mile and a half from the latter village the automobile struck a stretch of soft sand, skidded and turned over. Mr. King was thrown to the side of the road and bruised. Mrs. King's foot was caught underneath the machine and badly wrenched. The little girl landed in the brush. Mrs. Dossie was shaken up.

Mrs. Dossie walked about a mile to the nearest farmhouse and got help. When the machine was lifted from Mrs. Overton she was dead. Word was then sent to the State Hospital for the insane at King's Park, and the injured and the body of Mrs. Overton were taken there. Mrs. Overton's body was left at the hospital. The others of the party were taken to their homes in Islip.

The Rev. Mr. Overton was attending a Sunday school convention at Southampton yesterday and reached home at 5:24 o'clock, about twenty minutes before his wife was killed. He found a note from her stating that she had gone auto riding with friends and would return at about 8 o'clock. At that hour he was notified that she had been killed.

Mrs. Overton was about 46 years old. Her husband went to Islip about two years ago. They have two sons in school.

GREAT SUCCESS

IS BAZAAR IN AID OF ST. MARGARET'S PARISH

The bazaar in aid of St. Margaret's church held in Highland club hall is nearing an end, for there are only two more nights left of it, tonight and tomorrow night. The general committee and the aids feel proud of the results obtained so far, and there is a reason too, for a substantial sum has been realized so far.

A very large crowd attended the affair last night and it is reported that business was rushing. There were people from Boston, Lawrence and Haverhill, and a large sum of money was spent about the different tables.

The entertainment program, which was all presented under the auspices of the May table, Mrs. T. Hennessy, matron. The program was rendered by talented people, and there is no use of going into details, for every one is favorably known by the local amateurs of music and literature. The program was as follows:

Piano selection, Miss Veronica Rediker; Spanish dance, Miss Anna McCarthy; solo, selected, C. Eugene McCarthy; reading, Miss Mary Convey; solo, Miss Margaret O'Donoghue; skirt dance, Miss Helen Makin; song, James E. Donnelly; song and dance, Miss Muriel Crumpton; solo, Miss Margaret Cawley; solo, Andrew McCarthy.

Tonight and tomorrow night there will be a big auction sale in the hall, for everything that is left over will be sold to the highest bidder. Saturday night will be M. T. I. night at the fair.

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS MEET

LONDBALE, R. I., May 13.—Resolutions urging a closer relationship between the Primitive Methodist church and the Presbyterian church were adopted at today's session of the eastern conference of the Primitive Methodists today. The resolutions recommended the occasional interchange of pulpits and that an agreement be made which would avoid the overlapping of the churches in new communities. Similar resolutions were recently adopted by the Boston presbytery and they will be referred to the general conference and presbyteries of both churches in order that the desired affiliations might be obtained throughout the country.

A NERVOUS WRECK

Had no Appetite and Was Greatly Reduced in Weight.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored This Ohio Woman's Health.

She Gained in Weight and Eats Heartily Again.

When the nervous system is at fault, we may expect symptoms of the disorder to show in almost every organ of the body for all of these organs are controlled in their activities by the nerves. "I was all run down in every way," says Mrs. J. M. Barclay, of No. 876 Curtis avenue, Columbus, Ohio, "and was a nervous wreck. I was not confined to the bed except for a day or so at a time, but I had no appetite and was greatly reduced in weight. I was irritable and melancholy all of the time, could not get any rest, and my nerves were in such a state that I would have to get up in the night and walk the floor. I suffered in this way for four years and although I had two doctors attend me, neither helped me. "Thinking that a change of climate might benefit me I went to visit relatives of my husband in Nova Scotia and they strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I never had much faith in advertised medicines but I got a box of the pills and they commenced to help me at once. I had not taken them a week before I was able to get a good night's rest. I kept on taking them and gained in flesh and could eat a hearty meal. I always speak highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I know they are good for nervous disorders."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most direct cure for nervous troubles because they remove the cause of these diseases by building up and purifying the blood. The pure blood which they make furnishes the nerves with needed elements until they are restored to their normal strength. The pills have made so many remarkable cures in nervous disorders that no sufferer can afford to neglect giving them a trial.

They can be obtained at any drug store or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 60 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50. While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. They are perfectly safe and create no drug habit. Write for a free copy of our new booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System." The booklet describes symptoms and gives much useful information.

COL. HIGGINSON BURIED

CAMBRIDGE, May 12.—Six negro soldiers of the Sixth regiment, M. V. M., bore into the ancient First parish church (Unitarian) of Cambridge this afternoon the body of Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, the soldier, reformer and author, whose funeral was attended by a great throng representative of the military, civic and literary life of Cambridge and Boston. During the Civil war Col. Higginson commanded a regiment of negro soldiers, and it was thought fitting that the soldiers of the race he had aided to freedom by his pen and sword should be given an opportunity to perform the final service of respect and appreciation they felt for him. The services at the church were in charge of the Loyal Legion and were of a simple character, there being no eulogy. The order of service consisted of an organ selection, reading from the psalms, hymns by a quartet, prayer, benediction, the sounding of "taps" on the bugle and an organ rendition of Handel's "Largo." The body was escorted from Col. Higginson's home to the church by Col. T. W. Higginson camp, Sons of Veterans, and by the Loyal Legion. The honorary pallbearers were:

President emeritus Eliot and President Lowell of Harvard; former Secretary of the Navy Long, Col. N. P. Hallowell, Rev. Edward Cummings, pastor of the South Congregational (Unitarian) church, Boston; G. H. Mifflin, a well known publisher; Charles Francis Adams and Dr. Edward Waldo Emerson, son of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The interment service was private. The ashes were buried in Mount Auburn cemetery after the body had been cremated.

As a mark of the respect in which Col. Higginson was held in this city a delegation of the Cambridge city government, headed by Mayor Barry, attended the church services in a body.

HELD IN $30,000

Prisoners Rearrested on Bench Warrants

NEW YORK, May 12.—Charles W. Caccia and Stanley Gietnik, cashier and assistant cashier respectively of the American Steel Barrel company and the Ironclad Manufacturing company, the two corporations in which Mrs. Elizabeth Seabman, better known as Nellie Bly, is interested as president and treasurer, were arraigned yesterday before Judge Fawcett in the county court in Brooklyn on six indictments charging them with forgery in the second degree and grand larceny. They pleaded not guilty and were held in bail of $5000 each on each indictment, making an aggregate bail of $30,000 for each man.

The men were arrested several months ago on a warrant charging them with securing $610 by means of forged checks. On this charge they were before Chief Magistrate Kemper in the Adams street court when Assistant District Attorney Ross requested that the proceedings be dismissed. Immediately thereafter they were rearrested on bench warrants and taken to the county court.

DR. LABON A SUICIDE

NEW YORK, May 2.—The mystery surrounding the death of Dr. W. R. C. Labon in his Riverside Drive apartment last night was explained today by Miss Alva Marchetta, a student of mystic psychology, who had been the pupil and private secretary of Dr. Labon. The young woman told the coroner that when she called at Dr. Labon's apartment last night she found him dead, kneeling at a sofa and with a note beside him reading: "Mother, I've done my best." The note was signed "Death." Besides taking poison Dr. Labon had shot himself. After remaining several hours with the body of her friend, Miss Marchetta said she went home without notifying the police. Dr. Labon had had family troubles.

orange and red framing the stage. The orchestra was hidden from view by a pretty row of palms.

The attendance was very large and a general good time was enjoyed till a late hour, when every one bade each other adieu, hoping to meet again at the next annual affair.

The musical for the neat little dance order of twenty numbers was furnished by Kiltredge's orchestra, and during intermission refreshments were served.

The officers of the dance were as follows:

General manager, James A. Burns; assistants, Regina Roussel and Alfred Ducharme; floor director, Arthur Leaver; assistant floor director, Louise Gervais; chief aid, Edward Landry; assistant chief aid, Paul Doherty.

THE OPERA HOUSE

A large audience saw George Cip score a decided hit at the Opera House last night when he appeared in the leading role in Miss Margaret Mayo's play in four acts, "Poly of the Circus." The play has been seen here before and the presenting company last night was decidedly clever and suffered none in comparison with the company that was seen here before in the same piece. Miss Cip is a very versatile young woman and her work from the rise of the curtain won her favor with the audience.

The story of the play is familiar to local theatre-goers and always appeals to the audience. There are some lively scenes in which figure acrobats, educated horses, jugglers, equilibrists and a baby elephant that causes great amusement.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

This is your last chance to see the popular Donald Meek stock company in this city for the company ends its engagement for the season with tomorrow night's performance of that uproariously funny comedy, "The Bachelor's Honeymoon." The play is a laugh-provoker and the company is bringing out most successfully all the laughs that are in it. Even Severin DeDeyn, usually the romantic lover full of sentiment and heroism and without comedy, is a most jolly comedian in "The Bachelor's Honeymoon," being the cause of all the trouble himself. Mr. DeDeyn is right there with the comedy and everybody knows what Mr. Meek can do in a funny part. There are a few good seats left for the concluding performance.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, creditors, and all other persons interested in the estate of Edward Lavell, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Whereas, a petition has been presented to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased to John A. Lavell, of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, without giving a surety on his bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fifth day of May, A. D. 1911, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And the petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in the Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, in the County of Middlesex, on one day, at least, before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this tenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

W. E. ROGERS, Register.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

One of the real musical treats of the season will be given at the Merrimack Square theatre tonight when J. Edward Pierce and Miss Marie Roslyn will give what is programmed as an "Operatic Musical." This pair has made a "big hit" during the early part of the week in their songs and promise to meet with favorable recognition in their offering tonight. Their program will be one that will give them rare opportunity to display their unusual talent. Mr. Pierce is a baritone and Miss Roslyn a soprano of considerable ability, as well as a pianist. Come early if you wish a good seat for tonight's performance.

Marlow and Plunkett, are comedians of the first class. Their sketch "The Deaf Student," is one of the most laughable offerings seen at this theatre in some time. Plunkett, as a gentleman of the colored class is certainly amusing. Harcourt and Wheeler, comedienne, give an act that is rich in fun and merriment while Yeager and Kemp are acrobatic performers of high standard. The motion pictures are new and novel. Next week Rose Plunkett, the wonderful girl swimmer, will provide the feature act.—Adv.

COOK ARRESTED

He is Charged With Threatening a Young Woman

Walter Cook, aged 29 years, and who claims his residence as Salem, N. H., was arrested this afternoon in City Hall by Capt. Brosnan and Inspector Laffamme on a complaint charging him with threatening Miss Mabel L.

Tainter. The pair, it is alleged, have kept company for some time, but it is said that on account of the man's habits, the young woman refused to keep company with him, and accordingly, it is claimed that Cook threatened her.

James Egan Injured at the Massachusetts Sends Men to Fight Forest Fires

James Egan, who resides at 56 Auburn street, was badly burned about the face, hands and arms while at work at the Massachusetts mill shortly after noon today. The ambulance was summoned and he was taken to the Lowell hospital where he received treatment.

It seems that Mr. Egan entered the dust hole of the napping room when the cotton therein became ignited blazing up about him. The doctor says that Egan did not inhale the flames and that the burns caused blisters on his face and his arms, half way from the hands to the shoulders. He had a narrow escape from fatal injury. He was employed as one of the guard hands.

HEAVY SENTENCE

Is Provided Under New Law

According to a law which will go into effect tomorrow any person arrested for felony or upon a warrant for an alleged crime, if found guilty is liable to a sentence of not less than one year or more than ten years.

The law reads as follows: "An act relative to the unlicensed carrying of revolvers or pistols in certain cases. Chapter 211, of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by adding thereto the following new section, Sec. 13—Whoever, when arrested for a felony or upon a warrant for an alleged crime, and who, when arrested, is armed with a revolver or pistol, having no license to carry the same, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than one year and not more than ten years."

JUDGE PICKMAN FOUND IN FAVOR OF THE PLAINTIFF

In the civil session of the police court yesterday afternoon, Judge Pickman rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Undertaker Amadee Archambault, who sued Joseph Therberge of Lawrence for the recovery of the funeral expenses of his wife, who died in this city some time ago.

Therberge refused to pay the bill, claiming that his wife some time before her death. After summing up the evidence, Judge Pickman rendered his decision in favor of Mr. Archambault in the sum of $208. Lawyer A. O. Hamel appeared for the plaintiff, while Lawyer Joseph Monette of Lawrence appeared for the defendant.

DANGEROUS FIRES

SKETCH OF THE DUMP FIRE ON THE HIGH STREET EXTENSION LAST NIGHT. ENDANGERING ADJACENT PROPERTY

Gave the Firemen Plenty of Work to do

A barn in Riverside street belonging to Paul Vigeant, was gutted by fire last night. A valuable horse was burned and practically all of the contents of the building destroyed. Mr. Vigeant also had a narrow escape from being burned.

Shortly before nine o'clock Mr. Vigeant, as has been his custom, went to change his horse from one stall to another. Having occasion to go upstairs he lighted a lantern and in descending the stairs tripped and fell. The lantern which he was carrying exploded and set fire to some loose hay which was on the floor, and in a very short time the interior of the building was ablaze. Mr. Vigeant made an attempt to rescue the horse but was unsuccessful.

When Mr. Vigeant found that he was unable to save the horse he realized that his means of exit from the building was cut off, but finally succeeded in working his way to the rear ground. The smoke from the burning of the building and jumped to the Members of Mr. Vigeant's family attracted by the flames noticed some boys who were passing and the latter sent in an alarm from box 27 and in a short time a portion of the fire department was on the scene. But for the prompt response of the firemen the house, which is but a few feet away from the barn, would also have been destroyed.

A dangerous brush and grass fire broke out in Westford and raged for several hours. Scores of men who live in the vicinity attacked the flames and after several hours succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

Fire broke out in the woods back of the Elliot French house on Sprague avenue in Wigganville about 6 o'clock last night and kept many men busy until 11 o'clock, when they finally succeeded in getting it under control. There was no property damage, outside of that to the land.

DANGEROUS FIRE
BROKE OUT IN GORHAM STREET THIS MORNING
Several persons were rescued from a building in Gorham street shortly after midnight when fire broke out in an oil of the building numbered 82-86 Gorham street. The blaze for a time threatened to extend to other structures in the vicinity but the prompt work of the fire department kept it confined to the place where the fire started. The fire attracted hundreds of people who at first believed that the surrounding buildings were doomed. The smoke from the burning oil entered the tenements at 84 and 86 Gorham street and forced the occupants to leave in all possible haste. When nine persons had made their way out of the building, inquiry was made and it was learned that there were some left behind. Officer O'Keefe who patrols that section, rushed up the stairways, quickly followed by Sergt. Ryan and Michael Conhors, a call fireman, and soon returned with Mrs. William Sheeley, who was overcome by the smoke, her baby and sister, and two other young girls who were partially overcome. Undertaker James McBurnett who owns the property opened his place of business and here the occupants of the building took refuge until such time as the fire was extinguished. Several citizens rendered valuable assistance prior to the arrival of the firemen, among them a young man named O'Jay, James E. Gagan, who was the earliest arrival on the scene and Ralph Gullinan, McDonald's fish market and the saloon of Jeremiah McGillicuddy were damaged.

At 1:32 this morning the fire broke out again, but it was extinguished before any damage was done.

THREATENED PROPERTY IN VICINITY OF FORT HILL PARK
At various times since the opening of spring the fire department has been called to extinguish small fires on the dump on the High Street extension. None of these fires, however, amounted to very much, and they were promptly put out, but last evening there was a blaze on this dump that might well have been reserved as a bon fire for the Fourth of July.

The park department during the season had dumped a lot of brush wood and branches clipped from trees by the ash men came and unloaded rubbish over this, almost completely covering it. The continued dry weather had left the dump in good condition to feed the flames when once started. It is supposed that the dump in the dump last evening and in a very short space of time there was a big blaze in progress with the clouds rising high in the air and blowing over the houses close by.

THE FIRE DEPT.

Was Kept on the Jump Again Today

The fire department was kept pretty busy again today, notwithstanding the progress. A portion of the department went as far as the city limit, and of the night. The first alarm was at 10:13 this morning when a portion of the department was called by telephone to the syndicate dump in High Street. Then at 11:05 o'clock another telephone alarm was sent in from East

FINAL ARGUMENTS

Made in Case of Mrs. Dodge Charged With Murder

GUILDHALL, VT., May 12.—A belated bit of evidence having an important bearing on the case of Mrs. Florence Dodge of Lunenburg, whose trial for the alleged murder of William Heath is drawing to a close in the Essex county court here, was received today by Attorney Harry Blodgett of St. Johnsbury, senior counsel for the defendant. Whether this evidence can be placed before the jury is a matter of doubt, inasmuch as the case is closed so far as evidence is concerned and arguments are now in progress. The belated evidence is in the form of a letter which is written by Mrs. Dodge to Miss Edwina Blodgett, daughter of Attorney Blodgett. The letter was dated "Concord, Vt., Dec. 27, 1910" and was mailed upon the same date, according to the postmark. The letter acknowledged Mrs. Dodge's receipt of and thanks for a Christmas gift sent to her by Miss Blodgett.

The importance of this letter rests in the fact that it would tend to support Mrs. Dodge's claim that she was at Concord, Vt., on Dec. 27, last. This is the date on which a letter was mailed from Brookline, Mass., to Attorney General Sargent signed "M. J. S." and giving a brief description of the appearance and movements of "the man who shot Heath." It is claimed that this letter is in Mrs. Dodge's handwriting and when Mrs. Dodge was being cross-examined by the attorney general she was obliged to write, at the attorney's dictation the text of the "M. J. S." letter. A handwriting expert, testifying for the state, said that in his opinion the original "M. J. S." letter was written by the same person who wrote the text in dictation.

The biggest crowd of the trial tried to get inside the courthouse this morning to hear the trial arguments in the case.

Yesterday State's Attorney Ames argued for the state and was followed by Attorney Harland B. Howe of Mrs. Dodge's counsel. Today another of Mrs. Dodge's counsel, Porter Dale of Island Pond, spoke the final words in behalf of the accused woman and it was arranged that Attorney-General Sargent should make the closing argument for the state.

As soon as court had opened Attorney Howe asked permission to enter as evidence the letter written by Mrs. Dodge to Miss Blodgett. Neither State's Attorney Ames nor Attorney-General Sargent offered any objection and the letter was admitted and entered as an exhibit. In showing the letter to the jury Mr. Howe called attention to what he considered dissimilarities between the handwriting as compared with the "M. J. S." letter sent to Attorney-General Sargent. Mr. Howe, to the surprise of almost everyone in the courtroom, then resumed his plea, which it was generally thought he had completed before yesterday's adjournment.

Mr. Howe said that the handwriting of the letter sent to the attorney general indicated that the letter had been written by a man who was not accustomed to writing. He characterized it as the work of a crank and throughout his argument whenever he had any occasion to refer to this exhibit he called it the "crank letter."

9:47 a. m. and was followed by Mr. Dale.

"Our client concedes no guilt in this case but on the other hand repeatedly asserts her innocence," said Mr. Dale. He declared that Mrs. Dodge heard only two shots, for if she had heard three she would have been present when they were fired and it could then be proved that she fired them. It is the theory of the defense that two of the shots went off so close together that they sounded like one and that the third shot followed a minute or two later. Mr. Dale dwelt at considerable length on the appearance of Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand, and the emphasis with which she denied her guilt.

"She acted just as you or I would have done had we been wrongly accused of a crime of this nature," said Mr. Dale.

The prosecution bases its case upon that of reasonable opportunity while we have ours on that of a reasonable accident," continued Mr. Dale.

Mr. Dale then took the three exploded shells in his hand and pointed out the similarity between the two of them, while the third was entirely different and said that this tended to show that the two went off at nearly the same instant while the third was fired subsequently.

If You Love Your Wife

Buy Her One of Our REFRIGERATORS

Quinn Furniture Co., 160-162 Middlesex St., Lowell Mass.

Gentlemen:—I received one of your twelve dollar refrigerators yesterday, and must say it is the finest refrigerator I have ever used. I always kept my butter and provisions in the cellar, but, thank goodness, I will not be obliged to do so any longer. My cat accidentally got into the box the other evening and the next morning it was frozen to death. I think your ice box is lovely. The only thing I am afraid of is that my husband may get into the box some night, and if he meets the same fate as my cat it will kill me. Please let me know if you have any refrigerators that don't get so cold. I have a friend who wants to buy one, and she is so chilly I want her to get a warmer box. If you have one please save it for her. With best wishes, I am,

Yours truly, MRS. JONES.

We have the real goods and guarantee satisfaction, or give you your money back. Prices from $5.89 to $22.00

MAYOR MEEHAN

To Go to Boston on Civil Service Business

THE PUBLIC HALL SITE CONSIDERED

Another Effort Will Be Made to Agree Upon a Site—Board of Charities to Meet Next Tuesday

Mayor Meehan will go to Boston, Tuesday for a conference with the civil service commission relative to the status of Lowell's assistant fire engineers. It will be remembered that the mayor reappointed Edward Meloy, Charles W. Alway and Charles Stackpole as assistant engineers. These appointments have not yet been confirmed by the board of aldermen. The question has arisen, it appears, as to whether the assistant engineers come under the jurisdiction of the civil service commission and that is the matter that the mayor will iron out with the civil service commission on Tuesday.

New Public Hall
The sub-committee from the committee on appropriations will meet with the Huntington hall commission this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the proposition for a new hall. It is understood that an attempt will be made to agree upon a site other than the Old Washington tavern site. This is the site recommended by the commission and since that recommendation was made other sites have not been very seriously considered.

Other Meetings
The board of health will hold its regular meeting this afternoon and the next regular meeting of the board of charities will be held next Tuesday.

EXCITING SCENE

Gypsies Were Held up by the Police

NEWBURYPORT, May 12.—A tribe of Brazilian gypsies, numbering 75 persons, traveling in a dozen or more wagons was held up by the local police yesterday on request of the Amesbury police, and for a time there was an exciting scene in front of the station house.

James Colby said two women traveling with the band had picked his pocket of a pocketbook containing $30. The parties were described and the chief of the tribe was told that all would be held on suspicion unless the money was restored.

After a delay of an hour the chief told Acting City Marshal Ayers that they would settle, and the men of the tribe contributed to make up the sum lost by Mr. Colby.

The gypsies were then allowed to depart, with Portland, Me., as their objective destination. It was said the caravan had come over the road from Lawrence earlier in the day.

QUEEN MOTHER

HAS RETURNED FROM CRUISE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

LONDON, May 12.—Queen Mother Alexandra, who returned a week ago from a cruise in the Mediterranean, has taken up a residence at Sandringham palace, where she will remain until after the coronation. During the cruise and since her return the queen mother has enjoyed good general health. She reached here just in time to be present at the memorial service on the anniversary of the death of King Edward and her distress during the service was marked. As yet she has scarcely recovered from this strain but otherwise the royal widow is in excellent health.

VISITING IN LOWELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. Marcell of Biddeford, Me., who are enjoying a honeymoon trip in this city as the guests of Mrs. Joseph Varina and Mr. and Mrs. Hector G. Laroche will leave tomorrow for Somersworth where they will visit relatives before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcell, the latter formerly Mrs. Emma Normandin, were married last week in Biddeford. They left immediately on a wedding tour, including Boston, Haverhill, Worcester and Lowell. They arrived here a few days ago, and were given a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Laroche. While in this city they were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts.

SOME HARM SKIRT, PRESENT SATURDAY

The following marriage intentions were issued at the office of the city clerk today:

John Mather, 27, U. S. Army, 113 Fort Hill avenue, and Isabelle M. Russell, 25, at home, 331 Wabster street.

Constantinos Ladas, 24, laborer, 3 Dunster street, and Margeta Carlsky, 25, weaver, same address.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The show at this house for the remainder of the week is one that contains many novel features. The musical Rossis have a very classy musical offering and one that is out of the ordinary run, including dancing and acrobatic work. Batty Barlow extemporaneous comedian, entertains in parodies and stories. Spissel Bros. and Engel in "The Dutchman's First Visit" have a funny pantomime acrobatic act. The bill includes the latest in motion pictures.—Adv.

THE GRAND JURY

Wants to Hear From Lawrence Men

LAWRENCE, May 11.—As a result of the Essex county grand jury probe into local municipal affairs subpoenas were placed in the hands of the local police last night summoning eight well known men to appear in superior court at Newburyport today in "John Doe" proceedings.

State Police Officer Fred F. Flynn, who has been conducting the investigation, assisted by State Officer Barrett, brought the papers here and they were turned over to an inspector for service.

Those upon whom summonses were served were: Alderman James R. Walker, Ezra F. Menahan, Jr., secretary to the mayor; Ex-Alderman John Tobin, Henry H. Gifford and Maurice J. Mahoney, Jr., automobile agents; Wallace A. Nickerson, a reserve policeman; Jacob Wagenbach, a contractor, and John J. Evans, a business man, whom Mayor Cahill has appointed assistant fire engineer several times, but the aldermen have refused confirmation.

FOUR INJURED

IN A COLLISION OF AUTOS AT FALL RIVER

FALL RIVER, May 12.—Four persons were injured when two automobiles came into collision head on at Reahly's turn on the Providence road in South Somerset yesterday.

Dr. D. R. Ryder of 204 Rock street and his mother occupied one car. Mrs. Ryder was thrown onto the forward part of the car and apparently severely injured. Dr. Ryder escaped with a few bruises.

The other car was occupied by William Brightman of 82 Avon street, Providence, and a young woman companion. Both were thrown out. The woman is in a serious condition from bruises and nervous shock and her left ankle was injured. Brightman's front teeth were knocked out and his face was bruised.

Other automobilists went to their assistance and the injured people were taken into the home of William Pritchard. Dr. William P. Pritchard of Fall River was summoned. Mrs. Ryder was taken to Truesdale hospital in this city. Brightman and his companion were taken to Providence.

The accident occurred on a sharp turn in the road. Brightman was coming toward Fall River and Dr. Ryder toward Providence. Brightman bore hard over to his right until within two feet of a stone wall and brought his car to a sudden stop, but the other car bore down directly upon him. It is said. Both were going at a fair rate of speed.

WOULD LIE AWAKE ALL NIGHT WITH ITCHING ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferer Ever Since He Can Remember. Utterly Intolerable, Seemed Beyond Medical Power to Cure. "My Disease Was Routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment."

"I take great pleasure in praising the wonderful Cuticura Cures. Ever since I can remember I was a terrible sufferer of eczema, and other irritating skin diseases. I would lie awake all night, and my suffering was intolerable. A sear humor settled on my back, and being but a child, I naturally scratched it. It was a burning, itching sensation, and utterly intolerable. In fact, it was so that I could not possibly forget about it. It did not take long before it spread to my shoulders and arms, and I was almost covered with a mass of raw flesh on account of my scratching it. I was in such a condition that my hands were tied.

"A number of physicians were called, but it seemed beyond their medical power and knowledge to cure me. Having tried numerous treatments without deriving any benefit from them, I had given myself up to the mercy of my dreadful malady, but I thought I would take the Cuticura treatment as a last resort. Words cannot express my gratitude to the one who created the Cuticura Remedies, as I have named them, for thank heaven there was such a miracle as the Cuticura Remedies sent to the suffering world, and now I feel as if I never suffered from even a pimple. My disease was routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I shall never cease praising the wonderful merits they contain. I will never be without them. In fact, I can almost dare any skin disease to attack me so long as I have Cuticura Remedies in the house. (Signed) C. Louis Green, 102 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 29, 1910.

PREACHED ON SCANDAL

Powerful Sermon Delivered by Rev.
Fr. Kelly, O. P.

An extremely large congregation of women last evening listened to a powerful sermon on "Scandal" given by Rev. Father Kelly, O. P., one of the Dominican fathers now giving the mission at St. Michael's church. The sermon was preceded by a most interesting talk on the effects of the rosary by Fr. Donohue. Fr. Kelly took for his text the words of Jesus Christ: "It must needs be that scandal cometh, but woe to the man by whom that scandal cometh, it were better for him that a millstone be hanged about his neck and that he be drowned in the depths of the sea, than that he scandalize one of these, my little ones." There is nothing here left to conjecture. It is very evident that those who by evil example or influence work detriment to souls purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ are not exempt from responsibility even though the scandal given be not intentional. Our Blessed Lord declares scandal inevitable, but he emphasizes strongly the responsibility of those who give it and the chastisement that follows. Not every sin gives occasion to scandal. Many crimes of mankind are known only to God and the perpetrators of them, and bad as these may be in themselves, no scandal accompanies the scandal is surely malignant and diabolical. Indirect scandal is given without a conscious intention of leading others astray, yet it scandal is given in this way, the givers of it come under the anathema of Jesus Christ. "Woe be to the man by whom scandal cometh." Being thrown into the sea is mercy compared to the punishment awaiting those who scandalize or lead others into sin. The Son of Man shall send his angels to gather together the scandal mongers and cast them, not into the sea, but into the depths of hell. Though this crime is enormous in the eyes of Jesus, we do not realize the effects of it as we should. When we read or hear of an assassin putting his dagger into the heart of his victim, we are shocked to hear of this violation of God's command. Worse, far worse, is spiritual murder, the murder of the soul. Grace is the life of the soul. Moral sin deprives it of that life. It kills the soul and this spiritual death is far more deplorable than the death of the body, just as the soul itself is more valuable than the body. While there is life there is hope of salvation, of course, but it often happens that those who give scandal, lose with their bodily lives the life of their souls as well.

The scandal giver is the emissary of the devil. In Genesis we read of the murderer of souls, the serpent, tempting Eve to the transgression of God's command. In the New Testament he is spoken of as a roaring lion seeking whom he may devour. In these days he is neither the serpent nor the lion but he cunningly inveigles souls through the instrumentality of the scandalizer. The latter does Satan's work, sowing the cockle seed that destroys the good seed of Jesus Christ. The scandal giver will not realize this side the grave the result of his work. The weak and unsuspecting are led astray, thinking what others do so openly cannot be so very bad. They soon imitate what they see, enrolling themselves and others too, perhaps, under the banner of Satan. Like an epidemic the work of the scandalizer spreads. Even when his bones are rotting in the grave it has not ceased. His memory may be forgotten but his influence continues, ruining souls redeemed by Jesus Christ. As long as the world lasts, and not till the Judgment Day will the extent of the ruin, the devastation be known. And here we have one of the reasons for that Day of Judgment. Just as the work of apostle and missionary will be, for the first time, made known to the whole world in all its magnitude, so will the evil wrought by example, by bad influence, be shown up in all their malignity.

It is easier to drag souls down than to raise them up. From the very tendencies of our nature we are more easily influenced by bad than good. Only the grace of God can raise us from sin. It is hard to change a sinner from a vicious life to one of virtue. It is far easier to lead a soul astray. Souls fall into sin all too easily, but see what is required of Jesus Christ to bring back his lost sheep to the fold. See how he suffered to purchase our souls for the Kingdom of God. Weary steps during long days over mountain and plain, nights of incessant prayer, total annihilation of himself. See Him in His agony, in His scourging. Behold Him crowned with thorns, buffeted, spat upon, hoisted, mocked, beaten, forced to bear the heavy weight of the cross, forced to shed the last drop of His blood. And scandalizers would steal from Him the souls He died to save. Can not the scandal giver see in every crucifixion, in city or country, in church or elsewhere, a mute but terrible witness to their crime? Can he not hear a voice crying out to him that of any preacher cry out to their souls, "Woe be to the man by whom scandal cometh."

And who are they who give scandal? Those indeed who repeat scandalous stories, calumniators, detractors, those who make scandals the topic of conversation, the blasphemers, the user of profane words, the man or woman who incites into innocent hearts thoughts of evil, parents who condone at petty thefts of children, thus making themselves responsible for their after lives of crime as burglars, yeggmen, etc., filling our jails, our reformatories, our prisons, parents whose children seldom or never see them pray, parents who absent themselves from mass and the sacraments, parents who do not carefully guard the literature, the pictures, etc., that come into the home, who, taking pleasure in this literature and these pictures themselves, give to the children what, in common decency should be banished from the home. "He who had not care of his home, he has denied the faith."

There are parents giving scandal by drinking intoxicating liquors before their children and doing what is worse still, pressing the cup to these innocent lips, thus starting these young souls down an incline that leads to what? God only knows. There are thousands of records in the registers of our jails, courts and penitentiaries that tell us of careers started at home when the impression was given that to dally with the glass of liquor was not dangerous. It is no wonder children grow up a disgrace to the home, the country and the church to which they belong.

Those who give or lend dangerous books to others are giving scandal, so also are those who mock or deride religion or are ashamed of it; those who are Catholics only in name and whose lives are a contradiction to their professions, those who remain from mass or the sacraments for months or years, those who go to dances not properly conducted, those who consort with irreligious people, those who scout the authority of the church in marriage laws. "He who hears you hears me," said our Blessed Lord, and he who despises you despises me." Those who by their position are expected to exert a beneficial influence and who by their neglect do so scandalize those who naturally look to them for good example.

Parents especially are responsible for the souls of their children. God has appointed you the guardian angels of

GOOD ADVICE ABOUT ECZEMA

Eczema is so common and so many people suffer from it in one form or another that in medical circles the advice is sometimes jokingly given to call every doubtful skin eruption eczema. This is really not bad advice, for if the eczema treatment fails, then the disease is plainly something else. A good plan, whenever there is an eruption, is to apply Cadum. If there is itching, Cadum will stop it, and the sore places will heal. In other forms of skin disease, such as redness, pimples, blotches, rash, roughness, scaly skin, chaffins, acne, sores, ulcers, eruptions, hives, tetter, itch, herpes, psoriasis, ringworm, itching piles, etc., Cadum will also be found highly beneficial. By all means try this remarkable remedy, and satisfy yourself as to whether your trouble is eczema or something else. Trial box 30c.

these little ones. Your every word has Godlike authority. Be cautious then lest you become a rock of scandal. The way of precept is long, the way of example short. Your life should be an open book to your children. You must not only point the way, you must lead. Jesus Christ was not content with preaching, with telling us what we must do. He not only preached meekness but gave himself as an example of it. "Learn of me for I am meek and humble of heart." He taught us to respect lawful authority. God himself, He was subject to Mary and Joseph and even paid the coin of tribute to Caesar. His forbearance was exemplified in His laying down His life for us. His forgiveness in His prayer for His enemies. Mortification and sobriety found place in his daily existence. His whole life was a mirror of perfection. "Who can convince me of sin?" And when He warned the world against scandal, He emphasized His teaching, though it necessitated the working of a miracle. "That His apostles might not be scandalized in His failure to make the customary offering in the temple, He sent one of them to the sea-shore, bidding him look in the mouth of the fish he would find there for the money that the wandering apostle really did find in sufficient amount to comply with the obligation of the Jewish law.

Having shown the effects of scandal the preacher besought his hearers not to yield to the influence of the scandal giver and if he or she happened to be the nearest or dearest to forfeit friendship or ought also rather than to endanger their souls. Strive to be to one another, he said, a source of help. Give all the aid, all the assistance possible to other souls on the road to salvation. Not a soul has ascended into heaven without bringing another with it—not a soul has descended into hell without dragging a companion into misery. Though we may not be aware of the influence, good or bad, that we exert, it will be recorded and made known at the Day of Judgment. Far off on the mighty deep there are swells and heavy seas, too distant to be visible to the eye, but whose far reaching effects are seen in the dashing spray, the roaring breakers that roll up on the sandy beach. Just so, the good or bad influence of our lives, when we ourselves have passed from sight, may surge and foam and break over other lives in ways of which we never dreamed. Comfort them and edify your neighbor just as far as you can. Be blameless children of God. Let your light shine before men, not for favor or esteem, but that others, seeing your work may glorify your Father in heaven. In so doing, you will become associates of Jesus Christ, who assumed our human nature to obtain for us salvation. Remember, He has promised that even a cup of cold water given for His sake will not go unrewarded; how unspeakably great, then, the reward in store for those who have won souls to His service. God is not less munificent in his rewards than He is terrible in His punishments. For love of Him, then, let us do all we can to help our fellow travellers on the way to heaven by precept, advice, encouragement, but above and beyond all, by example.

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale-people look good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach. A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Latency by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

by Ward's Suit

NEW YORK, May 12.—Baseball ethics figure in the suit for $50,000 damages brought by John M. Ward against Ben Johnson, president of the American league. Ward was once manager of the New York Giants, but quit baseball fifteen years ago to become a lawyer. He bases his claim for damages on the allegation that Johnson referred to him as a "trickster" two years ago when Ward was a candidate for president of the National league. During the trial, Ward was a witness and was kept on the stand two days while he was quizzed regarding his ideas on baseball and legal ethics. Ward represented George S. Davis, the shortstop who jumped the Chicago White Sox in 1903 to join the New York Giants, but who was sent back to the Chicago team by the national baseball commission. It was shown that the Chicago club was paying Davis $1000 a year and that the New York club offered him $3000 and agreed to pay the cost of any legal action in which he might become involved because of his changing his allegiance. Many baseball magnates have attended the trial and have closely followed the testimony.

MAN ARRESTED

Is Charged With Shooting a Rival

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., May 12.—Muel Filligan, a rejected suitor for the hand of Miss Sami Poloni, is charged with firing a shot which killed John Rosso, a successful rival, and slightly wounded the girl at Death last night. The victims in a fond embrace on a window shade. One bullet hit both and a second shot went wild. Filligan fell in love with a picture of the girl, corresponded with her, proposed marriage and was accepted. When the girl came to this country she did not love Muel and was soon to wed Rosso. Filligan escaped after the shooting.

BIG FESTIVAL

PALACE TODAY

LONDON, May 12.—The festival of Empire, a combination of an industrial exposition with pageantry illustrative of the striking periods and episodes in the history of the different parts of the British empire was opened at the Crystal Palace today by King George and Queen Mary. It was the first public ceremony of their majesties since the court mourning for King Edward was ended and the first of a long series of functions which promises to make the coronation season memorable.

The king and queen drove in a semi-state carriage drawn by four horses with outriders from Buckingham Palace to College road, opposite which a new entrance to the Crystal Palace had been made for their use. Enormous crowds lined the route as the procession passed. In Cambridge Green the royal pair were greeted by 40,000 school children who had been given

CREW DROWNED

Washed Ashore

PENSACOLA, Fla., May 12.—It was established today that the vessel which was wrecked and washed ashore near here two weeks ago was the schooner Queen of the Standard Oil Co. Her crew of five were undoubtedly drowned. The boat is a total loss. The identification was made by men who reached the wreck in small boats. The Queen was loaded with oil in barrels and was bound from Tampa to Panama City, Fla.

THE YALE SHELL

ARRIVED AT SPRINGFIELD THIS MORNING

NEW HAVEN, May 12.—The shell which will be used by Yale in the race with Pennsylvania at Springfield tomorrow having been shipped last night, the Yale eight followed it today, expecting to have a pull over the course this evening. The sailing of the men has not been changed from that of the exhibition pull last Saturday. The men are in excellent form. Indications point to a very large delegation of Yale students leaving tomorrow to see the race. It is about the only opportunity for the undergraduates to see the varsity crew in a race as they will be dispersed to their homes at the time of the New London regatta.

MEDFORD, Ore., May 12.—Jack

Louden, one of the last of the old-time stage drivers, was fatally injured yesterday at Haze Hill, 15 miles from Grant's pass while driving a four horse team which had become frightened.

Knowing that he was approaching a high cliff and sharp curve, Louden drew his revolver and shot one of the leaders dead. This failed to stop the team, however, which dragged the dead horse several yards and over the embankment. Louden was thrown down the precipice and his skull was fractured. Two passengers jumped from the stage and escaped with slight

NEW RACE TRACK

BUFFALO, May 12.—Another border race track will be added to the Canadian circuit within a year, according to an announcement made here by W. W. Murray, the well known starter who has been appointed general manager by the backers of the new venture. The track will be located at Niagara Falls, within an hour of Buffalo and Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Murray has been engaged for a term of five years. The association has only a half mile track but it is asserted that after the spring and summer meetings of this year a mile track will be built that will be the equal of any in Canada.

FIRES ARE RAGING

In Towns of Marlboro
and Roxbury

KEENE, N. H., May 12.—Keene today was covered by a dense cloud of smoke from fires raging in the forests near the towns of Marlboro and Roxbury, adjoining Keene on the east and southeast. Since Wednesday the flames have swept over almost a thousand acres of woodland, including valuable tracts of pine and the loss already amounts to several thousand dollars.

More than 350 men from this city and adjoining towns fought the fire yesterday and still more went to their assistance today. No buildings have yet been destroyed.

SHOTS WERE FIRED

Three Men Were Placed Under Arrest in Boston

BOSTON, May 12.—Three shots were fired by Patrolmen Ivers and Hale at 12.15 this morning after two fleeing store breakers, and after they had been rounded up the officers went back to the men's furnishing store at 454 Atlantic avenue which it is charged they had broken into and caught a third just as he was emerging.

AN APPEAL TO WIVES

No more terrible affliction can come to any home than the excessive use of intoxicants by husband or son. Think of the money wasted in drink, which is needed in the home to buy food and clothing. If you have a drinking husband or son, give him ORRINE. We are so sure that Orrine will do what is claimed for it, that after a trial no benefits are derived from it, we will refund the money.

ORRINE is prepared in two forms. No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. ORRINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. ORRINE costs only $1.00 a box. Write for Free Orrine Booklet (enclosed in plain sealed envelope) to ORRINE CO., 604 Orange Building, Washington, D. C. ORRINE is recommended and for sale in this city by Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., 119-123 Merrimack street.

SOME FAST BOUTS

Fine Program at Lowell Social Club

Once more the Lowell Social and Athletic club presented an excellent program of boxing bouts at its regular meeting, last evening's being fully as interesting as any of the others.

The principal event was to have been of 12 rounds between Young Doyle of this city, who has been coming along finely, and Johnnie Gallant of Chelsea, an Army club star. Gallant was a pretty risky proposition for Doyle to select for a starter as he has had much more ring experience than the local boy, is heavier and cleverer. But Doyle went at him gamely and was still going in the sixth round when his seconds seeing what the result would be threw in the sponge. Doyle carried the work to his opponent and the latter simply laid back and waited his opportunity. He did some very clever blocking while on the defensive warding off all of Doyle's leads and rushes. At length Gallant showed some class, his short arm work making a big hit with the members.

The semi-final introduced Willie Howe, the actor-boxer, and Tommy Moran, who is a most promising 105 kid. Willie was there for the first three rounds but Moran cut loose in the fourth and for the remaining sections put it over Willie and got the decision.

Willie Mack of Lowell and Bob Sargent of Fitchburg put up a spanking six-round curtain raiser with the honors even. They were both free hitters and each battled over 300. The decision met with the approval of the members. Tommy Moran after getting the decision from Willie Howe announced that he would like to meet Freddie Maguire at 105, and Freddie cheerfully announced that he would be pleased to accommodate him. Before they met, however, the members will probably see Maguire and Kid Thomas of Lawrence in a bout at 105. Thomas is considered one of the best 105 men in New England and the fans of both cities desire to see who is who between them.

The police say that the younger Kelley was practically a prisoner in the store, as the pane of glass he broke in the door was barely large enough to allow him to force himself in with the aid of the others, and that when he was left to his own resources it was next to impossible to squeeze his body through to escape.

POPE PIUS

FEELING EFFECTS OF RECENT ATTACK OF GOUT

ROME, May 12.—Pope Pius is still feeling the effect of his recent attack of gout and the audiences planned for this morning were suspended. Those who had received invitations were turned back when they arrived at the Vatican. The condition of His Holiness has given little alarm to his physicians who permitted the private audiences set for today. All one of these the pontiff had a long conference with the bishop of Ferentino.

GOVERNOR GRAY
STILL THE FAVORITE IN KENTUCKY DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—The fact that Aidesworth will not ride Governor Gray, the favorite in the Kentucky derby tomorrow, has not impaired the gelding's chances, according to betting indications. The official odds today are placed at 2 to 1. Merdan and Round-the-World ruled about even as second choice, while Colston is said by horsemen to have the best chance of any of the outsiders to capture the classic.

them. Young Doyle of Lowell, who is to box a semi-final at Woburn next Monday evening, was introduced. Doyle is in fine shape and appears to be a comer. Joe Costello refereed last evening's bouts.

TROUBLE AHEAD

FOR THE CHICAGO NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUB

CHICAGO, May 12.—There is trouble ahead for the management of the Chicago National league club if County Commissioner Glennon succeeds in gaining favorable action on a move which he started yesterday to have the West Side ball park moved farther away from the county hospital. The county is now preparing to make additions to the hospital which will cost more than $3,000,000 and Commissioner Glennon says he wants to make conditions around the institution as perfect as possible.

"I want it to be understood that I am not doing this in opposition to the management of the Cubs or that I am in any way opposed to baseball," said Mr. Glennon. "I am a fan myself and am anxious to see the game prosper in Chicago. But I believe that the vicinity in which a hospital is located should be a zone of quiet."

NO DEMONSTRATION

STEAMER WITH FOREIGN COAL REACHES CORDOVA, ALASKA

CORDOVA, Alaska, May 12.—The steamer Edith loaded with 300 tons of Canadian coal arrived from Nainaimo, B. C. last night, and was berthed without any demonstration being made by the large crowd of citizens who were on the wharf to greet the collier.

Many threats had been made that a demonstration similar to that of last week would occur when the Edith would arrive with the foreign coal. Authorities, however, posted a large number of deputies at the wharf and announced that any riotous conduct would be met with immediate arrest of all disturbers.

"UPSTREAM" DAY

TEXTILE SCHOOL INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENTS HAD FINE SAIL

The Textile school boys enjoyed their annual "Upstream" day, yesterday, when they went up the Merrimack river in the steamboat "Governor Allen" to the grounds of the Martin Luther club. The day was enjoyed by about 150 of the students and instructors. Music was furnished by the Essex county training school band of 25 pieces.

Baseball games were the order of the day.

The first was between the "Niggers" from the cotton course and the "Lambs" from the wool course. The former won in an interesting game by a score of 10 to 6. The lineup of the teams was as follows: "Niggers," Hartford, p; McGee, c; Crane, 1b; Wiswall, 2b; Peck, ss; Bennett, 3b; Conant, lf; Goodale, rf; Hathaway, cf; Edmunds, rf.

"Lambs," Halstead, p; Frost, p, lf; Lamonte, c; Shea, 1b; Pottinger, 2b; Ward, 3b; Weeks, cf; Preston, rf.

In the second game the "Nitric Acids" defeated the "Caustic Sodas" by a score of 12 to 4. After this game, the company sat down to a sumptuous repast served by the Page Catering company.

In the afternoon the big game of the day took place between the instructors and a team composed of senior chemists known as the "Turkey Reds," in which the latter were victorious by a score of 24 to 7.

The lineup: "Turkey Reds," Pierson, p; Jefferson, c; Slidell, 1b; Ford, ss; Adams, lf; Culver, cf; Standish, rf.

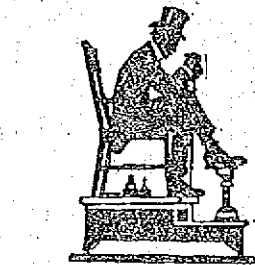

Instructors, Lupien, p; Eames, c; lb; Wood, c, ss; Perkins, 2b; Fiske, 3b; Ferguson, ss; Ball, lf; McKay, cf; Holt, rf; Umpire, Murray.

In the final baseball game, the Freshmen beat the Sophomores by a score of 12 to 6. Sylvain and Peck were the batteries for the Freshmen, and Hartford and Lamonte for the Sophs.

In the tug of war, the 1911 team defeated the 1910 team at the former's expense by 1011 in a close contest. In the finals, the instructors won over the Seniors by a large margin.

The start home was made about 6 o'clock, everybody voting "Upstream" day the best ever. The committee in charge consisted of: A. F. Ferguson, E. B. Rich, H. R. C. Jefferson, H. R. Lamonte, H. A. McArthur, J. C. J. Cleary and R. H. Fiebo 13.

PASSENGERS SAFE

The Steamer Merida Run Into by the Admiral Farragut

NEW YORK, May 12.—The steamer Merida of the Ward line, with 207 passengers from Havana for this city, was rammed by the steamer Admiral Farragut off Cape Charles, Va., shortly after midnight this morning. The Merida's passengers were transferred to the Admiral Farragut. Water poured through the gaping wound in the Merida's side and five hours after the collision the steamer settled beneath the waves. Wireless distress signals were dashed in every direction and the United States battleship Iowa hurried to the Merida's assistance. The Admiral Farragut was somewhat damaged in the collision but was able to return to Philadelphia. She carried one passenger and a crew of 60. The Merida, under the command of Captain Robertson, left Vera Cruz on May 4, and Havana on May 9. The Admiral Farragut, commanded by Captain Mader, left Philadelphia for Port Antonio yesterday morning in ballast. The collision occurred 55 miles east of Cape Charles lightship. The night was dark and it is thought that the accident occurred in a fog.

In 1906 and has a gross tonnage of 6207. The Admiral Farragut, owned by the American Mail S. S. Co., is now running in the service of the United Fruit company between Philadelphia and Port Antonio. She has a tonnage of 1300.

TO GIVE HEARING

On Contagious Hospital Location

The members of the contagious hospital commission held a meeting in the mayor's reception room at city hall yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to order at 5 o'clock. There was considerable talking, but very little business transacted.

After things quieted down and those participating in the hot debate cooled off, Architect Rourke was sent for. The discussion came over the proposed site of the hospital near the Cheimford Street hospital, when two members of the commission exchanged loud remarks. It was finally voted as was suggested at the last meeting of the council, by Councilman Coughlin, to give a hearing to those interested, on the evening of May 23.

It was also voted that Architect Henry L. Rourke be selected to prepare plans for the hospital.

BENNETT-GUNN

Mr. Edwin H. Bennett and Miss Grace A. Gunn, both of North Tisbury, Mass., were united in marriage Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Hilton at 7 o'clock by Rev. H. H. Bishop. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Libby Gunn, and the bridegroom's witness was Mr. Walter Dorr. The bride was handsomely attired in white satin and carried bride roses, while the bride-maid was attired in white messaline and carried pink roses. The ushers were Mr. Wm. H. Bennett and Mr. Barry Putnam. After the ceremony luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett left in a decorated automobile for the station, the bride wearing a blue traveling suit. They will take an extended trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C.

OLD POLICE CHIEF DEAD

EDGARTON, May 12.—James Dexter, well known to thousands of summer visitors during the 36 years that he was chief of police at Oak Bluffs, died at his home in Edgarton today after a lingering illness, aged 75 years. Mr. Dexter had also been high sheriff of Dukes county for more than 25 years. He was a native of Mattapoisett but had spent the greater part of his life on Martha's Vineyard. He is survived by three sons and one daughter.

STATE OF ANARCHY

Caused by the Extreme Violence by the Insurrectos

CHIHUAHUA, May 12.—This city, long in dread of attack, is now in greater fear than ever because of the extreme violence by the Insurrectos in their northward march. The whole district embracing Durango, Torreon and intermediate towns has been in a state approaching anarchy. To conceal their movements the Insurrectos have destroyed all railroad and telegraph lines so that Chihuahua with its 35,000 inhabitants has been isolated for practically two weeks. This dispatch is sent 225 miles overland by auto to El Paso, Texas. The situation in the south is reported here as follows:

Torreon, 26,000 population, including many Americans, is surrounded by Insurrectos estimated at 2000 in number; communication in all directions frequently cut off.

Laredo, three miles from Torreon, in hands of Insurrectos under Pablo Lavin; condition chaos, looting and acts of violence.

Palacio Gomez, near Torreon, invaded by Insurrectos without resistance.

Durango, 32,000 population, capital of state of same name, surrounded by Insurrectos.

Agua Calientes, 55,000 population, capital of state, described as a hotbed of revolutionists who frequently make incursions into the town and receive encouragement from the Insurrectos.

Paral, located on a branch line from Jimenez, just south of here, sent out a distress signal. Fifteen hundred Insurrectos surround the town and already have captured Minahuac, a suburb. As soon as the appeal came from Paral an armored train was sent out from here as relief. The train went as far as Jimenez and was proceeding to Paral when it suddenly stopped and came back. The official report states that Insurrectos were seen ahead in such great numbers that it was deemed unsafe to proceed.

Whether this renewal of efforts on the part of Senors Obregon and Branniff, the voluntary go-between who have endeavored in an official capacity for weeks to bring about a termination of the conflict in their native country, will meet Francisco Madero, Jr., provisional president, at his headquarters in Juarez today. Their talk exchange of impressions between representatives of the federal and Insurrecto governments since the battle of Juarez.

ing of Provisional President Madero's cabinet scheduled to leave the first holding out of the olive branch.

In the opinion of the Insurrectos the peace commission was permanently dissolved last week and it is now at least possible that if another formal endeavor to end the rebellion be made it will be through the provisional minister of foreign relations alone, conducted directly with the representative of the federal government.

In the meantime the victorious rebel leaders are taking measures to guard against possible loss of the advantage they have gained in the capture of Juarez. Last night 250 Insurrectos marched out of camp. Whether they went to intercept General Rabago, reported marching from Chihuahua with a small band to relieve the federal garrison at Juarez or Col. Loque, reported heading this way from Ojinaga was not announced.

THE REBELS

MAY BE IN POSSESSION OF SALINAS CRUZ

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 12.—From reports brought by the American-Hawaiian liner Nebraska, which arrived here yesterday from Salinas Cruz, the western terminal of the Tehuantepec railroad, it is probable that the rebels are in possession of that place. According to Captain Knight of the Nebraska five days ago when the steamer left Salinas not gain of over $21,000 to the defendants. William L. Putnam, who appeared for the defendants, said that the exigencies of the corporation were serious and that prompt action should be taken. Under the statutes a majority of stockholders have an absolute right to reduce and at the same time to increase the capital stock. The evidence of the value of the assets of the company is to be heard and reported on by a master as one of the preliminaries of preparing the case for the full court.

Cruz the rebel forces were at San Geronimo. They had taken possession of the Tehuantepec railroad offices at that point and were preparing for an advance upon Salinas Cruz. The people of the latter city did not plan any resistance and it is believed the place capitulated without loss of life.

SUPREME COURT

May Have to Pass on Whittenton Mfg. Co.'s Troubles

BOSTON, May 12.—Unless the stockholders of the Whittenton Mfg. Co., a cotton manufacturing corporation of Taunton, adjust their differences over the proposed plan to reorganize the company the case will be reported to the full bench of the supreme court on a question of law as to the right of the company to carry out the contemplated plans of readjusting the capital stock. The suggestion of a compromise was made by Col. Benton, counsel for Edward E. Page, former Governor, Draper and minority stockholders when the case came before Judge Norton of the supreme court today.

The plaintiffs are the owners of 3594 shares of common and 240 shares of the preferred stock and Arthur T. Lyman and Arthur Lyman, defendants, a loss of $88,000 to the plaintiffs and a own 4273 shares of common and together with Ronald Lyman own 1070 shares of preferred. Col. Benton in his argument said that he could not understand how at one stroke the capital stock of a company could be reduced and at the same time increased but he had been informed that it was a common practice. The net result of such a scheme would be very injurious to the common stockholders and would materially benefit the holders of preferred stock, he maintained.

Mr. Benton said that he would not charge the defendants with any attempt to defraud the minority shareholders but he thought that it would bring about that result. The result of the whole transaction would be Lyman and Arthur Lyman, defendants, a loss of $88,000 to the plaintiffs and a net gain of over $21,000 to the defendants. William L. Putnam, who appeared for the defendants, said that the exigencies of the corporation were serious and that prompt action should be taken. Under the statutes a majority of stockholders have an absolute right to reduce and at the same time to increase the capital stock. The evidence of the value of the assets of the company is to be heard and reported on by a master as one of the preliminaries of preparing the case for the full court.

LOWELL REALTY CO.

Gets a Big Boom by the Board of Trade

Plan to Build Plants for New Industries in Lowell Starts With Subscription of $10,000 —
"Shoe Night" Proved a Grand Success

The board of trade last evening, in sporting parlance pulled off a "double-header" when at its regular meeting and smoke talk in Lincoln hall, it held an innovation known as "Shoe Night," and incidentally started a most effective boom for the organization of a Lowell Realty company, whose object is to erect buildings suitable for manufacturing purposes in order to induce new industries to come to Lowell. At the opening meeting, $10,000 was subscribed to capitalize the company and Secretary Murphy received the assurances of much more from men of capital who were present.

The money will be raised by a committee of 35 and the nucleus of the committee consists of J. L. Chaffoux, Patrick O'Hara, George E. King, Herford N. Elliott and E. B. Carney. The plans for a structure were offered for examination and the drawings showed a building six stories in height, conspicuous for its windows, 300 feet long and 50 feet wide. It provides elevator, service, sprinklers, wiring for light and power, heating plant complete, fire escapes and dust conveyors. Its cost would be approximately $100,000 above the land.

The reason for connecting "Shoe Night" with the opening gun in the campaign for a Realty company is that the right spirit they could get just what they want.

Other Shoe Speakers

Thomas E. Anderson of Boston, secretary of the New England Shoe and Leather association then spoke briefly after which Carl M. Pini, of the new industries committee of the board of trade, outlined the growth of the shoe industry in Lowell. It was started 24 years ago when the Pillsbury shoe factory was located. Now there are nine shoe factories which will turn out in 1911, 22,700 pairs of shoes, a gain of 3000 per cent. In the 24 years, the value of the Lowell shoe shipments in 1910 was $3,570,000 and the wages paid in 1910 totaled $734,000. He said that the Lowell shoe shops in 1910 stood third in the state in production compared to capacity.

Speaking of Lowell Industries Mr. Pini declared this city to have the greatest diversity of industries, as there are now 153 different industries established here. The establishment of shoe shops means much to the city and the city should encourage them.

Charles F. Brigham, of the Lowell Shoe company, speaking of the reasons why he selected Lowell as a location for a shoe factory said that the elements going to make up the labor situation here are devoid of the disagreeable features that obtain in other cities, that the people are efficient, economical and that labor is abundant.

Sec. Murphy's Remarks

At this point President Greene introduced the subject of the Lowell Realty company and introduced Secretary John H. Murphy who has made a study of the matter.

Mr. Murphy spoke in part as follows: I shall endeavor to give you briefly a summary of my investigations in Lynn and Haverhill.

The Lynn Realty Company was projected in 1901 and the idea originated with Mr. Edward E. Strout, a contractor and builder.

Mr. Strout procured a plan for a factory 200 ft. x 50 ft.—8 stories high—and also secured an option upon a lot, the project involving about $120,000.

Mr. Strout had no means of his own but interested men who were public-spirited, and they formed a Realty Trust, and attempted to sell stock.

With no prospective tenants the matter of raising of stock was no easy task. People did not approve of the idea and the matter of raising sufficient money was accomplished after much diligent work.

However, $70,000 was secured, and a mortgage of $50,000 was obtained from a Cambridge bank at 5 per cent. The building was started and before it was completed was rented.

The results from the first venture were so gratifying that arrangements were made by the issuing of mortgage bonds whereby another factory was erected and from 1901, starting with a factory proposition of 3000 square feet involving $120,000, today the Lynn Realty company is operating about 500,000 square feet, and the money involved represents about a million and a third, and the stock held by about 340 people.

The factories have never been without a tenant. Lynn manufacturers do not hesitate to state that in these modern factories they can produce more shoes and better shoes in less floor space than in old factories because of better light and air.

A rental of 20c a square foot, including heat and power, is charged, and three leases have been renewed. The price at 25c and notice has been served upon the holders of other leases of the intended advance.

With the advance in rent the gross income of the holdings will be increased $25,000 a year, which the trustees intend to set aside as a sinking fund.

The buildings are of brick, modern in every way, and enjoy a low insurance rate.

In Haverhill the proposition is operated as in Lynn, only on a smaller scale.

The Haverhill project was started in 1905 after an investigation of the Lynn company had been made. The declaration of trust is similar to the one in Lynn. The selling of stock at the start was accomplished only by hard work, but today in Haverhill the stock is in great demand.

A building 200 ft. x 50 ft.—8 stories high—was contracted for. $36,000 was raised and $50,000 borrowed at 4 1/2 per cent. When the building was started there were no tenants in view, but before the building was completed all the floor space was rented on 5 year leases.

One year after the first building was completed another was erected and completed before it was finished.

So successful have the ventures proven that outside parties have this year begun the erection of buildings, one to be 200x50—8 stories and the other 320x50—9 stories.

The Haverhill company receives about 12c per foot and does not furnish power, heat or light.

The buildings now in course of construction by outside parties have been rented for 15c per sq. ft., which appreciates rather than depreciates the holdings of the Haverhill Co., because it can secure 15c rather than 12c when the present leases expire.

In Haverhill no new concerns were secured for the new buildings, but local firms increased their business and their old places were filled by overcrowded tenants.

The situation of Lowell today is such as to warrant the formation of a Realty Co. All the available sites suitable for the manufacture of shoes are occupied, and there are many concerns that could be induced to locate in Lowell. There are many concerns located in our city that are cramped shoe factories would make a most desirable acquisition to the industries already established in Lowell, several plants having come to Lowell within recent years.

There were over 100 members in attendance besides local shoe manufacturers and dealers.

Lowell made cigars were passed around, the Social Ten, Buck's Best, Old Hundred and Gorbam being enjoyed.

President Harvey B. Greene called to order and explained the reason for the meeting. Lowell he said hasn't the plants to meet the demands of new industries. He said Lowell was becoming a shoe center and can manufacture shoes that will compare with any other city's production. He said it was a permanent business, as shoes must always be worn.

Alfred W. Donovan

The first speaker was Alfred W. Donovan of Rockland, proprietor of the "Just-Wright" shoe plant and president of the New England Shoe and Leather association and vice-president of the state board of trade. Mr. Donovan spoke extemporaneously and he had never until five or six years ago thought of Lowell as a shoe city but rather as a textile city. Diversification of industries he approved of as an economic benefit to the city and because it was well not to put too deep in any one industry. There was no reason why Lowell should not be a good shoe city.

Mr. Donovan had a strong word to say in approval of Secretary Murphy of the board of trade before taking up the need for a Realty company in Lowell. He said there should be citizens broad enough to look out for the general welfare of the city rather than the four walls within which they conduct their own affairs. Lowell is entering an era, he said, when there will be no excuses to be made, but when co-operation and good feeling will be needed. Lowell is to be a shoe center and with joint effort the citizens could make it a success. Good help is needed, character and capacity among the men, and capital. Of course, the main requisite then is the right sort of a factory establishment.

The age of a single owner or promoter of factory buildings is past, he declared, and collective ownership is the method. He advised the Lowell men to look ahead 10 or 20 years and plan a building to allow for growth. Rightly managed it should be as sound an investment as any stocks or bonds. The opportunity for Lowell is now, he said, and its citizens must co-operate and stay together. He maintained that there is enough money going into the moving picture shows every week to make a good start on a Realty building. If the men should organize with for floor space, and would expand if there were suitable buildings.

I trust this meeting shall resolve itself into the formation of a Realty Co.

George E. King

George E. King outlined the financial aspects of the factory plan. He figured an earning capacity of six per cent with a sinking fund of sufficient amount to wipe out the mortgage in 20 years.

Daniel F. Carroll exhibited the architect's drawings, made by Harry Prescott Graves, and gave some figures as to the cost of maintaining such a building.

The meeting then voted to approve the plan of starting a Realty company and, on motion of J. L. Chaffoux, the president was empowered to name a committee of five which should enlarge itself to 25 to take up the details of starting the company.

tion and hundreds of specimens were sent back to New York.

"Mrs. Beebe was an invaluable assistant to me," the professor said last night. "Without her I could not have accomplished half of what I did. She was especially diplomatic in dealing with the women of the wild tribes we had to encounter. These tribal women exercised great sway over the men, who would refuse to lend us any aid in securing the specimens until won over by the women. A traveler with a faithful wife in a wild country, I am convinced, can get along twice as well as a bachelor."

Good music, No. Billellica, tonight.

AVIATION MEET

TO BE HELD AT ELM RIDGE RACE COURSE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 12.—A three day aviation meet featured by demonstrations of the aeroplane in war is scheduled to begin at the Elm Ridge race course here today. More than a hundred army officers from the school of instruction at Fort Leavenworth are here to witness the exhibitions. Eugene Ely and Charles Willard will fly. They will hurl bombs at imitation forts and battleships in the center of the race course.

PACKERS' DEMURRERS OVERRULED

CHICAGO, May 12.—The demurrers of the Chicago packers in the beef trust case were overruled today by Judge Carpenter in the district court. In his ruling Judge Carpenter declared that the Sherman anti-trust law which had been attacked by the packers is constitutional. He also held that the indictment charging J. Ogden Armour and other packers with violating its provisions is valid.

FAVORS WOMAN SUFFRAGE

LONDON, May 12.—The advocates of woman suffrage gave their cause another boost in the commons today when Lord Mayor John J. Farrell at the head of a deputation from the corporation of Dublin presented at the bar of the house a petition urging the passage of a female suffrage bill at the present session of parliament. The members of the deputation appeared in the full regalia of their offices and the ceremony was attended with picturesque details.

FACTORY BURNED

Fire in Manchester, N.H. Caused $6000 Loss

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 12.—A mattress factory, conducted by Young brothers, Hyman and Joseph, at 15 Prospect street, was destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon and property worth $6000 was destroyed.

The building, a wooden structure, 60 feet deep by 50 feet front, contained besides the mattresses and the material and machinery necessary for their manufacture, a large quantity of automobile supplies of Arthur A. Dumas, owner of the building and who formerly used it as a garage. Mr. Dumas places his loss at $3000 and Young brothers' loss an equal amount.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it was discovered by Cornelius Horan, who was working near and who pulled in an alarm.

There was a high wind blowing at the time and on the arrival of the fire department the flames were running from 25 to 30 feet high and embers and sparks were being driven a long distance. It was in a locality where there were many wooden buildings and Chief Leone detailed the members of two companies on patrol.

Every shingle roof was covered and six fires on different roofs were stopped.

The insurance will cover one-half of the loss.

During the progress of the fire Edward Reagan, aged 15, whose home is at 238 Sagamore street, is alleged to have thrown stones at the firemen. He was arrested and locked up. He refuses to give any explanation of his conduct.

Lowell Team Pounded Friel for 16 Bingles

Three Home Runs Within the Grounds—Jake Bouttes Made Four Hits With a Total of Ten

Haverhill put in its best pitcher, Friel, in the game with Lowell at Spaulding park yesterday, but he did not seem to face the local players in the least, for in the first inning they hammered him for two three-baggers and a two-bagger which netted three runs and in all got 16 with a total of 31.

Tom Fleming who at one time managed a Lowell team officiated as umpire and gave general satisfaction.

The attendance was large and the weather conditions were excellent.

Prior to the game it was announced that Duval had been released to Haverhill.

First Inning

Lowell scored three runs in the first inning while the visitors failed to send a man across the plate. Courtney opened with a line drive to Bouttes and failed to reach first. Aubrey struck out and Barrett flied to Magee.

In the latter half of the inning Moulton sent the ball to deep left field for a three-bagger. Courtney made a good attempt to gather in the ball, but failed to do so. Dugan hit over Hollis' head for a three-bagger scoring Moulton. Courtney flied in Courtney and Dugan scored on the put out. Magee hit to left field for two bases, stole third and scored on O'Donnell's ball. Fluharty hit to Pfeffer and was retired at first. Wright hit to Friel and died at first.

Second Inning

The visitors went out in one, two, three order in this second inning. Hollis went out on strikes, Grubb hit to Moulton and died at first while McGamwell struck out.

Lowell added two more runs in the latter half of the inning. Bouttes, the first man up, hit the ball to the right field fence for three bases and he scored on Moulton's fly to Barrett. Warwick hit to Aubrey and was out at first. Moulton hit to Barrett, who dropped the ball and the former manager to reach second. Dugan sent a fly to McGamwell, who dropped it and the runner was safe at first. Courtney followed with a single to left and Moulton came home. Magee hit to Grubb and was out at first. In this inning Wheeler relieved O'Donnell behind the bat.

Third Inning

In the third inning Pfeffer drew a base on balls and Wheeler went out on a fly to Warwick. Friel hit to Courtney and died at first while Courtney flied to Dugan.

In the latter half of the inning Fluharty hit to Pfeffer and was out at first. Wright following with a strike out. Bouttes hit to Grubb who struck badly to first and the runner was safe and then went to third on the throw, but Huston went out on strikes.

Fourth Inning

In the fourth inning Aubrey flied to Courtney, Barrett hit to Wright and failed to reach first, while Hollis was retired on strikes.

Lowell jumped on Friel with both feet and hands in the latter half of the inning and when the side was retired five runs had been scored. Warwick flied off by striking out and Moulton flied to Courtney, but the latter dropped the ball to the great delight of the crowd and Moulton went to second. Dugan hit to Aubrey and Moulton was caught between the bases, Dugan going to second on the play. Courtney walked to first after being hit by a pitched ball. Magee flied to center field and Courtney scored. Fluharty hit to left field for a single, scoring Magee. Flu then stole second. Wright sent the ball into the left corner of the grounds for a home run, scoring Fluharty and himself. Bouttes hit to center field for two bases but Huston hit to Friel and was out at first.

Fifth Inning

Haverhill broke the ice in the fifth inning and scored three runs. Grubb started off with a base on balls and McGamwell followed with a fly to Courtney. Pfeffer walked to first and O'Donnell made in Haverhill's first hit scoring Grubb. He then stole the latter making a pretty catch. Courtney singled to center field scoring Pfeffer and O'Donnell. Aubrey singled to center but Barrett went out on a foul fly to Huston.

In Lowell's half Warwick flied to Courtney. Moulton flied to Barrett and Dugan hit one to Friel who succeeded in knocking it down and Pfeffer flied to first in time to get the runner.

Sixth Inning

The visitors scored another run in the sixth. Hollis hit over Fluharty's head for a home run inside the grounds. Grubb was retired on a fly to Bouttes and McGamwell followed with a single to left field. Pfeffer hit to Bouttes who threw to Courtney who got McGamwell at second and the ball was sent to first for a double play.

Courtney flied to Courtney. Magee struck out and Fluharty flied to O'Donnell.

Seventh Inning

Wheeler singled and Friel hit to Warwick forcing Wheeler at second. Courtney hit to Moulton forcing Friel at second. Aubrey singled to right field but Barrett was third out on a fly to Huston.

Wright hit to Aubrey and failed to reach first. Bouttes then sent the ball

| NEW YORK, May 12.—Quotations held steady at about the level of yesterday's close when the exchange opened. Business was somewhat more active and a good inquiry for several of the railroad issues gave the market an appearance of strength. Western Maryland advanced a point, Louisville & Nashville 1/2 and Reading 3/4. | | | | |
| Small additions were made to the initial gains, particularly in the eastern stocks, such as New York Central, Erie and Reading. The general movement, however, was of a commonplace character and afforded little opportunity for profitable trading. Reading subsequently reacted a half and other stocks also shaded off. Evansville & Terre Haute and Detroit United Railroads improved 2 points and Wells Fargo 1 1/2. | | | | |
| A steady line developed in the market this morning after a showing of moderate strength in the first hour. A part of the gains made yesterday were cancelled, as were the small advances of today's early trading. | | | | |
| Bear operators did not follow up their forenoon advantage and prices accordingly hardened a fraction. Business was instantly dull. General Electric advanced 1/2 and Int'l Paper pf, 1 1/2. | | | | |
| The stock market was left pretty much to itself in the afternoon and fluctuations were unimportant. Prices averaged a small fraction below yesterday's closing but there were no pronounced symptoms of weakness at any point. | | | | |
| The market closed heavy. Some disappointment was shown over the abandonment of yesterday's pronounced demonstration against the short interests and small amounts of stocks were marketed here and there, driving Reading, U. P. and U. S. Steel back to the low figures of the day. | | | | |

IN POLICE COURT

Man Rudely Deprived of an Ocean Voyage

Alexander McKenzie, an elderly man who goes off on periodical sprees, was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning at the conclusion of the regular session on a complaint charging him with the larceny of $94 from his wife. According to the testimony offered it would appear that some of the local banks are lax in the manner of delivering money to persons.

Mrs. McKenzie is a hard working woman and by depriving herself of little means is able to save some money. During the past few years she managed to accumulate $94, which she placed in one of the local banks.

While she was at work during the early part of the week her husband managed to locate the bank book and yesterday despite the fact that he knew he was violating the law he went to the bank where the money was deposited and drew it out.

After receiving the money he made his way to Boston, where he purchased a ticket for Glasgow, changed the remainder of his money into sovereigns and after sampling some of the Hour distributed by the saloonkeepers in the Hub, boarded a steamer and was making himself comfortable for his voyage, when Patrolman Jeremiah Dooley who had been detailed on the case, tapped him on the shoulder and informed him that he was wanted in Lowell.

Alexander allowed that he would much prefer to take the trip across the water owing to the intense heat in these parts, but seeing that he was wanted in Lowell he would return. He admitted that he had taken the money but said his wife, should be satisfied seeing that he had left her in good health.

Judge Hadley, who knows McKenzie, decided to continue the matter in order that a settlement might be made.

About three years ago McKenzie "borrowed" some money from his wife in a similar way, and made a "trip across," but on that occasion she did not prosecute him.

Thomas Murphy, whose face was badly battered, admitted that he "had been doing a barrel of business" but upon promising to do better in the future was given a suspended sentence of three months.

Frank Charles and Thomas Butler were fined $8 each and one first offender was fined $2.

TOMMY MURPHY

Defeated by "Knockout"

NEW YORK, May 12.—In a lively 10-round bout, "Knockout" Brown of New York outboxed and easily won the popular decision over Tommy Murphy of Brooklyn at the Whiteland A. C. of Brooklyn last night. The tough-headed little Brown was the aggressor from the outset, and while Murphy fought a heady fight, he had not the strength to carry his skill to advantage. One of the biggest crowds which ever attended a fight in Brooklyn saw the bout. The fight by rounds follows:

Round 1—Brown at once became the aggressor and forced Tommy to the ropes with left to the body. Murphy worked to the center and in the clinch upturned with his right to the jaw. Brown continued boring in, taking Tommy's rights and battering away with both hands to the body. Murphy sent in several straight rights to the face, but it was Brown's round.

Round 2—Brown rushed, and Murphy met him with a right to the body. A left swing sent Murphy's nose to bleeding, and the two exchanged swings to the head. Brown rushed again and Murphy upturned his right to the jaw, almost putting Brown through the ropes. Brown was back quickly and was fighting last at the bell. Murphy's round.

Round 3—Brown rushed Tommy to the ropes and landed a left to the body. Murphy retaliated with a nasty right to the face, cutting Brown's mouth, but K. O. whipped in a right to the jaw that sent Murphy to the ropes. Brown was fighting like a wildcat and got in a hard one to the chin at the bell.

Round 4—They met in the ring center and Murphy drove three clean rights to Brown's chin. Brown rushed and landed a left to the body. Murphy rushed Brown through the ropes, but did no damage. The pace seemed to be telling on Murphy.

Round 5—They opened with a clinch, in which Tommy upturned with his right to the face. Brown forced him to the ropes and reached the body with his right. Murphy tried to hold, but Brown was too strong for him. Brown was still doing the forcing and had a shade the better of the round.

Round 6—Brown continued pounding Murphy's body with hard lefts. Murphy used his upturned in clinches, but Brown's swings to the head forced him to break ground. Brown followed fast, taking Murphy's short punches and working away at the body.

SENATE AND HOUSE BLEW OPEN SAFE

Engaged in a Game of Hide and Seek

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The senate and house of representatives to all appearances are engaged in a game of hide and seek. The senate was in session yesterday and the house was not. The senate was in session today and the house was not. Tomorrow neither will be session. The senate will meet again on Monday but the house will not. The house will meet Tuesday but the senate will not.

HOW TO LIVE LONG

Use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed. It builds up the nerve tissue, tones the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood; it brings into play all the vital forces and stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to a healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the system its full proportion of nourishment.

CLOTHING DRAFTED, NOT GRADED

You may wear a "40" coat—but you may be long between the middle of the shoulders and the neck.

Your friend may wear a "40" coat—and be short where you are long.

Merrimack Spring and Summer Suits

Have made these differences in the builds of men a study and have changed the possibility of fitting all builds of men to the certainty of fitting them.

Merrimack Clothing is drafted—every build and every change that may be common or in any way usual, to men of a certain size, has been considered in drafting the patterns for the clothing used by the Merrimack.

So Merrimack Clothing is practically tailored-to-order clothing, ready for service.

How close it comes to this actually, we see by the fewer and fewer alterations we find it necessary to make for our patrons.

Burglars Get Away With Twenty Dollars

RUTLAND, Vt., May 12.—Burglars broke into the Fairhaven grist mill, owned by W. C. Crippen, some time last night, blew open the safe, took about $20 and got away. From the way in which they operated it is supposed that the break was the work of the same gang of yeggmen who visited the C. E. Clark store at Pawlet last Saturday night.

When the mill employees assembled for work this morning they found that the front door had been pried open and the door of the safe in the office had been blown. So well was the work done that people were not awakened in nearby houses and only one of the office windows a few feet away was broken by the jar. The methods of the gang were the same as those in use by the burglars who have rifled a number of Vermont postoffices and stores within the last few years.

A big hammer and some chisels were stolen at the Connor blacksmith shop in Hydeville and with these tools the burglars succeeded in gaining entrance to the mill. They also stole a shotgun belonging to Mr. Connor.

In the safe with the money there were a number of checks and other valuable papers, but these were not taken. A neighbor saw a light in the vicinity of the mill about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, but there are no wheel tracks or other clues to show the direction taken.

NEW PARISHES

Have Been Formed by Archbishop

BOSTON, May 12.—One of the most important shifts of clergymen ever made by Archbishop O'Connell has just been announced. It involves the creation of two new parishes, one at Framingham Center, of which Rev. Fr. Augustine L. Malloy, chaplain of the state prison, will be the head, and the other, to relieve the congestion in St. Francis de Sales' parish, Charlestown, and the parishes of St. Ann and St. Joseph in Somerville, will have at its head Rev. Fr. Garrett J. Barry, for some years past at Foxboro.

Rev. Fr. James A. O'Rourke is transferred from Campello to Foxboro in place of Fr. Barry.

Other changes are Rev. M. J. Scanlan of the cathedral of the Holy Cross, given charge of the diocesan charity office, 49 Tremont street, in place of Rev. Dr. M. J. O'Connor.

Rev. Fr. Joseph P. McGlinchey from St. Paul's church, Cambridge, given charge of office of society for the Propagation of the Faith, 41 Maiden street, with living quarters at the cathedral house.

Rev. Fr. Augustine P. Hickey, from St. Columbkille's parish, Brighton, becomes assistant to Rt. Rev. Mgr. M. J. Splaine, rector of the cathedral, in place of Fr. Scanlan.

Rev. Fr. John H. Powers of St. John's church, Blue Hill avenue, goes to St. Stephen's church, North End.

Rev. Fr. James L. McGuinness of St. Peter's, Lowell, goes to St. Margaret's, Campello.

Rev. Fr. Michael J. Murphy leaves St. James' church, Harrison ave., for St. Mary's, Charlestown.

Rev. Fr. D. J. O'Connor departs from St. Stephen's, North End, and goes to the church of the Most Precious Blood, Hyde Park.

Rev. Fr. Reardon, hitherto of St. Agnes' church, Reading, will go to St. Columbkille's church, Brighton.

Rev. William J. Foley severs his connection with St. Stephen's church, South Framingham, and goes to St. James' church, Salem.

THE HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT

The high school concert will take place tonight in the school hall. The Mandolin club will play selections from "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Madame Sherry," "Girl in the Train," and the beautiful "Barcarolle" from "Tales of Hoffman." The Glee club, under the direction of F. O. Hunt, will sing some lively songs. Miss DeMerritt will give an original reading. Horatius Leggat and Chas. Miller will sing. A Home Formula That Stops Dandruff

Day Run 3 oz.
L'Invent de Camposce 2 oz.
Menthol Crystals 1/2 oz.
These are all staple, standard and inexpensive pharmaceutical products that you can buy from any good drug-gist. You can mix them yourself at home or the druggist will do it for you. Allow to stand one-half hour before using. Apply night and morning, rubbing briskly into the scalp with finger tips or a medium stiff brush. The one 3 oz. bottle should, in most cases, be sufficient to completely clear the head of dandruff and kill the germ, thereby preventing its return. This treatment is also excellent for making the hair grow and to keep the hair from falling out and although not a stain or dye, will restore natural color to gray, streaked or faded hair in from 15 to 30 days simply by its action on the hair roots. Be careful not to apply where hair is not desired. This before publication we presented this prescription to Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., this city, and they state that they have filled it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

From 8 to 8.30 a concert program was given by Gilmore's orchestra after which dancing commenced and continued until 10 o'clock when an intermission was taken and ices served in the lower hall. Dancing was resumed and continued until 12 o'clock. The hall was tastefully decorated with blue and white, and the stage was banked with flowers and a lattice work of red, white and blue. After the party a late car returned to Lowell with a merry throng who were present from the city. The committee to which much credit is due, was General Manager Mary Valentine, Assistant Manager Lillian Welch, Floor Director Nellie Ward, Assistant Belle Valentine, Chief Aid Jennie Lavelle, and chairman of reception committee, Mrs. Fred Gaudette.

COURT CAMPEAU

Arranged for Its Annual Party

Campeau court, C. O. F. held an important meeting Wednesday night, and initiated three new members, namely: Clair Yelllette, M. Frechette and C. Cyr. President Frank Ricard occupied the chair and a grist of business was transacted. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the second annual sugar party, to be held Sunday, May 21. Last year this party was held at L. J. Connell's camp in Boulevard avenue, but the latter was burned to the ground a short time ago, and therefore, another camp will have to be sought for, and this will be practically the work of the committee.

Last night the members of the council met at the home of one of their brethren, Mr. J. H. Gregoire, 135 Ford street, and surprised Mrs. Gregoire's mother, Mrs. Joseph Gregoire of Wotton, Que., who is visiting her children in this city. They presented her with a rich silver chest, the address being delivered by Mr. Frank Ricard, while the presentation was made by Mrs. Alex Morin.

As is the custom with Campeau council, Mrs. J. H. Gregoire in appreciation of her trouble, was presented with a dainty ice cream set, the speech being delivered by Mrs. Michel Burt, the presentation being made by Mr. Edouard Gregoire. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent.

Mrs. Joseph Gregoire while in this city is the guest of Messrs. J. H. Gregoire, Edouard Gregoire and Mrs. Hornisdas Pratte.

Continued

A telephone alarm was sent to the central fire station at 7:35 o'clock and in a short time there was a sufficient number of fire wagons on the scene to handle the fire effectively. The whole dump was soaked with water, but it took an hour to quench the flames so that Chief Hosmer could feel that they would not start up again. As it was the department to the dump on the High street extension, the blaze which started last night having broken out again.

On Gorham Street

A few minutes after 11 o'clock this morning word was telephoned to the central fire station that there was a lively blaze in a building just beyond the Edison cemetery. Several pieces of apparatus were sent to the scene, but the firemen upon reaching the city line found that the fire was in a shanty in East Chelmsford.

the dump was still smoking this morning in spite of the drenching.

The house next to the dump was a little scorched but suffered no other damage. It is quite likely that the park department will find some other place to dump its brush and rubbish. The houses in that vicinity have been in danger for some time on account of the large quantities of rakes and brush dumped there and ready to be set ablaze by the boys at any moment.

In Prescott street at about 12:30 this afternoon and a little smoke and the big fire automobile attracted considerable attention, but there was nothing for the firemen to do. The smoke responsible for the commotion came from a refractory fire in the kitchen range at the Belvidere hotel. A big wood fire was built and was smothered over with coal. The combination produced more smoke than the chimney could take care of and just for that some of the smoke showed up in the street. No casualties.

HAS APPENDICITIS

LONDON, May 12.—Lady Deedes, who before her marriage to Lord Deedes was Miss Helen Vivien Gould, underwent an operation for appendicitis this morning. The surgery was done at the residence of her mother-in-law, Dowager Lady Deedes, and according to subsequent announcement the result was most satisfactory.

DEATHS

CONNOLLY—Joseph Connolly, aged 64 years, died last night at the Chelmsford Street hospital, after a brief illness. Mr. Connolly was a devout member of St. Michael's church, and is survived by one sister, Miss Della Connolly. His remains were removed to the undertaking rooms of Jas. W. McKenna, 419 Bridge street.

BARRETT—One of the oldest residents of St. Patrick's parish, Mrs. Nancy Barrett, died last night at her home in Salem street, aged 76 years. She is survived by three sons, Edward J., Adelman Andrew E., and William M.; also one daughter, Miss Catherine Barrett, and 13 grandchildren. She was a native of Ireland and resided in this city for 70 years. She resided on Salem street for 50 years. Mrs. Barrett was a kind and motherly woman, and possessed of a true Christian spirit. She was beloved by all who knew her and in her death the family has lost the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

CONDON—Mrs. Mary Mahoney Condon, aged 28 years, died this morning at her late home, 12 Rogers street. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, Daniel Condon, two children, Jeremiah P. and Mary N., also her father, Daniel Mahoney in Ireland.

CROSBY—Died today in this city, Charles T. Crosby, aged 69 years, 7 months and 25 days, at his home, 77 Marlborough street. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ada Frances Crosby and one daughter, Mrs. George A. Wilson.

WILSON—Justus B. Wilson, aged 68 years and three months, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Percy J. Wilson, 32 Hanks street. Mr. Wilson was born in Ebboden, Maine, and came to Lowell when a young man. At the opening of the Civil war he enlisted in the 28th Mass. regiment and served until the close of the war. He was a prominent member of the Worthen street Methodist church, was a past commander of Post 135, G. A. R., and was also a member of Pentucket lodge of Masons.

He is survived by a son, Alfred E. Wilson of Flushing, N. Y.; two daughters, Mrs. J. Harry Hammond of Colebrook, N. H., and Mrs. Percy J. Wilson of Lowell, well known in musical circles; two brothers, Augustus H. Wilson of Randolph, Maine, and John L. Wilson of Solon, Maine; and a sister, Mrs. Flavella Beals of Lowell; also three grandchildren in Flushing, N. Y.

BARROW—Mrs. Rhoda Barrow, the beloved wife of Thomas H. Barrow, died at her home, 69 Sutherland street, Thursday morning, aged 54 years, one month. She is survived by her husband, one son, Harry Barrow, and three brothers, John M. Dean of Putnam, Connecticut, James E. Dean of Roxbury, Mass., and Joseph Dean of this city.

DRENDEL—Charles R. Drendel, a well known resident of Dracut, died yesterday at his home, 21 Swain street, aged 66 years. He leaves a wife, one son, Paul R., and a daughter, Mrs. Emma F. Merrill.

SMITH—William A. Smith, aged 48 years, 10 months, 26 days, died at his home, 167 Stevens street, yesterday. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elta M. Smith.

REED—Mrs. Melissa J. Reed died yesterday at her home, 72 First street. Her age was 55 years, 3 months and 21 days. Beside one son Bird C., she is survived by five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

HALLETT—The death of Mrs. Sarah Parkhurst Hallett occurred last evening at the home of C. George Armstrong in Billerica street, Chelmsford. She was in her 57th year. She was a daughter of the Rev. John Parkhurst, first pastor of the Baptist society in Chelmsford and was born in 1859 at the old Parkhurst homestead in South Chelmsford. After her marriage to John Allen Hallett they made their home in Chelmsford until 1874, when they removed to Sussex, N. H. The death of her husband occurred there in 1894, and in 1901 she returned to Chelmsford, where she has since made her home with her daughter, Mrs. C. George Armstrong. She is survived by a son, Edgar H. Hallett of Boston, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Waldo Perham and Mrs. C. George Armstrong of Chelmsford; also three sisters, Mrs. E. A. Flske of Chelmsford; Mrs. Dexter Battles of South Chelmsford; Mrs. Susan Bucknam of Greenwood; and two brothers, John Parkhurst of Boston and Charles W. Parkhurst of Melrose.

FUNERALS

CONRON—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Conron took place yesterday morning from her home in Taunton, and at 9:30 o'clock a mass of requiem was sung at the Sacred Heart church, Taunton, by Rev. Fr. Trainor. The bearers were: Howard and Daniel McDonald, Michael Tighe and Jeremiah Coughlin. At the conclusion of services the body was brought to this city and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

FARROW—The funeral of George M. Farrow took place Thursday at 3 o'clock from his home in Tyngsboro, the Rev. George E. Brown officiating. A quartet composed of Misses Clara Little and Helen Browne, Mrs. Fannie Little and Mrs. Cora Kable sang appropriate selections. The services were largely attended by the townspeople. The body will be taken to Greenland, N. H., today for burial. C. M. Young in charge of the funeral arrangements.

SULLIVAN—The funeral of Dennis

Sullivan took place this morning from the Middlesex street station on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from Boston, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Large wreath, from son of deceased; wreath of roses inscribed "Rest," Yacubian brothers; spray of roses and pinks, from John Walker, George Oettinger and Frederick King. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Rev. Joseph Curtin of St. Patrick's church, reading the committal prayer. Undertaker Peter H. Savage was in charge.

QUIET IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, May 12.—Despite the rumors of a student uprising and a possible attack on the city by the rebels which gave the more timid residents some uneasiness last night, nothing out of the ordinary has occurred at the capital this morning.

BURGLARS BUSY

BROKE INTO HUNTING LODGE OF JOHN PURROY MITCHELL

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 12.—Sheriff Scherp of Westchester county was asked yesterday to look for burglars who broke into the hunting lodge of John Purroy Mitchell, president of the New York board of aldermen, at Somers, in the northern part of the county, yesterday and carried away practically everything that was movable. Fresh wagon tracks were found leading to the house.

Several weeks ago the caretaker, Richard G. Davenport, was arrested for killing Thomas Heffernan, a laborer who applied for work and shot at Davenport, so the prisoner alleges. Since then the house has been without a caretaker.

MINE FIRE EXTINGUISHED

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 12.—The fire in the Boston mine of the Delaware & Hudson Co. at Larksville, where five men were suffocated by smoke, was extinguished today. The company officials say the damage to the workings will be comparatively slight. The mine is expected to resume operations on Monday.

Plain Cookies

These are "the cookies that mother used to make," but she never made them with skimmed milk; she used rich cream. You can get the same result if you use Borden's Evaporated Milk—adds richness and fine flavor.

RECIPE

Best two heaping tablespoonfuls butter to a cream; add gradually one cup sugar, and beat again. Then add two well beaten eggs, four tablespoonfuls Borden's Evaporated Milk diluted with three-fourths cup water, one teaspoonful baking powder, one half teaspoonful grated nutmeg and flour enough to make a moderately soft dough. Mix thoroughly, roll, cut with a round cutter and bake a light brown in a moderate oven.

The so-called county rings of Middlesex and Essex counties are defeated in their efforts to have the legislature legalize expenditures unauthorized by law. The treasurers we presume are under bonds and should be held responsible for the proper disposal of the funds placed in their charge.

POLICING THE COMMON

Supt. Welch says that police officers are so continuously around or in the vicinity of the South common that it is as well policed as any other part of the city. That statement differs very materially from the charges made in Mr. Corbett's letter; but while several police beats end at the common, none of them leads through it. Why not have an officer assigned there day and evening and held responsible for the preservation of order and decorum in every part of the common?

THE CITY CHARTER

The city charter bill for Cambridge has been favorably reported by the senate, and its passage is thereby assured. We cannot see why Cambridge, Haverhill, Lynn, Chelsea and other cities can have new charters enacted by the legislature, while Lowell is refused. It is now stated that the legislative committee in charge of the Lowell measure is likely to report unfavorably at the last moment. That would be a gross injustice to our city and it would be a denial of the right of home rule which has been freely granted to other cities. The people of Lowell want a chance to vote upon the new charter, and the legislative committee in charge of the measure will be open to grave criticism if it does not report favorably on the bill.

THE ANNEXATION BUGABOO

One George S. Ladd, who is prominent in the Massachusetts state grange, was in Washington the other day and told the senate committee on finance that reciprocity with Canada is not possible except by absolute commercial union which would mean the first step to annexation. Mr. Ladd is one of the men who are cunningly using the annexation bugaboo instead of argument. He knows very well that if England can be impressed with the idea that the commercial union under reciprocity might bring about a feeling in favor of annexation, then the British government will strongly oppose it. The Canadians, we believe, as well as most of the British will be able to see through this deceitful plan, and will discount it when the proper time comes.

The Gloucester fishermen backed up Mr. Ladd with protests against reciprocity on the ground that it would injure the fish industry. There is no reason why the fish trust should be protected against a little competition because that agency has kept up the price of fish, and has made it very difficult to get fresh fish at any price. The Gloucester fishermen should have no consideration in this fight for reciprocity.

"MOTHER'S DAY" AND "FATHER'S DAY"

Somebody has instituted next Sunday as mother's day, and appeals to the public generally to observe the day as such. We do not know of anything the mothers need more than a day's rest, so that if Sunday be observed as mother's day, it is to be hoped that the mothers will be allowed to rest during the entire day, leaving others to do their work so far as that is possible.

When a fad of this kind is put out, of course, it suggests something else of a similar kind, and there is always somebody to come forward with another proposition, and as a result Mrs. John B. Dodd, of Spokane, Washington, has taken up the cause of the neglected "old man," and has fixed upon June 16th as the date of the observance of "Father's day," and part of the observance is to consist in wearing a colored flower in honor of father if he be living, and a white flower if dead. It will be a great opportunity for sermons and editorials upon the commandment "Honor thy father and thy mother."

If the observance in either case will make the lot of the average father and mother any happier, it is to be highly commended, or if on the other hand it will instill into the minds of the young a proper respect and reverence for their parents then it is to be commended. We don't imagine that the observance will make much of an impression in these parts.

WANTED—A NATIONAL ANTHEM

We are sadly at a loss for a national anthem that will be stirring in its patriotism and sublime in its poetical inspiration and conception. The hymn "America," by Dr. Smith, does not fully answer the purpose, while "The Star Spangled Banner" is good enough in its way, but it refers to a special incident in our history and is decidedly the nearest approach of all our songs to what a national anthem should be. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Julia Ward Howe, has the same objection, although a bit more stately than Mr. Keys' effort. None of these answers the purpose of a national anthem suitable to a country at peace with the world, an asylum for the oppressed of all lands and a beacon light of freedom to all the world. Dr. McFatrik, chairman of the Chicago board of education, would have a prize of $500,000 raised to be offered for the poem most suitable as a national anthem. It may be said that money has rarely ever inspired any great poem, yet it is barely possible that the desire for money may set the Muses to work in a manner that will bring out something superior to anything we have at present. The real national anthem must be an inspiration, not only from the patriotic, but the poetical and musical standpoints. Although we are a peace loving nation, no anthem worthy of the name can exist in any but a martial strain. Some, of course are stinging as a funeral dirge, but that is not the proper spirit for the anthem that will swell the heart of young America. We do not imagine that the prize idea emanating from Chicago will accomplish much for the reason that every poet in the land, and we have a few, knows that a fortune awaits the man or woman who supplies this great national demand for an anthem worthy the greatness, the spirit and the patriotism of our republic.

SEEN AND HEARD

It is amazing to what an extent the industry of sharpening safety razor blades has grown. A few days ago I met Henry F. Carr, the Gorham street business man coming out of the post office with a bundle of small packages under his arm. I learned that each package contained at least twelve blades which were sent to him to be sharpened. These packages came from all parts of the United States and Canada, and three of them were from Porto Rico. On invitation of Mr. Carr, I visited his place of business which is located at 12 Bleachery street and here I found four young women busily engaged making the dull razors as sharp edged as the day they were first used. Hundreds of orders were waiting to be filled and Mr. Carr remarked that this was the usual busy daily scene at the workshop. "You may wonder," said Mr. Carr, "how it is that we receive hundreds of packages of razor blades each week from all parts of the country, but it is because I advertise extensively and am getting great results. My ad in The Sun has resulted in a great increase in my local business and therefore I am satisfied to spend money when the results are coming my way." Mr. Carr has built up an immense business in a short time, and a visit to his shop will repay one interested in seeing the work done and the number of blades turned out daily.

A number of answers given by applicants for the position of public school teachers in Vermont reveal some strange notions of commonplace subjects. Of course these papers represent only the rare instances and are not characteristic of the average examination in Vermont or any other state. The following are the remarkable answers that caused so much mirth among those whose duty it was to pass on them.

Preparations for the Judson centennial celebration in 1913-14 have already begun. On March 16 at Rochester, President A. H. Strong was elected chairman of a special commission. The object of this celebration is to show to every Baptist church in America the history, the results and the needs of mission work in foreign fields. Special emphasis will be put at all times on Burma, the centre of Baptist foreign mission work. A deputation will be sent to Burma. All Baptist churches will observe a special Judson day and a Judson centennial volume will be published during the winter of 1913-14.

PASTOR'S WIFE

Was Killed in an Auto Accident

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mrs. Daniel H. Overton, wife of the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Islip, Long Island, who was pastor of the Greene Avenue church in Brooklyn for many years, was killed yesterday afternoon when an automobile in which she was riding was upset between Islip and King's Park.

Mrs. Overton was caught underneath the machine. Three others were slightly hurt. A baby was thrown 200 feet and escaped without a scratch.

The machine was owned by John E. King, manager of the Bailey Lumber company's yards at Islip. He got the machine, a five passenger car, two weeks ago, and yesterday afternoon invited Mrs. Overton to go for a ride to Central Islip and King's Park. In the party were Mrs. King, her 2-year-old daughter, and Mrs. John C. Doocey. Mr. King was at the wheel.

The party drove to Central Islip and had luncheon and then started home by way of King's Park. When they were about a mile and a half from the latter village the automobile struck a stretch of soft sand, skidded and turned over. Mr. King was thrown to the side of the road and bruised. Mrs. King's foot was caught underneath the machine and badly wrenched. The little girl landed in the brush. Mrs. Doocey was shaken up.

Mrs. Doocey walked about a mile to the nearest farmhouse and got help. When the machine was lifted from Mrs. Overton she was dead. Word was then sent to the State Hospital for the insane at King's Park, and the injured and the body of Mrs. Overton were

"The House of My Friends."

The Rev. Mr. Overton was attending a Sunday school convention at Southampton yesterday and reached home at 5:24 o'clock, about twenty minutes before his wife was killed. He found a note from her stating that she had gone auto riding with friends and would return at about 8 o'clock. At that hour he was notified that she had been killed.

Mrs. Overton was about 45 years old. Her husband went to Islip about two years ago. They have two sons in school.

GREAT SUCCESS

IS BAZAAR IN AID OF ST. MARGARET'S PARISH

The bazaar in aid of St. Margaret's church held in Highland club hall is nearing an end, for there are only two more nights left of it, tonight and tomorrow night. The general committee and the aids feel proud of the results obtained so far, and there is a reason too, for a substantial sum has been realized so far.

A very large crowd attended the affair last night and it is reported that business was bustling. There were people from Boston, Lawrence and Haverhill, and a large sum of money was spent about the different tables.

The entertainment program which was all was presented under the auspices of the May table, Mrs. T. Honnessy, matron. The program was rendered by talented people, and there is no use of going into details, for every one is favorably known by the local amateurs of music and literature. The program was as follows:

Piano selection, Miss Veronica Rediker; Spanish dance, Miss Anna McCashin; solo, selected, C. Eugene McCarthy; reading, Miss Mary Conway; solo, Miss Margaret O'Donoghue; skirt dance, Miss Helen Makin; song, James E. Donnelly; song and dance, Miss Muriel Crompton; solo, Miss Margaret Cawley; solo, Andrew McCarthy.

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS MEET
LONSDALE, R. I., May 12.—Resolutions urging a closer relationship between the Primitive Methodist church and the Presbyterian church were adopted at today's session of the eastern conference of the Primitive Methodists today. The resolutions recommended the occasional interchange of pulpits and that an agreement be made which would avoid the overlapping of the churches in new communities. Similar resolutions were recently adopted by the Boston presbytery and they will be referred to the general conferences and presbyteries of both churches in order that the desired affiliations might be obtained throughout the country.

Joseph Gordon of Fall River was admitted as a minister on probation.

A NERVOUS WRECK

Had no Appetite and Was Greatly Reduced in Weight.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored This Ohio Woman's Health. She Gained in Weight and Eats Heartily Again.

When the nervous system is at fault, we may expect symptoms of the disorder to show in almost every organ of the body for all of these organs are controlled in their activities by the nerves.

"I was all run down in every way," says Mrs. J. M. Barclay, of No. 876 Curtis Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, "and was a nervous wreck. I was not content to be bedridden for a day or so at a time, but I had no appetite and was greatly reduced in weight. I was irritable and melancholy all of the time, could not get any rest and my nerves were in such a state that I would have to get up in the night and walk the floor. I suffered in this way for four years and although I had two doctors attend me, neither helped me. Thinking that a change of climate might benefit me I went to visit relatives of my husband in Nova Scotia and they strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I never had much faith in advertised medicines but I got a box of the pills and they commenced to help me at once. I had not taken them a week before I was able to get a good night's rest. I kept on taking them and gained in flesh and could eat a hearty meal. I always speak highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I know they are good for nervous disorders."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most direct cure for nervous troubles because they remove the cause of these diseases by building up and purifying the blood. The pure blood which they make furnishes the nerves with needed elements until they are restored to their normal strength. The pills have made so many remarkable cures in nervous disorders that no sufferer can afford to neglect giving them a trial.

They can be obtained at any drug store or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50. While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. They are perfectly safe and create no drug habit. Write for a free copy of our new booklet, "Diseases of the Nervous System." The booklet describes symptoms and gives much useful information.

COL. HIGGINSON BURIED

CAMBRIDGE, May 12.—Six negro soldiers of the Sixth regiment, M. V. M., bore into the ancient First parish church (Unitarian) of Cambridge this afternoon the body of Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, the soldier, reformer and author, whose funeral was attended by a great throng representative of the military, civic and literary life of Cambridge and Boston. During the Civil war Col. Higginson commanded a regiment of negro soldiers, and it was thought fitting that the soldiers of the race he had aided to freedom by his pen and sword should be given an opportunity to perform the final service of respect and appreciation they felt for him. The services at the church were in charge of the Loyal Legion and were of a simple character, there being no eulogy. The order of service consisted of an organ selection, reading from the psalms, hymns by a quartet, prayer, benediction, the sounding of "taps" on the bugle and an organ rendition of Handel's "Largo." The body was escorted from Col. Higginson's home to the church by Col. T. W. Higginson camp, Sons of Veterans, and by the Loyal Legion. The honorary pallbearers were:

President emeritus Eliot and President Lowell of Harvard; former Secretary of the Navy Long, Col. N. P. Halliwell, Rev. Edward Cummings, pastor of the South Congregational (Unitarian) church, Boston; G. H. Mifflin, a well known publisher; Charles Francis Adams and Dr. Edward Waldo Emerson, son of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The interment service was private. The ashes were buried in Mount Auburn cemetery after the body had been cremated.

As a mark of the respect in which Col. Higginson was held in this city a delegation of the Cambridge city government, headed by Mayor Barry, attended the church services in a body.

HELD IN $30,000

Prisoners Rearrested on Bench Warrants

NEW YORK, May 12.—Charles W. Caccia and Stanley Glantz, cashier and assistant cashier respectively of the American Steel Barrel company and the Ironsides Manufacturing company, the two corporations in which Mrs. Elizabeth Sealman, better known as Nellie Bly, is interested as president and treasurer, were arraigned yesterday before Judge Fawcett in the county court in Brooklyn on six indictments charging them with forgery in the second degree and grand larceny. They pleaded not guilty and were held in ball of $5000 each on each indictment, making an aggregate bail of $30,000 for each man.

The men were arrested several months ago on a warrant charging them with securing $10 by means of forged checks. On this charge they were before Chief Magistrate Kemper in the Adams street court when Assistant District Attorney Ross requested that the proceedings be dismissed. Immediately thereafter they were rearrested on bench warrants and taken to the county court.

HA-HA BY THE MERRY WAG BUNCH

AN "EXTRY" IN BABYLON.

"Husband, husband, what do you mean? You've hit mamma with the morning paper!"
"It's all right, dear. I'm merely breaking the news to mother."

HOW IT STARTED.

David: "Sorry, Goliath, but I had to have my little fling."

CUPID'S DECOY IN DARKTOWN.

"Whad's dat gal wearin' a chicken on her hald fo'?"
"Why, dat's do stuff, niggah. Hit's a catch bonnet."

HOSPITALITY UNEXCELLED.

Moldy Miffins: "Well, this is the most hospitable town I've ever struck. Food and drink set right out at the door."

NOT DECOROUS EITHER.

The wife of a clergyman warned him as he went off to officiate at a funeral one rainy day. "Now, John, don't stand with your bare head on the damp ground; you'll catch cold."

HERE'S TO 'EM.

Here's to the women of the stage. One day unknown, the next the rage! Had they no charms for me and you? What would the poor old florist do?

NO CHANGE.

She (concerned about her mother's health)—Don't you think mother should have a change? I don't like her looks at present.
The Brute (heartily)—I never did.

TO REFORM IT.

Does the world seem cold to you? Your own heart fires may warm it. Take another point of view—Instantly you reform it!

IMMEDIATELY.

Her: "I am going to kiss you when I go."
Gher: "Leave the house at once."

BUILDING A CYCLOPEDIA.
"What became of Hamlet McDuffy, the gallery gods' favorite?"
"Writing a book on 'Wives I've Had.' He's got as far as the 5th volume."

COULDN'T BELIEVE IT.
Mrs. Penhecker—I'd like to see the man I was afraid of!
Mr. Penhecker—So, would I—in fact, I'd even like to shake his hand.

OUT OF STYLE.
"What a rut that Miss Backly lived in!"
"So?"
"Yes. Think of her eloping with a coachman in this age of chauffeurs!"

THE USUAL ULTIMATUM.

Policeman (to would be suicide in water): "Git out o' here or I'll shoot!"

HAD READ ABOUT IT.

"Mamma, is that his harem skirt?"

COMMENCEMENT.

THE MAKER OF THE MATCH.
"Here's to the bride."

PARTICULAR.

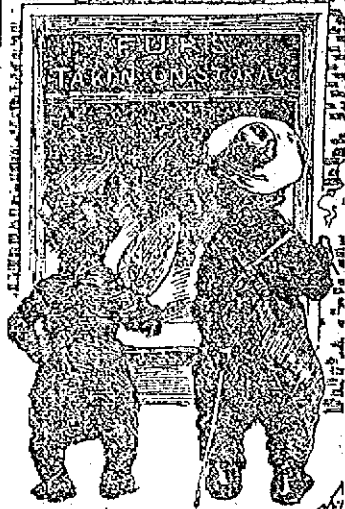

"I would like some powder, please."
"Face, gun or bug?"

WHY HE WAS THERE.

"What brought you here?" asked the prison chaplain.
"Youth," said the convict sadly.
"Youth? Why, you look quite fifty!"
"Not my youth, sir, my lawyer's."

FURRIER.

A BEAR MOVEMENT.
Mrs. Growler—I think we'd better move on if we don't want our furs taken on storage.

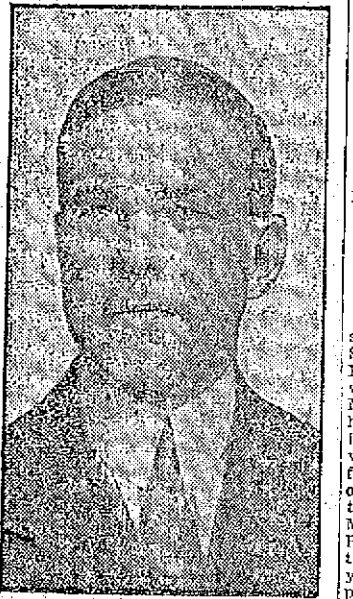

DR. LABON A SUICIDE

NEW YORK, May 2.—The mystery surrounding the death of Dr. W. R. C. Labon in his Riverside Drive apartment last night was explained today by Miss Alva Marhelka, a student of mystic psychology, who had been the pupil and private secretary of Dr. Labon. The young woman told the coroner that when she called at Dr. Labon's apartment last night she found him dead, kneeling at a sofa and with a note beside him reading: "Mother, I've done my best." The note was signed "Death." Besides taking poison Dr. Labon had shot himself. After remaining several hours with the body of her friend, Miss Marhelka said she went home without notifying the police. Dr. Labon had had family troubles.

ANNUAL DANCE

Of the Pollard Co.'s Employees

The sixth annual dancing party of the A. G. Pollard Company Employees Mutual Benefit Association was held last night in Associate hall which had been handsomely decorated for the occasion with the national colors in the background, the harmonized colors, orange and red framing the stage. The orchestra was hidden from view by a pretty row of palms. The attendance was very large and a general good time was enjoyed till a late hour, when every one bade each other adieu, hoping to meet again at the next annual affair.

JAMES BURNS.

The musical for the next little dance order of twenty numbers was furnished by Kittredge's orchestra, and during intermission refreshments were served.

The officers of the dance were as follows: General manager, James A. Burns; assistants, Regina Rousset and Alfred Ducharme; floor director, Arthur Leaver; assistant floor director, Louise Gervais; chief aid, Edward Landry; assistant chief aid, Paul Doherty.

THE OPERA HOUSE

A large audience saw Georgie Oip see a decided hit at the Opera House last night when she appeared in the leading role in Miss Margaret May's play in four acts, "Folly of the Circus." The play has been seen here before and the presenting company last night was decidedly clever and suffered none in comparison with the company that was seen here before in the same piece. Miss Oip is a very versatile young woman and her work from the rise of the curtain won her favor with the audience.

The story of the play is familiar to local theatre-goers and always appeals to the audience. There are some lively scenes in which figure acrobats, jugglers, clowns, and a baby elephant that causes great amusement.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

This is your last chance to see the popular Donald Meek stock company in this city for the company ends its engagement for the season with tomorrow night's performance of "The Bachelor's Honeymoon." The play is a laugh-provoker and the company is bringing out most successfully all the laughs that are in it. Even Governor Deane, usually the romantic lover full of sentiment and heroism and without comedy, is a most jolly comedian in "The Bachelor's Honeymoon," being the cause of all the trouble himself. Mr. Deane is a funny fellow with Mr. Meek can do in a funny part. There are a few good seats left for the concluding performance.

ances and they may be ordered in advance by telephone. Mr. DeDeyn will leave on Monday for New York and then he goes to Scranton, Pa., where he is to open a summer stock company. Mr. Meek will remain in town a few days next week and then go to Boston, where he will open a summer stock company at the Castle Square theatre, playing the part of "Bob Acres" in a grand revival of Joseph Jefferson's great success, "The Rivals." Miss Nellie Nelder, whose home is in Dorchester, will return to the Hub and renew old acquaintances. Miss Nelder has been playing in the west continuously for the past five years, where she scored a great triumph and where her services were in great demand among the western stock companies. This is her first time in the east in that time and hence she looks forward to a pleasant vacation.

Genial "Bill" Wolfe, business manager of the theatre, the man in front, is daily watching the Nantasket timetables for the boats to start running and away goes "Bill" to Paragon park, where his name is a household word. Mr. Wolfe conducts the scenic temple, Nina Searies' musical comedy company, "Minerva, the Divine Venus," and several minor attractions at Paragon. Adv.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

One of the real musical treats of the season will be given at the Merrimack Square theatre tonight when J. Edward Pierce and Miss Marie Roslyn will give what is programmed as an "Operatic Musical." This pair has made a big hit during the early part of the week in their songs and promise to meet with favorable recognition in their performance tonight. Their program will be one that will give them rare opportunity to display their unusual talent. Mr. Pierce is a baritone, and Miss Roslyn a soprano of considerable ability, as well as a pianist. Come early if you wish a good seat for tonight's performance.

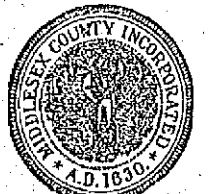

Marlow and Plunkett, are comedians of the first class. Their sketch "The Deaf Student" is one of the most laughable offerings seen at this theatre in some time. Plunkett, as a gentleman of the colored class is certainly amusing. Harcourt and Wheeler, comedians, give an act that is rich in fun and merriment while Yeager and Knap are acrobatic performers of high standard. The motion pictures are new and novel. Next week Rose Plunkett, the wonderful girl swimmer, will provide the feature act.—Adv.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE

BIG CORPORATIONS

May be Forced to Pay Penalties Amounting to $30,000,000

CHICAGO, May 12.—Three thousand corporations in the Chicago district which have failed to file schedules with Internal Revenue Collector Fitch may be forced to pay approximately $30,000,000 in penalties to the government. On June 1 Mr. Fitch will ask United States District Attorney Sims to institute suits against all the corporations delinquent on that date. Final notices have been sent to all. The penalty for failure to respond is a fine of from $1000 to $10,000. On the other hand approximately 12,000 corporations in this district have filed schedules and it is believed thousands of dollars more in taxes will be collected this year than last when the law first became applicable.

THE GRAND JURY

Wants to Hear From Lawrence Men

LAWRENCE, May 11.—As a result of the Essex county grand jury probe into local municipal affairs subpoenas were placed in the hands of the local police last night summoning eight well known men to appear in superior court at Newburyport today in "John Doe" proceedings.

State Police Officer Fred P. Mynn, who has been conducting the investigation, assisted by State Officer Barrett, brought the papers here and they were turned over to an inspector for service.

Those upon whom summonses were served were: Alderman James R. Walker, Ezra P. Mahoney, Jr., secretary to the mayor; Ex-Alderman John Tobin, Henry H. Gifford and Maurice J. Mahoney, Jr., automobile agents; Wallace A. Nickerson, a reserve policeman; Jacob Wagenbach, a contractor; and John J. Evans, a business man, whom Mayor Cahill has appointed assistant fire engineer several times, but the aldermen have refused confirmation.

FOUR INJURED

IN A COLLISION OF AUTOS AT FALL RIVER

FALL RIVER, May 12.—Four persons were injured when two automobiles came into collision head on at Deaky's turn on the Providence road in South Somerset yesterday. Dr. D. R. Ryder of 204 Rock street and his mother occupied one car. Mrs. Ryder was thrown onto the forward part of the car and apparently severely injured. Dr. Ryder escaped with a few bruises.

The other car was occupied by William Brightman of 83 Avon street, Providence, and a young woman companion. Both were thrown out. The woman is in a serious condition from bruises and nervous shock and her left ankle was injured. Brightman's front teeth were knocked out and his face was bruised.

Other automobilists went to their assistance and the injured people were taken into the home of William Pritchard. Dr. William P. Pritchard of Fall River was summoned. Mrs. Ryder was taken to Truesdale hospital in this city. Brightman and his companion were taken to Providence. The accident occurred on a sharp turn in the road. Brightman was coming toward Fall River and Dr. Ryder toward Providence. Brightman bore hard over to his right until within two feet of a stone wall and brought his car to a sudden stop, but the other car bore down directly upon him, it is said. Both were going at a fair rate of speed.

WOULD LIE AWAKE ALL NIGHT WITH ITCHING ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferer Ever Since He Can Remember; Utterly Intolerable. Seemed Beyond Medical Power to Cure. "My Disease Was Routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment."

"I take great pleasure in praising the wonderful Cuticura Cures. Ever since I can remember I was a terrible sufferer of eczema, and other irritating skin diseases. I would lie awake all night, and my suffering was intolerable. A scaly humor settled on my back, and being but a child, I naturally scratched it. It was a burning itching sensation, and utterly intolerable. In fact, it was so that I could not possibly forget about it. It did not take long before it spread to my shoulders and arms, and I was almost covered with a mass of raw flesh on account of my scratching it. I was in such a condition that my hands were tied."

"A number of physicians were called, but it seemed beyond their medical power and knowledge to cure me. Having tried numerous treatments without deriving any benefit from them, I had given myself up to the mercy of my dreadful malady, but I thought I would take the Cuticura treatment as a last resort. Words cannot express my gratitude to the one who created 'The Cuticura Remedies,' as I have named them, for thank heaven there was such a mirroring relief sent to me. I feel as if I never suffered from even a pimple. My disease was routed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I shall never cease praising the wonderful merits they contain. I will never be without them. In fact, I can almost date any skin disease in attack me so long as I have Cuticura Remedies in the house." (Signed) C. Louis Green, 609 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 29, 1910.

If You Love Your Wife Buy Her One of Our REFRIGERATORS

Quinn Furniture Co., 160-162 Middlesex St., Lowell Mass.

Gentlemen:—I received one of your twelve dollar refrigerators yesterday, and must say it is the finest refrigerator I have ever used. I always kept my butter and provisions in the cellar, but, thank goodness, I will not be obliged to do so any longer. My cat accidentally got into the box the other evening and the next morning it was frozen to death. I think your ice box is lovely. The only thing I am afraid of is that my husband may get into the box some night, and if he meets the same fate as my cat it will kill me. Please let me know if you have any refrigerators that don't get so cold. I have a friend who wants to buy one, and she is so chilly I want her to get a warmer box. If you have one please save it for her. With best wishes, I am,

Yours truly, MRS. JONES.

We have the real goods and guarantee satisfaction, or give you your money back. Prices from $5.89 to $22.00

MAYOR MEEHAN

To Go to Boston on Civil Service Business

THE PUBLIC HALL SITE CON- SIDERED

Another Effort Will Be Made to Agree Upon a Site—Board of Charities to Meet Next Tuesday

Mayor Meehan will go to Boston, Tuesday for a conference with the civil service commission relative to the status of Lowell's assistant fire engineers. It will be remembered that the mayor reappointed Edward Meloy, Charles E. Alway and Charles Stickle as assistant engineers and these appointments have not yet been confirmed by the board of aldermen. The question has arisen, it appears, as to whether the assistant engineers come under the jurisdiction of the civil service commission and that is the matter that the mayor will iron out with the civil service commission on Tuesday.

New Public Hall
The sub-committee from the committee on appropriations will meet with the Huntington hall commission this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the proposition for a new hall. It is understood that an attempt will be made to agree upon a site other than the Old Washington tavern site. This is the site recommended by the commission and since that recommendation was made other sites have not been very seriously considered.

Other Meetings
The board of health will hold its regular meeting this afternoon and the next regular meeting of the board of charities will be held next Tuesday.

EXCITING SCENE

Gypsies Were Held up by the Police

NEWBURYPORT, May 12.—A tribe of Brazilian gypsies, numbering 75 persons, traveling in a dozen or more wagons was held up by the local police yesterday on request of the Amesbury police, and for a time there was an exciting scene in front of the station house.

James Colby said two women traveling with the band had picked his pocket of a pocketbook containing $30. The parties were described and the chief of the tribe was told that all would be held on suspicion unless the money was restored.

After a delay of an hour the chief told Acting City Marshal Ayers that they would settle, and the men of the tribe contributed to make up the sum lost by Mr. Colby.

The gypsies were then allowed to depart, with Patten, Me. as their objective destination. It was said the caravan had come over the road from Lawrence earlier in the day.

QUEEN MOTHER

HAS RETURNED FROM CRUISE IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

LONDON, May 12.—Queen Mother Alexandra, who returned a week ago from a cruise in the Mediterranean, has taken up a residence at Sandringham palace, where she will remain until after the coronation. During the cruise and since her return the queen mother has enjoyed good general health. She reached here just in time to be present at the memorial service on the anniversary of the death of King Edward and her distress during the service was marked. As yet she has scarcely recovered from this strain but otherwise the royal widow is in excellent health.

VISITING IN LOWELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. Marshall of Blanford, Me., who are enjoying a honeymoon trip in this city as the guests of Mrs. Joseph Vezina and Mr. and Mrs. Hector G. Laroche, will leave tomorrow for Somersworth where they will visit relatives before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcell, the latter formerly Mrs. Emma Normandin, were married last week in Blanford. They left immediately on a wedding tour, including Boston, Haverhill, Woburn, Webster and Lowell. They arrived here a few days ago, and were given a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Laroche. While in this city they were the recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

The following marriage intentions were issued at the office of the city clerk today: John Mather, 27, U. S. Army, 112 Fort Hill avenue, and Mabelle M. Russell, 25, at home, 331 Wilder street. Constantinos Ladas, 32, laborer, 2 Dummer street, and Margeta Caridakis, 26, weaver, same address.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

The show at this house for the remainder of the week is one that contains many novel features. The musical Russia have a very classy musical offering and one that is out of the ordinary run, including dancing and acrobatic work. Betty Barlow, a companionable comedian, entertains in parodies and stories. Spissell Bros. and Engel in "The Dutchman's First Visit," have a funny pantomime acrobatic act. The bill includes the latest in motion pictures.—Adv.

CASE OF LEPROSY

Boston Woman to be Sent to Penikese

BOSTON, May 12.—A second case of leprosy has been discovered by the physicians at the Massachusetts general hospital. The victim, a Sicilian woman, has been confined since Wednesday in the pesthouse connected with the City hospital, in Southamptown street. She will be transferred to the leper colony on Penikese island tomorrow. The doctors say there is no occasion for alarm over this case, which is described as a very mild one. The woman is 43 years old and married, but she has no children. She came to this country four years ago. The physicians are of the opinion that she has been suffering from the disease at least two years. Because so many years are required for development of the disease, the doctors think the woman may have suffered from it in a slight form some years before she came to this country.

The authorities have declined to divulge the patient's name, to avoid giving unnecessary alarm to the people.

SUNBURN SUFFERERS

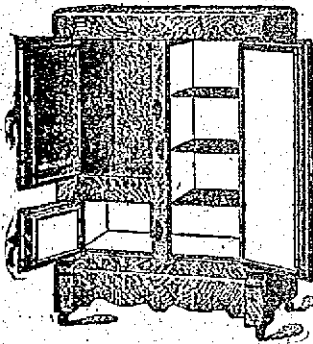

Are you one of those people with a sensitive skin who suffer real agony from sunburn? Then you will thank us for suggesting Tofetine as a means of bringing immediate relief. Tofetine works wonders in taking out the pain of sunburn and restoring the skin to its normal condition. You can get it at the drugists anywhere. Tofetine relieves inflammation of all kinds and can be taken internally or used externally. For coughs, colds and throat troubles it is excellent. For cuts, burns and bruises it is also efficacious.

X. Mahoney of the board of health, who is acting chairman in the absence of Dr. Durgin, immediately ordered that the woman be transferred to the pesthouse and cared for until arrangements were made for her removal to Penikese.

The woman and her husband were shocked on learning that she had leprosy. She was made comfortable for the hospital authorities. It is said her case is not regarded as very far advanced.

THE AUTO TRADE

AMERICAN DEALERS MAKING GREAT GAINS.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Automobiles of American manufacture are steadily increasing the share which they supply of the world's demand for that article. March exports of automobiles and parts thereof showed an increase of 63 per cent. when compared with those of March a year ago, while the exports during the nine months ending with March, are practically 50 per cent. greater than those for the corresponding period of last year. The total of automobiles and parts thereof exported from the United States in March, 1911, was $1,683,347, against $1,007,337 in March, 1910, the increase of $676,010 being especially interesting in view of the fact that during the past year the bureau of statistics of the department of commerce and labor has adopted effective measures to prevent the reporting as exports by collectors of customs, of such automobiles as leave the country for touring purposes only. Under the instructions of the bureau of statistics, only those automobiles are reported as exports that are actually intended for sale in a foreign country.

The growth in the exports of automobiles and parts thereof, has been especially rapid in the last three years, the figures for the nine months ending with March having increased from $2,770,036 in 1908, to $6,332,271 in 1910, and $5,337,181 in 1911, suggesting that the total for the fiscal year ending with next month will be about $14,000,000. In addition to the figures above quoted of automobiles and parts thereof exported, the exports of automobile tires, shown separately under the head of manufacturers of India rubber, amounted for the nine months ending with March to $1,325,503.

This growth in the exports of automobiles and parts thereof occurs in the trade with nearly all the principal countries. Comparing the movements out of the country during corresponding nine months' periods of the last three fiscal years, exports to Canada have increased from $923,475 in 1908 to $2,509,910 in 1910, and $2,834,471 in 1911; those to the United Kingdom, from $331,631 in 1908 to $1,344,600 in 1910, and $1,057,290 in 1911; those to France, from $215,056 in 1908 to $376,166 in 1910, decreasing, however, to $345,222 in 1911. Other European countries, except Italy, show substantial gains. To Mexico the exports of automobiles have also increased since 1908, the total for the 9 months' period of that year standing at $279,739 compared with $406,370 in 1910, and $455,641 in 1911. Marked gains are noted in the exports to South America, British Oceania, and other countries of Asia and Oceania. To British Oceania the exports have increased from $89,208 in 9 months of 1908 to $297,701 in 1910, and $305,684 in 1911; to Asia and Oceania, from $22,147 in 1908 to $305,452 in 1910, and $614,650 in 1911; and to South America as a whole, from $105,947 in 1908 to $231,534 in 1910, and $504,284 in 1911.

Canada leads all other countries as a market for American automobiles, the total exports to that country in the 9 months of the current fiscal year having been $3,834,447, compared with $1,657,990 to the United Kingdom, $345,222 to France, $155,939 to Germany, $455,641 to Mexico, and $9,837,181 to all foreign countries. During the month of March alone, an even larger proportion of the exports went to Canada—$778,402 out of a total of $1,338,947.

France is the world's leading importer of automobiles, the figures of the five leading countries being, for the calendar year 1910, the latest period for which comparative figures are available: From France, $34,466,000; United States, second in rank, $12,106,206; United Kingdom, $12,034,000; Germany, $7,558,000; and Italy, $4,447,000.

The United Kingdom ranks first in the importation of automobiles, the figures for the calendar year 1910 being $21,982,000, against $2,737,268 for the United States, $2,457,000 for Germany, $1,864,000 for France, and $1,921,000 for Italy.

Imports of automobiles into the United States are decreasing, the total for March, 1911, having been but $120,825, against $301,236 in March of the preceding year; and for the 9 months ending with March, 1911, $1,582,218, compared with $2,979,756 in the corresponding period of 1910, and $2,622,524 in 1909.

Most of the automobiles imported into the United States come from France, that country being credited in the calendar year 1910 with $1,066,366 worth out of a total importation of $2,050,555, exclusive of parts of automobiles. The next largest importation was from Germany, $314,577, followed by $12,475 from Italy, $12,933 from the United Kingdom, and $114,175 from all other countries.

Prices of automobiles imported into the United States are gradually increasing while those of automobiles exported are decreasing. The 1115 complete automobiles imported into the country during the 9 months ending with March, 1909, had an average valuation of $3,334 each; the 1,147 imported in the like period of 1910 had an average valuation of $1,543 each; while 634 machines imported in the 9

LOSS IS $50,000

Big Forest Fire Caused Heavy Damage

WENDELL, Mass., May 12.—It is estimated that a great forest fire which raged yesterday in the sections known as Egypt and Mormon hollow caused a money loss of about $50,000.

It rained timber in an area 5 miles wide and as many long, threatened the village of Wendell with destruction and was turned back only after four houses and some barns had been destroyed, and late last night was threatening the village of Erving, four miles from Wendell. The flames were still uncontrolled last night, although it was thought Wendell would be saved.

More than 10 men and women fought the flames here all day long. The fire fighters and advanced to within a few rods of outlying houses of the village before it could be checked and despite the efforts of the men and the bucket brigade of women four houses were lost, with some outbuildings.

Wendell people were aided in fighting the fire by men from Erving and New Salem and a delegation of Orange Freeman.

One of the finest residences in the town, owned by Mrs. Bertha N. Torrey and occupied by Wilson East and family of New York, was lost. It was valued at $500. The other buildings destroyed were the house of Miss May Richards, loss $300; house and barn of William H. Roberts, loss $1500, and the house and barn of N. S. Simons, loss $2500. At one time the household goods were removed from nearly every house in the village, so critical did the situation become.

One of the heaviest losses was the Wendell town farm, where a very good timber lot was ruined with a loss of $20,000. A large part of the property burned over in the past 24 hours consists of valuable timber lots, with very little scrub growth.

MAN KILLED

HE WAS STRUCK BY A LOCOMOTIVE

BOSTON, May 12.—Coleman Gilmartin, a track employee of the Boston & Albany railroad, was killed, at 5:30 last night under the Huntington avenue bridge. He was carrying a truck wagon and was crossing the track, when a train bore down on him. He tried to jump aside, but the locomotive struck the wagon. The train turned him around and in falling, he was struck by the locomotive and hurled a considerable distance.

He was picked up by fellow workmen and carried into a workman's shanty and aid was called, but the man was dead. Associate Medical Examiner Leary found the man probably died from a fracture of the skull. The body was sent to the City hospital morgue. Gilmartin was about 30 years old and lived at 32 Gold street, South Boston.

ANNUAL FAIR

OF MT. ZION LODGE DREW A LARGE ATTENDANCE

There was a large attendance at the second night of the annual fair of Mt. Zion lodge in Good Templars hall in Gorham street last night. The attendance was large, a delightful entertainment program was carried out and the different booths did a good business. Among those who contributed to the entertainment program were: Horatio Leggat, Robert Rodgers and Charles Crabtree, songs, and Mr. Joseph Higginbottom piano numbers.

NEW PASTOR

FOR HIGHLAND METHODIST CHURCH WELCOMED.

The parishioners of the Highland Methodist church, in Loring street, last night welcomed their new pastor, Rev. Arthur Bonner, to his new field.

In the receiving line with Rev. and Mrs. Bonner were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Whitcomb, Miss Whitaker, sister to Mrs. Bonner, and the two young sons of the Rev. Bonner. The parishioners were presented by the ushers, Geo. Hainthwaite, William F. Dean, H. J. McQuade, Walter Leach, Prescott Perrington and O. M. Dow and then taken to the rear of the vestry, where refreshments were served by the following: Mrs. H. J. McQuade, A. E. Cammug and O. M. Dow, Mrs. Wesley Wilder, Eli Barbeck, Prescott Perrington, Walter Leach and Miss Carrie Philbrick.

The guests of the evening were Rev. Mr. Whitaker of the Central M. E. church, Rev. Mr. Hook of St. Paul's M. E. church, Rev. Mr. Wood of the Western Street M. E. and the Rev. Sarah A. Dixon of Teakbury.

After the reception Mr. Bonner gave a short address, thanking his people, and expressing the hope to know them all better in the near future and assuring them of the pleasure it was to be among them. The invited guests of the evening followed with remarks, wishing Mr. Bonner success in his new work.

The general committee of the affair was as follows: Mrs. H. J. McQuade, J. F. Walsh, Wesley Sawyer, Walter Leach. The decorations were under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Dow. Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer master of ceremonies and had general charge. The music was furnished by three young ladies, Miss Winnifred Phil, violinist; Miss Stella Levine, cornetist, and Miss Bertha Chapman, accompanist.

INSIDE HISTORY

by Ward's Suit

NEW YORK, May 12.—Baseball ethics figure in the suit for $50,000 damages brought by John M. Ward against Ban Johnson, president of the American league. Ward was once manager of the New York Giants, but quit baseball fifteen years ago to become a lawyer. He bases his claim for damages on the allegation that Johnson referred to him as a "trickster" two years ago when Ward was a candidate for president of the National league. During the trial Ward was a witness and was kept on the stand two days while he was quizzed regarding his ideas on baseball and legal ethics. Ward represented George S. Davis, the shortstop who jumped the Chicago White Sox in 1904 to join the New York Giants, but who was sent back to the Chicago team by the national baseball commission. It was shown that the Chicago club was paying Davis $1000 a year and that the New York club offered him $6300, and agreed to pay the cost of any legal action in which he might become involved, because of his changing his allegiance. Many baseball magnates have attended the trial and have closely followed the testimony.

MAN ARRESTED

Is Charged With Shooting a Rival

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., May 12.—Most Filligan, a rejected suitor for the hand of Miss Saint Pelton, is charged with firing a shot which killed John Besso, a successful rival, and slightly wounded the girl at Death last night. The shots were fired at a silhouette of the victims in fond embrace on a window shade. One bullet hit both and a second shot went wild. Filligan fell in love with a picture of the girl, corresponded with her, proposed marriage and was accepted. When the girl came to this country she did not love Most and was soon to wed Besso. Filligan escaped after the shooting.

BIG FESTIVAL

PALACE TODAY

LONDON, May 12.—The festival of Empire, a combination of an industrial exposition with pageantry illustrating the history of the different parts of the British empire was opened at the Crystal Palace today by King George and Queen Mary. It was the first public ceremony of their majesties since the court mourning for King Edward was ended and the first of a long series of functions which promise to make the coronation season memorable.

The king and queen drove in a semi-state carriage drawn by four horses with outriders from Buckingham Palace to College road, opposite which a new entrance to the Crystal Palace had been made for their use. Enormous crowds lined the route as the procession passed. In Camberwell-Green the royal pair were greeted by 40,000 school children who had been given

In Towns of Marlboro
and Roxbury

KEENE, N. H., May 12.—Keene today was covered by a dense cloud of smoke from fires raging in the forests near the towns of Marlboro and Roxbury, adjoining Keene on the east and southeast. Since Wednesday the flames have swept over almost a thousand acres of woodland, including valuable tracts of pine and the loss already amounts to several thousand dollars.

More than 250 men from this city and adjoining towns fought the fire yesterday and still more went to their assistance today. No buildings have yet been destroyed.

NEW RACE TRACK

BUFFALO, May 12.—Another border race track, will be added to the Canadian circuit within a year, according to an announcement made here by W. W. Murray, the well known starter who has been appointed general manager by the backers of the new venture. The track will be located at Niagara Falls, within an hour of Buffalo and Hamilton, Ont. Mr. Murray has been engaged for a term of five years. The association has only a half mile track but it is asserted that after the spring and summer meetings, two passengers jumped from the stage and escaped with slight injuries.

stage drivers, was fatally injured yesterday at Haze Hill, 16 miles from Grant's pass while driving a four horse team which had become frightened. Knowing that he was approaching a high cliff and sharp curve, Loudon drew his revolver and shot one of the leaders dead. This failed to stop the team, however, which dragged the dead horse several yards and over the embankment. Loudon was thrown down the precipice and his skull was fractured. Two passengers jumped from the stage and escaped with slight injuries.

SHOTS WERE FIRED

Three Men Were Placed Under Arrest in Boston

BOSTON, May 12.—Three shots were fired by Patrolmen Ivers and Hale at 12:15 this morning after two fleeing store breakers, and after they had been rounded up the officers went back to the men's furnishing store at 454 Atlantic avenue which it is charged they had broken into and caught a third just as he was emerging.

AN APPEAL TO WIVES

No more terrible affliction can come to any home than the excessive use of intoxicants by husband or son. Think of the money wasted in drink, which is needed in the home to purchase food and clothing. If you have a drinking husband or son, give him Orlin. He is so sure that Orlin will do what for him that if after a trial no benefits are derived from it, we will refund the money.

ORLINE is prepared in two forms. No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. Orlin No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. Orlin costs only $1.00 a box. Write for Free Orlin Booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to ORLINE CO., 604 Orlin Building, Washington, D. C. Orlin is recommended and is for sale in this city by Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., 119-123 North Main street.

SOME FAST BOUTS

Fine Program at Lowell Social Club

Once more the Lowell Social and Athletic club presented an excellent program of boxing bouts at its regular meeting, last evening's being fully as interesting as any of the others.

The principal event was to have been of 12 rounds between Young Doyle of this city, who has been coming along finely, and Johnnie Gallant of Chelsea, an Armory club star. Gallant was a pretty risky proposition for Doyle to select for a starter as he has had much more ring experience than the local boy, is heavier and cleverer. But Doyle went at him gamely and was still going in the sixth round when his seconds seeing what the result would be threw in the sponge. Boyle carried the work to his opponent and the latter simply laid back and waited his opportunity. He did some very clever blocking while on the defensive warding off all of Boyle's leads and rushes. At length Gallant showed some class, his short arm work making a big hit with the members.

The semi-final introduced Willie Howe, the actor-boxer, and Tommy Moran, who is a most promising 165 kid. Willie was there for the first three rounds but Moran cut loose in the fourth and for the remaining sections put it over Willie and got the decision.

Willie Mack of Lowell and Bob Sargent of Fitchburg put up a spanking six-round curtain raiser with the honors even. They were both free hitters and each battled over 300. The decision met with the approval of the members. Tommy Moran after getting the decision from Willie Howe announced that he would like to meet Freddie Maguire at 105, and Freddie cheerfully announced that he would be pleased to accommodate him. Before they meet, however, the members will probably see Maguire and Kid Thomas of Lawrence in a bout at 105. Thomas is considered one of the best 165 men in New England and the fans of both cities desire to see who is who between them.

Young Doyle of Lowell, who is to box a second time at the club on Monday evening, was introduced. Doyle is in line shape and appears to be a corner. Joe Costello refereed last evening's bouts.

TROUBLE AHEAD

FOR THE CHICAGO NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUB

CHICAGO, May 12.—There is trouble ahead for the management of the Chicago National league club if County Commissioner Glennon succeeds in gaining favorable action on a move which he started yesterday to have the West Side ball park moved farther away from the county hospital. The county is now preparing to make additions to the hospital which will cost more than $3,000,000 and Commissioner Glennon says he wants to make conditions around the institution as perfect as possible.

"I want it to be understood that I am not doing this in opposition to the management of the Cubs or that I am in any way opposed to baseball," said Mr. Glennon. "I am a fan myself and am anxious to see the game prosper in Chicago. But I believe that the vicinity in which a hospital is located should be a zone of quiet."

NO DEMONSTRATION

STEAMER WITH FOREIGN COAL REACHES CORDOVA, ALASKA

CORDOVA, Alaska, May 12.—The steamer Edith loaded with 3000 tons of Canadian coal arrived from Nainaimo, B. C., last night, and was berthed without any demonstration being made by the large crowd of citizens who were on the wharf to greet the collier.

Many threats had been made that a demonstration similar to that of last week would occur when the Edith would arrive with the foreign coal. The authorities, however, posted a large number of deputies at the wharf and announced that any riotous conduct would be met with immediate arrest of all disturbers.

"UPSTREAM" DAY

TEXTILE SCHOOL INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENTS HAD FINE SAIL

The Textile school boys enjoyed their annual "Upstream" day, yesterday, when they went up the Merrimack river in the steamboat "Governor Allen" to the grounds of the Martin Luther club. The day was enjoyed by about 150 of the students and instructors. Music was furnished by the Essex county training school band of 25 pieces.

Baseball games were the order of the day.

The first was between the "Niggers" from the cotton course and the "Lamb" from the wool course. The former won in an interesting game by a score of 10 to 5. The lineup of the teams was as follows: "Niggers," Hartford, p; McGee, c; Crane, 1b; Wiswall, 2b; Peck, ss; Bennett, 3b; Conant, lf; Goodale, if; Hathaway, cf; Edmunds, rf.

"Lamb," Halstead, p; Frost, p, lf; Lamonte, c; Shea, 1b; Paterson, 2b; Ward, 3b; West, cf; Preston, rf.

In the second game the "Nitrate Acids" defeated the "Caustic Soda" by a score of 12 to 4.

After this game, the company sat down to a sumptuous repast served by the Page Catering company.

In the afternoon the big game of the day took place between the instructors and a team composed of senior chemists known as the "Turkey Reds," in which the latter were victorious by a score of 23 to 7.

The lineup: "Turkey Reds," Pearson, p; Jefferson, c; Sidebottom, 1b; Ford, ss; Adams, if; Culver, cf; Standish, rf.

Instructors, Lupien, p; James, c, 1b; Wood, ss; Perkins, 2b; Fluke, 3b; Ferguson, ss; Ball, lf; McKay, cf; Holt, rf; Umpire, Murray.

In the final baseball game, the Freshmen beat the Sophomores by a score of 12 to 6. Sylvan and Peck were the batteries for the Freshmen, and Hartford and Lamonte for the Sophomores.

In the tug of war, the 1912 team defeated the 1913 team, and the former were defeated by 1911 in a close contest. In the finals, the instructors won over the Seniors by a large margin.

The start home was made about 6 o'clock, everybody voting "Upstream" as the best name. The committee in charge consisted of: F. Ferguson, J. B. Rich, H. R. C. Jefferson, H. R. C. Lamonte, H. A. McArthur, H. C. J. Cleary '13 and R. H. Pirtle '13.

THE LOWELL SUN FRIDAY MAY 12 1911

Fine Program at Lowell Social Club

Once more the Lowell Social and Athletic club presented an excellent program of boxing bouts at its regular meeting, last evening's being fully as interesting as any of the others.

The principal event was to have been of 12 rounds between Young Doyle of this city, who has been coming along finely, and Johnnie Gallant of Chelsea, an Armory club star. Gallant was a pretty risky proposition for Doyle to select for a starter as he has had much more ring experience than the local boy, is heavier and cleverer. But Doyle went at him gamely and was still going in the sixth round when his seconds seeing what the result would be threw in the sponge. Boyle carried the work to his opponent and the latter simply laid back and waited his opportunity. He did some very clever blocking while on the defensive warding off all of Boyle's leads and rushes. At length Gallant showed some class, his short arm work making a big hit with the members.

The semi-final introduced Willie Howe, the actor-boxer, and Tommy Moran, who is a most promising 165 kid. Willie was there for the first three rounds but Moran cut loose in the fourth and for the remaining sections put it over Willie and got the decision.

Willie Mack of Lowell and Bob Sargent of Fitchburg put up a spanking six-round curtain raiser with the honors even. They were both free hitters and each battled over 300. The decision met with the approval of the members. Tommy Moran after getting the decision from Willie Howe announced that he would like to meet Freddie Maguire at 105, and Freddie cheerfully announced that he would be pleased to accommodate him. Before they meet, however, the members will probably see Maguire and Kid Thomas of Lawrence in a bout at 105. Thomas is considered one of the best 165 men in New England and the fans of both cities desire to see who is who between them.

Young Doyle of Lowell, who is to box a second time at the club on Monday evening, was introduced. Doyle is in line shape and appears to be a corner. Joe Costello refereed last evening's bouts.

TROUBLE AHEAD

FOR THE CHICAGO NATIONAL LEAGUE CLUB

CHICAGO, May 12.—There is trouble ahead for the management of the Chicago National league club if County Commissioner Glennon succeeds in gaining favorable action on a move which he started yesterday to have the West Side ball park moved farther away from the county hospital. The county is now preparing to make additions to the hospital which will cost more than $3,000,000 and Commissioner Glennon says he wants to make conditions around the institution as perfect as possible.

"I want it to be understood that I am not doing this in opposition to the management of the Cubs or that I am in any way opposed to baseball," said Mr. Glennon. "I am a fan myself and am anxious to see the game prosper in Chicago. But I believe that the vicinity in which a hospital is located should be a zone of quiet."

STEAMER WITH FOREIGN COAL REACHES CORDOVA, ALASKA

CORDOVA, Alaska, May 12.—The steamer Edith loaded with 3000 tons of Canadian coal arrived from Nainaimo, B. C., last night, and was berthed without any demonstration being made by the large crowd of citizens who were on the wharf to greet the collier.

Many threats had been made that a demonstration similar to that of last week would occur when the Edith would arrive with the foreign coal. The authorities, however, posted a large number of deputies at the wharf and announced that any riotous conduct would be met with immediate arrest of all disturbers.

"UPSTREAM" DAY

TEXTILE SCHOOL INSTRUCTORS AND STUDENTS HAD FINE SAIL

The Textile school boys enjoyed their annual "Upstream" day, yesterday, when they went up the Merrimack river in the steamboat "Governor Allen" to the grounds of the Martin Luther club. The day was enjoyed by about 150 of the students and instructors. Music was furnished by the Essex county training school band of 25 pieces.

Baseball games were the order of the day.

The first was between the "Niggers" from the cotton course and the "Lamb" from the wool course. The former won in an interesting game by a score of 10 to 5. The lineup of the teams was as follows: "Niggers," Hartford, p; McGee, c; Crane, 1b; Wiswall, 2b; Peck, ss; Bennett, 3b; Conant, lf; Goodale, if; Hathaway, cf; Edmunds, rf.

"Lamb," Halstead, p; Frost, p, lf; Lamonte, c; Shea, 1b; Paterson, 2b; Ward, 3b; West, cf; Preston, rf.

In the second game the "Nitrate Acids" defeated the "Caustic Soda" by a score of 12 to 4.

After this game, the company sat down to a sumptuous repast served by the Page Catering company.

STATE OF ANARCHY

Caused by the Extreme Violence by the Insurrectos

CHIHUAHUA, May 12.—This city, long in dread of attack, is now in greater fear than ever because of the extreme violence by the Insurrectos in their northward march. The whole district embracing Durango, Torreon and intermediate towns has been in a state approaching anarchy. To conceal their movements the Insurrectos have destroyed all railroad and telegraph lines so that Chihuahua with its 35,000 inhabitants has been isolated for practically two weeks. This dispatch is sent 225 miles overland by auto to El Paso, Texas. The situation in the south is reported here as follows:

Torreon, 26,000 population, including many Americans, is surrounded by Insurrectos estimated at 2,000 in number; communication in all directions frequently cut off.

Laredo, three miles from Torreon, in hands of Insurrectos under Pablo Larvin; condition chaos, looting and acts of violence.

Paricio Gomez, near Torreon, invaded by Insurrectos without resistance.

Durango, 32,000 population, capital of state of same name, surrounded by Insurrectos.

Agua Calientes, 56,000 population, capital of state, described as a hotbed of revolutionists who frequently make incursions into the town and receive encouragement from the inhabitants.

Paral, located on a branch line from Jimenez, just south of here, sent out a distress signal. Fifteen hundred Insurrectos surround the town and already have captured Mimbres, a suburb. As soon as the appeal came from Paral an armored train was sent out from here as relief. The train went as far as Jimenez, and was proceeding to Paral when it suddenly stopped and came back. The official report states that Insurrectos were seen ahead in such great numbers that it was deemed unsafe to proceed.

PEACE AGENTS ARE TO MEET PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT MADERO

JUAREZ, May 12.—Senors Obregon and Braniff, the voluntary go-betweens that have endeavored in an official capacity for weeks to bring about a termination of the conflict in their native country, will meet Francisco Madero Jr., provisional president, at his headquarters in Juarez today. Their talk with the rebel leader will be the first exchange of impressions between representatives of the federal and Insurrecto governments since the battle of Juarez.

Whether this renewal of efforts on the part of Senors Obregon and Braniff will result in a proposition either from Madero or Judge Carbajal, the federal peace envoy, for a renewal of the peace negotiations abruptly broken off last week will probably depend on the meeting of Provisional President Madero's cabinet scheduled to follow the first holding out of the olive branch. In the opinion of the Insurrectos the peace commission was permanently dissolved last week and it is now at least possible that if another formal endeavor to end the rebellion be made it will be through the provisional minister of foreign relations alone, conducted directly with the representative of the federal government.

In the meantime the victorious rebel leaders are taking measures to guard against possible loss of the advantage they have gained in the capture of Juarez. Last night 260 Insurrectos marched out of camp. Whether they went to intercept General Rabago, reported marching from Chihuahua with a small band to relieve the federal garrison at Juarez or Col. Luque, reported heading this way from Ojinaga was not announced.

THE REBELS

MAY BE IN POSSESSION OF SALINAS'S CRUZ

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 12.—From reports brought by the American-Hawaiian liner Nebraska, which arrived here yesterday from Salinas Cruz, the western terminal of the Tehuantepec railroad, it is probable that the rebels are in possession of that place. According to Captain Knight of the Nebraska, five days ago when the steamer left Salinas

Cruz the rebel forces were at San Geronimo. They had taken possession of the Tehuantepec railroad offices at that point and were preparing for an advance upon Salinas Cruz. The people of the latter city did not plan any resistance and it is believed the place capitulated without loss of life.

SUPREME COURT

May Have to Pass on Whitten- ton Mfg. Co.'s Troubles

BOSTON, May 12.—Unless the stockholders of the Whitten-ton Mfg. Co., a cotton manufacturing corporation of Taunton, adjust their differences over the proposed plan to reorganize the company the case will be reported to the full bench of the supreme court on a question of law as to the right of the company to carry out the content of such a scheme would be very infamous to the common stockholders and would materially benefit the holders of preferred stock, he maintained.
Mr. Benton said that he would not charge the defendants with any attempt to defraud the minority shareholders but he thought that it would bring about that result. The result of the whole transaction would be Lyman and Arthur Lyman, defendants, a loss of $88,000 to the plaintiffs and a net gain of over $21,000 to the defendants. William L. Putnam, who appeared for the defendants, said that the exigencies of the corporation were serious and that prompt action should be taken. Under the statutes a majority of stockholders have an absolute right to reduce and at the same time to increase the capital stock. The evidence of the value of the assets of the company is to be heard and reported on by a master as one of the preliminaries of preparing the case for the full court.

LOWELL REALTY CO.

Gets a Big Boom by the Board of Trade

Plan to Build Plants for New Industries in Lowell Starts With Subscription of $10,000 — "Shoe Night" Proved a Grand Success

The board of trade last evening, in sporting parlance pulled off a "double header" when at its regular meeting and smoke talk in Lincoln hall, it held an innovation known as "Shoe Night," and incidentally started a most effective boom for the organization of a Lowell Realty company, whose object is to erect buildings suitable for manufacturing purposes in order to induce new industries to come to Lowell. At the opening meeting, $10,000 was subscribed to capitalize the company and Secretary Murphy received the assurances of much more from men of capital who were present.

The money will be raised by a committee of 25 and the nucleus of the committee consists of J. L. Chaffoux, Patrick O'Hearn, George E. King, Herford N. Elliott and E. B. Carney. The plans for a structure were offered for examination and the drawings showed a building six stories in height, conspicuous for its windows, 300 feet long and 50 feet wide. It provides elevator service, sprinklers, wiring for light and power, heating plant complete, fire escapes and dust conveyors. Its cost would be approximately $100,000 above the land.

The reason for connecting "Shoe Night" with the opening gun in the campaign for a Realty company is that the right spirit they could get just what they want.

Other Shoe Speakers

Thomas F. Anderson of Boston, secretary of the New England Shoe and Leather association then spoke briefly after which Carl M. Finn, of the new industries committee of the board of trade, outlined the growth of the shoe industry in Lowell. It was started 24 years ago when the Pittings came here and located. Now there are nine shoe factories which will turn out in 1911, 23,700 pairs of shoes, a gain of 3000 per cent. in the 24 years. The value of the Lowell shoe shipments in 1910 was $3,670,000 and the wages paid in 1910 totaled $734,000. He said that the Lowell shoe shops in 1910 stood third in the state in production compared to capacity.

Speaking of Lowell industries Mr. Finn declared this city to have the greatest diversity of industries, as there are now 152 different industries established here. The establishment of shoe shops means much to the city and the city should encourage them.

Charles F. Brigham, of the Lowell Shoe company, speaking of the reasons why he selected Lowell as a location for a shoe factory said that the elements going to make up the labor situation here are devoid of the disagreeable features that obtain in other cities, that the people are efficient, economical and that labor is abundant.

Sec. Murphy's Remarks

At this point President Greene introduced the subject of the Lowell Realty company and introduced Secretary John H. Murphy who has made a study of the matter.

Mr. Murphy spoke in part as follows: I shall endeavor to give you briefly a summary of my investigations in Lynn and Haverhill.

The Lynn Realty Company was projected in 1908 and the idea originated with Mr. Edward E. Strout, a contractor and builder.

Mr. Strout procured a plan for a factory 200 ft. x 50 ft., 5 stories high—and also secured an option upon a lot, the project involving about $120,000.

Mr. Strout had no means of his own but interested men who were public-spirited, formed a Realty Trust and attempted to sell stock. With no prospective tenants the matter of disposing of stock was no easy task. People did not approve of the idea and the matter of raising sufficient money was accomplished after much diligent work.

However, $70,000 was secured, and a mortgage of $50,000 was obtained from a savings bank at 5 per cent. The building was started and before it was completed was rented.

The results from the first venture were so gratifying that arrangements were made by the issuing of mortgaged bonds whereby another factory was erected and from 1901, starting with a factory proposition of 8000 square feet involving $120,000, today the Lynn Realty company is operating about 30,000 square feet and the money involved represents about a million and a third, and the stock held by about 340 people.

The factories have never been without a tenant. Lynn manufacturers do not hesitate to state that in these modern factories they can produce more shoes and better shoes in less floor space than in old factories because of better light and air.

A rental of 25c a square foot, including heat and power, is charged, and three leases have been renewed the present year at 25c and notice has been served upon the holders of other leases of the intended advance.

With the advance in rent the gross income of the holdings will be increased $25,000 a year, while the trustees intend to set aside as a sinking fund.

The buildings are of brick, modern in every way, and enjoy a low insurance rate.

In Haverhill the proposition is operated as in Lynn, only on a smaller scale.

The Haverhill project was started in 1903 after an investigation of the Lynn company had been made. The declaration of trust is similar to the one in Lynn. The selling of stock at the start was accomplished only by hard work, but today in Haverhill the stock is in great demand.

A building 200 ft. x 50 ft., 5 stories high—was contracted for, $35,000 was raised and $30,000 borrowed at 4 1/2 per cent. When the building was started there were no tenants in view, but before the building was completed all the floor space was rented on 5 year leases.

One year after the first building was completed another was erected and rented before it was finished.

So successful have the ventures proven that outside parties have this year begun the erection of buildings, one to be 200x50—5 stories and the other 120x50—3 stories.

The Haverhill company receives about 12c per foot and does not furnish power, heat or light.

The buildings now in course of construction by outside parties have been rented for 15c per sq. ft., which appreciates rather than depreciates the holdings of the Haverhill Co. because it can secure the rather than 12c when the present leases expire.

In Haverhill no new concerns were secured for the new buildings, but local firms increased their business and their old places were filled by overcrowded tenants.

The situation of Lowell today is such as to warrant the formation of a Realty Co. All the available sites suitable for the manufacture of shoes are occupied, and there are many concerns that could be induced to locate in Lowell. There are many concerns located in our city that are cramped shoe factories would make a most desirable acquisition to the industries already established in Lowell, several plants having come to Lowell within recent years.

There were over 100 members in attendance besides local shoe manufacturers and dealers.

Lowell made cigars were passed around, the Social Tea, Buck's Best, Old Hundred and Gorham being enjoyed.

President Harvey B. Greene called to order and explained the reason for the meeting. Lowell he said hasn't the plants to meet the demands of new industries. He said Lowell was becoming a shoe center and can manufacture shoes that will compare with any other city's production. He said it was a permanent business, as shoes must always be worn.

Alfred W. Donovan

The first speaker was Alfred W. Donovan of Rockland, proprietor of the "Just-Wright" shoe plant and president of the New England Shoe and Leather association and vice-president of the state board of trade. Mr. Donovan spoke extemporaneously and he had never until five or six years ago thought of Lowell as a shoe city but rather as a textile city. Diversification of industries has proved of as an economic benefit to the city and because it was well not to get too deep in any one industry. There was no reason why Lowell should not be a good shoe city.

Mr. Donovan had a strong word to say in approval of Secretary Murphy of the board of trade before taking up the need for a Realty company in Lowell. He said there should be citizens broad enough to look out for the general welfare of the city rather than the four walls within which they conduct their own affairs. Lowell is entering an era, he said, when there will be no excuses to be made, but when cooperation and good feeling will be needed. Lowell is to be a shoe center and with joint effort the citizens could make it a success. Good help is needed, character and capacity among the men, and capital. Of course, the main requisite then is the right sort of a factory establishment.

The idea of a shoe owner or promoter of factory buildings is past, he declared, and collective ownership is the method. He advised the Lowell men to look ahead 10 or 20 years and plan a building to allow for growth. Rightly managed it should be as sound an investment as any stocks or bonds. The opportunity for Lowell is now, he said, and its citizens must co-operate and stay together. He maintained that there is enough money going into the moving picture, shows every week to make a good start on a Realty building. If the men should organize with for floor space, and would expand if there were suitable buildings. I trust this meeting shall resolve itself into the formation of a Realty Co.

George E. King

George E. King outlined the financial aspects of the Realty plan. He figured an earning capacity of six per cent with a sinking fund of sufficient amount to wipe out the mortgage in 20 years.

Daniel F. Carroll exhibited the architect's drawings, made by Harry Prescott Graves, and gave some figures as to the cost of maintaining such a building.

The meeting then voted to approve the plan of starting a Realty company and, on motion of J. L. Chaffoux, the president was empowered to name a committee of five which should engage itself to see to take up the details of starting the company.

FACTORY BURNED

Fire in Manchester, N.H. Caused $6000 Loss

MANCHESTER, N. H., May 12.—A mattress factory, conducted by Young brothers, Hyman and Joseph, at 15 Prospect street, was destroyed by fire late yesterday afternoon and property worth $6000 was destroyed.

The building, a wooden structure, 60 feet deep by 50 feet front, contained besides the mattresses and the material and machinery necessary for their manufacture, a large quantity of automobile supplies of Arthur A. Dumas, owner of the building and who formerly used it as a garage. Mr. Dumas places his loss at $3000 and Young brothers' loss an equal amount.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it was discovered by Cornelius Moran, who was working near and who pulled in an alarm.

There was a high wind blowing at the time and on the arrival of the fire department the flames were running from 25 to 30 feet high and embers and sparks were being driven a long distance. It was in a locality where there were many wooden buildings and Chief Lane detailed the members of two companies on patrol.

Every shingled roof was covered and six fires on different roofs were stopped.

The insurance will cover one-half of the loss.

During the progress of the fire Edward Reagan, aged 15, whose home is at 285 Sagamore street, is alleged to have thrown stones at the firemen. He was arrested and locked up. He refuses to give any explanation of his conduct.

PROF. BEEBE

RETURNS FROM A VISIT TO THE JUNGLES

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—After 12 months in the jungles of Asia whether he was sent to study the pheasant, Prof. Charles William Beebe, curator of ornithology of the New York Zoological society, yesterday returned with his wife on the Chio Maru. India, Ceylon, the Himalayas, Tibet, Yunnan, China, Borneo, Java and Japan were visited by the expedition and hundreds of specimens were sent back to New York.

"Mrs. Beebe was an invaluable assistant to me," the professor said last night. "Without her I could not have accomplished half of what I did. She was especially diplomatic in dealing with the women of the wild tribes we had to encounter. These tribal women exercised great sway over the men, who would refuse to lend us any aid in securing the specimens until won over by the women. A traveler with a tactful wife in a wild country, I am convinced, can get along twice as well as a bachelor."

PACKERS' DEMURRERS OVERRULED

CHICAGO, May 12.—The demurrers of the Chicago packers in the beef trust case were overruled today by Judge Carpenter in the district court. In his ruling Judge Carpenter declared that the Sherman anti-trust law which had been attacked by the packers is constitutional. He also held that the indictment charging J. Ogden Armour and other packers with violating its provisions is valid.

NIGHT EDITION DANGEROUS FIRES

Gave the Firemen Plenty of Work to do

A barn in Riverside street belonging to Paul Vigeant was gutted by fire last night, a valuable horse was burned and practically all of the contents of the building destroyed. Mr. Vigeant also had a narrow escape from being burned.

Shortly before nine o'clock Mr. Vigeant, as has been his custom, went to change his horse from one stall to another. Having occasion to go upstairs, he lighted a lantern and, in descending the stairs tripped and fell. The lantern which he was carrying exploded and set fire to some loose hay which was on the floor, and in a very short time the interior of the building was ablaze. Mr. Vigeant made an attempt to rescue the horse but was unsuccessful.

When Mr. Vigeant found that he was unable to save the horse he realized that his means of exit from the building was cut off, but finally succeeded in working his way to the rear of the building and jumped to the ground.

Members of Mr. Vigeant's family attracted by the flames noticed some boys who were passing and the latter sent in an alarm from box 27 and in a short time a portion of the fire department was on the scene. But for the prompt response of the firemen the house, which is but a few feet away from the barn, would also have been destroyed.

A dangerous brush and grass fire broke out in Westford and West Acton late yesterday afternoon and raged for several hours. Scores of men who live in the vicinity attacked the flames and after several hours succeeded in extinguishing the fire.

Fire broke out in the woods back of the Elliot French house on Sprague avenue in Wigglesville about 5 o'clock last night and kept many men busy until 11 o'clock, when they finally succeeded in getting it under control. There was no property damage outside of that to the land.

James McDermott, who owns the property, opened his place of business and here the occupants of the building took refuge until such time as the fire was extinguished. Several citizens rendered valuable assistance prior to the arrival of the firemen, among them a young man named O'Day, James P. Gagan, who was the earliest arrival on the scene, and Ralph Cullinan, McDonald's fish market and the saloon of Jeremiah McGlinchey were damaged.

At 1:32 this morning the fire broke out again, but it was extinguished before any damage was done.

FIRE ON DUMP

THREATENED PROPERTY IN VICINITY OF FORT HILL PARK

At various times since the opening of spring the fire department has been called to extinguish small fires on the dump on the "High" street extension. None of these fires, however, amounted to very much and they were promptly put out, but last evening there was a blaze on this dump that might well have been reserved as a bon fire for the Fourth of July.

The park department during the season had dumped a lot of brush wood and branches clipped from trees by the dump gang over the embankment and then the ash men came and unloaded rubbish over this, almost completely covering it. The continued dry weather had left the dump in good condition to feed the flames when once they started. It is supposed that some boys set a match to the brush wood in the dump last evening and in a very short space of time there was a big blaze in progress with the embers rising high in the air and blowing over the houses close by.

FINAL ARGUMENTS

Made in Case of Mrs. Dodge Charged With Murder

DANGEROUS FIRE

BROKE OUT IN GORHAM STREET THIS MORNING

Several persons were rescued from a building in Gorham street shortly after midnight when fire broke out in an ell of the building numbered 32-36 Gorham street. The blaze for a time threatened to extend to other structures in the vicinity but the prompt work of the fire department kept it confined to the place where it started. The fire attracted hundreds of people who at first believed that the surrounding buildings were doomed. The smoke from the burning ell entered the tenements at 31 and 36 Gorham street and forced the occupants to leave in all possible haste. When nine persons had made their way out of the building, inquiry was made and it was learned that there were some left behind. Officer O'Keefe who patrols that section, rushed up the stairways, quickly followed by Sgt. Ryan and Michael Connors, a call fireman, and soon returned with Mrs. William Shesley, who was overcome by the smoke, her baby and sister, and two other young girls who were partially overcome. have been fired at Heath struck the floor and that the third shot was the one that caused the victim's death. He called attention to the testimony of several witnesses that there was an interval of one second between the first two shots while there was an interval of about four or five seconds between the second and third shots. Then he declared that Heath would not have remained for four or five seconds in range of the weapon but would have managed to get away. He closed at 9:47 a. m. and was followed by Mr. Dale.

"Our client concedes no guilt in this case but on the other hand repeatedly asserts his innocence," said Mr. Dale. He declared that Mrs. Dodge heard only two shots, for if she had heard three she would have been present when they were fired and it could then be claimed that she fired them. It is the theory of the defense that two of the shots went off so close together that they sounded like one and that the third shot followed a minute or two later. Mr. Dale dwelt at considerable length on the appearance of Mrs. Dodge on the witness stand and the emphasis with which she denied her guilt.

"She acted just as you or I would have done had we been wrongly accused of a crime of this nature," said Mr. Dale.

"The prosecution bases its case upon that of reasonable opportunity, while we base ours on that of a reasonable accident," continued Mr. Dale.

Mr. Dale then took the three exploded shells in his hand and pointed out the similarity between the two of them while the third was entirely different and said that this tended to show that the two went off at nearly the same instant while the third was fired subsequently.

THE B. & M. ROAD
Sends Men to Fight Forest Fires

MANCHESTER, May 12.—The forest fire which broke out in the southern part of Hooksett, Wednesday afternoon and which, after being held in check, broke out with renewed fury last night, continued to sweep onward today and for a time was beyond control. The Boston & Maine railroad has contributed a force of more than 100 men to fight the flames and scores of men from this city, Hooksett, and surrounding towns are joining in the effort. At one time today the academy buildings were threatened and nearly 200 acres were being burned over. The force fighting the flames are hopeful of surrounding them and keeping them within the district already burned over by nightfall.

JURY FINDS THAT HE IS NOT GUILTY

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 12.—The jury in the trial of James Beach, the contractor who was charged with conspiracy to defraud the city of Pawtucket, took the case this afternoon after being told by Judge Lee in his charge that they could render a verdict only against Beach, no matter whether they believed Postmaster William Barclay was also guilty, as it has been alleged in the evidence. Counsel Walter Barney for the defense said that Beach was not guilty of conspiracy but if he was Barclay was guilty, a thousand times more guilty than Beach.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS
NEW YORK, May 12.—Despatches to R. G. Dun's review indicate that retail trade expands under the stimulus of more seasonable weather, reports from some sections being notably better. There has been a good distribution of spring and summer merchandise at Boston and some improvement is also noted in jobbing lines. Drygoods are active, sales in some instances being in excess of last year but at first hands cotton goods continue quiet and mills are steadily curtailing. Larger duplicate orders are received for men's wear woolsens and sales of wool have expanded slightly although there is no general activity and prices remain low.

Bank exchanges this week at all leading cities aggregate $2,555,759,993, a decrease as compared with the corresponding week last year of 7.0 per cent. and compared with 1909 of 8.5 per cent. This is a much closer comparison with a year ago than was made last week, when a loss was reported of 12 per cent.

Eugene Chaput has been granted a license for the erection of a two-family dwelling on the northerly side of Orleans street. The building will be 28 by 44 feet, two and one-half stories, and the estimated cost is $3500.

STOCK MARKET

WAS HEAVY AT THE CLOSING HOUR

TODAY

There Was Quite a Demonstration Against the Short Interests—Reading, U. P. and U. S. Steel Driven Back to Low Issues of Day

NEW YORK, May 12.—Quotations held steady at about the level of yesterday's close when the exchange opened. Business was somewhat more active and a good inquiry for several of the railroad issues gave the market an appearance of strength. Western Maryland advanced a point, Louisville & Nashville 1/2 and Reading 1/4. Small additions were made to the initial gains, particularly in the eastern stocks, such as New York Central, Erie and Reading. The general movement, however, was of a commonplace character and afforded little opportunity for profitable trading. Reading subsequently reacted a half and other stocks also shaded off. Evansville & Terre Haute and Detroit United Railroads improved 2 points and Wells Fargo 1 1/4.

A steady tone developed in the market this morning after a showing of moderate strength in the first hour. A part of the gains made yesterday were cancelled, as were the small advances of today's early trading.

Bear operators did not follow up their forenoon advantage and prices accordingly hardened a fraction. Business was instantly dull. General Electric advanced 1 1/2 and Int'l Paper 1/2 fell 1 1/2.

The stock market was left pretty much to itself in the afternoon and fluctuations were unimportant. Prices averaged a small fraction below yesterday's closing but there were no pronounced symptoms of weakness at any point.

The market closed heavy. Some disappointment was shown over the abandonment of yesterday's pronounced demonstration against the short interests and small amounts of stocks were marketed here and there, driving Reading, U. P. and U. S. Steel back to the low figures of the day.

BOARD OF POLICE

Made a Tour of Inspection Today

The members of the board of police made a tour of inspection this morning, visiting a number of the places where applications have been made for licenses of the first and fourth class. In many of the places changes have not been made and it will be several days before the changes will have been perfected.

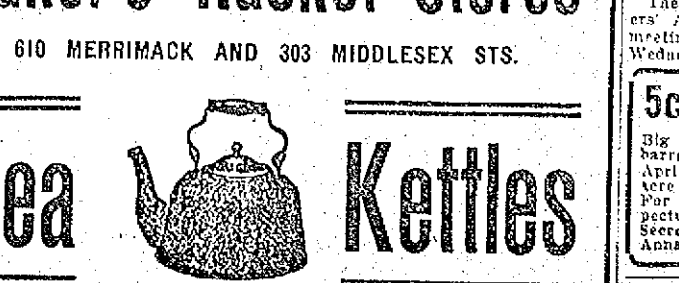

According to rumors which were current it was expected that the board would meet in special session tonight and grant the 18 liquor licenses which have not been acted upon, but there will not be any session of the board tonight and nothing will be done on the license question until next week.

The Massachusetts Home Furnishers' Association will hold its annual meeting at the New American House, Wednesday, May 17, at 6:30 p. m.

Burglars Get Away With Twenty Dollars

RUTLAND, Vt., May 12.—Burglars broke into the Fairhaven grist mill, owned by W. C. Crippen, some time last night, blew open the safe, took about $20 and got away. From the way in which they operated it is supposed that the break was the work of the same gang of yegmen who visited the C. E. Clark store at Pawlet last Saturday night.

When the mill employees assembled for work this morning they found that the front door had been pried open and the door of the safe in the office had been blown. So well was the work done that people were not awakened in nearby houses and only one of the office windows a few feet away was broken by the jar. The methods of the gang were the same as those in use by the burglars who have rifled a number of Vermont postoffices and stores within the last few years.

A big hammer and some chisels were stolen at the Connor blacksmith shop in Hydeville and with these tools the burglars succeeded in gaining entrance to the mill. They also stole a shotgun belonging to Mr. Connors.

In the safe with the money there were a number of checks and other valuable papers, but these were not taken. A neighbor saw a light in the vicinity of the mill about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, but there are no wheel tracks or other clues to show the direction taken.

NEW PARISHES

Have Been Formed by Archbishop

BOSTON, May 12.—One of the most important shifts of clergymen ever made by Archbishop O'Connell has just been announced. It involves the creation of two new parishes, one at Framingham Center, of which Rev. Fr. Augustine L. Mailey, chaplain of the state prison, will be the head, and the other, to relieve the congestion in St. Francis de Sales parish, Charlestown, and the parishes of St. Ann and St. Joseph in Somerville, will have at its head Rev. Fr. Garrett J. Barry, for some years past at Foxboro.

Rev. Fr. James A. O'Rourke is transferred from Campello to Foxboro in place of Fr. Barry.

Other changes are Rev. M. J. Scanlan of the cathedral of the Holy Cross, given charge of the diocesan charity office, 43 Tremont street, in place of Rev. Dr. M. J. O'Connor.

Rev. Fr. Joseph F. McGlinchey from St. Paul's church, Cambridge, given charge of office of society for the Propagation of the Faith, 41 Malden street, with living quarters at the cathedral house.

Rev. Fr. Augustine F. Hickey, from St. Columbkille's parish, Brighton, becomes assistant to Rev. Mgr. M. J. Splaine, rector of the cathedral, in place of Fr. Scanlan.

Rev. Fr. John H. Powers of St. John's church, Blue Hill avenue, goes to St. Stephen's church, North End.

Rev. Fr. James L. McGuinness of St. Peter's, Lowell, goes to St. Margaret's, Campello.

Rev. Fr. Michael J. Murphy leaves St. James' church, Harrison ave., for St. Mary's, Charlestown.

Rev. Fr. D. J. O'Connor departs from St. Stephen's, North End, and goes to the church of the Most Precious Blood, Hyde Park.

Rev. Fr. Reardon, hitherto of St. Agnes' church, Reading, will go to St. Columbkille's church, Brighton.

Rev. William J. Foley severs his connection with St. Stephen's church, South Warrington, and goes to St. James' church, Salem.

THE HIGH SCHOOL CONCERT
The high school concert will take place tonight in the school hall. The Mandolin club will play selections from "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Madame Butterfly," "Giri in the Train," and the beautiful "Barcarole" from "Tales of Hoffman." The Glee club, under the direction of F. O. Blunt, will sing some lively songs. Miss DeMerritt will give an original reading. Horatius Leggat and Chas. Hillier will sing. Get your ticket at the door. 25 cents.

A Home Formula That Stops Dandruff

Day Bonn 6 oz.
Lavender de Cologne 2 oz.
Menthol Crystals 1/4 dr.

These are all staple, standard and inexpensive pharmaceutical products that you can buy from any good druggist. You can mix them yourself at home or the druggist will do it for you. Allow to stand one-half hour before using. Apply night and morning, rubbing briskly into the scalp with finger tips or a medium stiff brush.

The one 8 oz. bottle should, in most cases, be sufficient to completely clear the head of dandruff and kill the germ, thereby preventing its return. This treatment is also excellent for making the hair grow and to keep the hair from falling out and although not a stain or dye, will restore natural color to gray, streaked or faded hair in from 15 to 30 days simply by its action on the hair roots. Be careful not to apply where hair is not desired.

Before publication we presented this formula to the H. J. Jaynes Drug Co., this city, and they state that they have filled it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

very large attendance and like all other parties conducted by this organization it was a social as well as financial success. From 8 to 8:30 a concert program was given by Gilmore's orchestra after which dancing commenced and continued until 10 o'clock when an intermission was taken and ice served in the lower hall. Dancing was resumed and continued until 12 o'clock. The hall was tastefully decorated with blue and white, and the stage was banked with flowers and a lattice work of red, white and blue.

After the party a late car returned to Lowell with a merry throng who were present from the city. The committee to which much credit is due, was General Manager Mary Valentine, Assistant Manager Lillian Welch, Floor Director Nellie Ward, Assistant Belle Valentine, Chief Aid Jennie Lavelle, and chairman of reception committee, Mrs. Fred Gaudette.

COURT CAMPEAU

Arranged for Its Annual Party

Campeau court, C. O. F. held an important meeting Wednesday night, and initiated three new members, namely: Chair Vollette, M. Frechette and C. Cyr. President Frank Ricard occupied the chair and a list of business was transacted. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the second annual sugar party, to be held Sunday, May 21. Last year this party was held at L. J. Corneli's camp in Boulevard avenue, but the latter was burned to the ground a short time ago, and therefore, another camp will have to be sought for, and this will be practically the work of the committee.

Last night the members of the council met at the home of one of their brethren, Mr. J. H. Gregoire, 135 Ford street, and surprised Mrs. Gregoire's mother, Mrs. Joseph Gregoire of Wotton, Que., who is visiting her children in this city. They presented her with a rich silver chest, the address being delivered by Mr. Frank Ricard, while the presentation was made by Mrs. Alex. Morin.

As is the custom with Campeau council, Mrs. J. H. Gregoire in appreciation of her trouble, was presented with a dainty ice cream set, the speech being delivered by Mrs. Michel Buot, the presentation being made by Mr. Edouard Gregoire. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent.

Mrs. Joseph Gregoire while in this city is the guest of Messrs. J. H. Gregoire, Edouard Gregoire and Mrs. Homedea Pratte.

Continued

A telephone alarm was sent to the central fire station at 7:35 o'clock and in a short time there was a sufficient number of fire wagons on the scene to handle the fire effectively. The whole dump was soaked with water, but it took an hour to quench the flames so that Chief Hosmer could feel that they would not start up again. As it was the department to the dump on the High street extension, the blaze which started last night having broken out again.

On Gorham Street

A few minutes after 11 o'clock this morning word was telephoned to the central fire station that there was a lively blaze in a building just beyond the Edison cemetery. Several pieces of apparatus were sent to the scene, but the firemen upon reaching the city line found that the fire was in a shanty in East Chelmsford.

A Needless Alarm

A needless alarm of fire was raised

AN UNCONSCIOUS WOMAN OVERCOME BY SMOKE IN A TENEMENT IN GORHAM STREET RESCUED AND CARRIED TO A PLACE OF SAFETY

the dump was still smoking this morning in spite of the drenching.

The house next to the dump was a little scorched but suffered no other damage. It is quite likely that the park department will had some other place to dump its brush and rubbish. The houses in that vicinity have been in danger for some time on account of the large quantities of rakes and brush dumped there and ready to be set ablaze by the boys at any moment.

Something New in Good Clothes

The term "good clothes" is hardly descriptive of Adler-Rochesters—they're really the best clothes made. Season after season, for nearly half a century, their superiorities have been proven. You have but to see our stock to understand why this is so.

ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES

The way Adler-Rochester coats fit around the neck, the shapeliness of the shoulders, and the rare finish of every detail—all testify to the care and skill of the makers. And Adler-Rochester cloth experts command the "new" in every material. Theirs is the choice of the most fashionable patterns and shades.

So it is that in Adler-Rochesters you get what is unusual in clothes—individuality.

Thus, if you would avoid the commonplace, you will make your next clothes selection from our stock.

DEATHS

CONNOLLY—Joseph Connolly, aged 64 years, died last night at the Chelmsford Street hospital, after a brief illness. Mr. Connolly was a devout member of St. Michael's church, and is survived by one sister, Miss Della Connolly. His remains were removed to the undertaking rooms of Jas. W. McKenna, 419 Bridge street.

BARRETT—One of the oldest residents of St. Patrick's parish, Mrs. Nancy Barrett, died last night at her home in Salem street, aged 78 years. She is survived by three sons, Edward J., Alderman Andrew B., and William M.; also one daughter, Miss Catherine Barrett, and 13 grandchildren. She was a native of Ireland and resided in this city for 70 years. She resided on Salem street for 56 years. Mrs. Barrett was a kind and motherly woman, and possessed of a true Christian spirit. She was beloved by all who knew her and in her death the family has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

CONDON—Mrs. Mary Mahoney Condon, aged 28 years, died this morning at her late home, 12 Rogers street. She leaves to mourn her loss besides her husband, Daniel Condon, two children, Jeremiah F. and Mary N., also her father, Daniel Mahoney in Ireland.

CROSBY—Died today in this city, Charles T. Crosby, aged 89 years, 7 months and 25 days, at his home, 77 Marlborough street. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ada Frances Crosby and one daughter, Mrs. George A. Wilson.

WILSON—Justus B. Wilson, aged 69 years and three months, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Percy J. Wilson, 82 Banks street. Mr. Wilson was born in Embden, Maine, and came to Lowell when a young man. At the opening of the Civil war he enlisted in the 25th Mass. regiment and served until the close of the war. He was a prominent member of the Worthen Street Methodist church, was a past commander of Post 155, G. A. R., and was also a member of Pen-tucket lodge of Masons.

He is survived by a son, Alfred E. Wilson of Plushing, N. Y.; two daughters, Mrs. J. Harry Hammond of Colebrook, N. H., and Mrs. Percy J. Wilson of Lowell, well known in musical circles; two brothers, Augustus H. Wilson of Readfield, Maine, and John L. Wilson of Solon, Maine; and a sister, Mrs. Flavella Beals of Lowell; also three grandchildren in Plushing, N. Y.

BARROW—Mrs. Rhoda Barrow, the beloved wife of Thomas H. Barrow, died at her home, 69 Sutherland street, Thursday morning, aged 64 years, one month. She is survived by her husband, one son, Harry Barrow, and three brothers, John M. Dean of Putnam, Connecticut, James E. Dean of Revere, Mass., and Joseph Dean of this city.

FUNERALS

CONRON—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Conron took place yesterday morning from her home in Taunton, and at 9:30 o'clock a mass of requiem was sung at the Sacred Heart church, Taunton, by Rev. Fr. Trainor. The bearers were: Howard and Daniel McDonald, Michael Tighe and Jeremiah Coughlin. At the conclusion of services the body was brought to this city and the burial was in St. Patrick's cemetery in charge of Undertakers J. P. O'Donnell & Sons.

FARROW—The funeral of George M. Farrow took place Thursday at 3 o'clock from his home in Tyngsboro, the Rev. George E. Brown officiating. A quartet composed of Misses Clara and Helen Browne, Mrs. Vanda Littlehale and Mrs. Cora Kable sang appropriate selections. The services were largely attended by the townspeople. The body will be taken to Greenland, N. H., today for burial. C. M. Young in charge of the funeral arrangements.

SULLIVAN—The funeral of Dennis

Sullivan took place this morning from the Middlesex street station on the arrival of the 9 o'clock train from Boston, and was largely attended by relatives and friends. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Large wreath, from son of deceased; wreath of roses inscribed "Rest," Yacubian brothers; spray of roses and plinks, from John Walker, George Oelinger and Frederick Kling. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery, Rev. Joseph Curtin of St. Patrick's church, reading the committal prayers. Undertaker Peter H. Savage was in charge.

QUIET IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, May 12.—Despite the rumors of a student uprising and a possible attack on the city by the rebels which gave the more timid residents some uneasiness last night, nothing out of the ordinary has occurred at the capital this morning.

BURGLARS BUSY

BROKE INTO HUNTING LODGE OF JOHN PURROY MITCHELL

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 12.—Sheriff Scherp of Westchester county was asked yesterday to look for burglars who broke into the hunting lodge of John Purroy Mitchell, president of the New York board of aldermen, at Somers, in the northern part of the county, yesterday and carried away practically everything that was movable. Fresh wagon tracks were found leading to the house.

Several weeks ago the caretaker, Richard G. Davenport, was arrested for killing Thomas Heffernan, a laborer who applied for work and shot at Davenport, so the prisoner alleges. Since then the house has been without a caretaker.

MINE FIRE EXTINGUISHED

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 12.—The fire in the Boston mine of the Delaware & Hudson Co. at Larksville, where five men were suffocated by smoke, was extinguished today. The company officials say the damage to the workings will be comparatively slight. The mine is expected to resume operations on Monday.

Plain Cookies

These are "the cookies that mother used to make," but she never made them with skimmed milk; she used rich cream. You can get the same result if you use Borden's Evaporated Milk—adds richness and fine flavor.

RECIPE

Beat two heaping tablespoonfuls butter to a cream; add gradually one cup sugar, and beat again. Then add two well beaten eggs, four tablespoonfuls Borden's Evaporated Milk diluted with three-fourths cup water, one teaspoonful baking powder, one half teaspoonful grated nutmeg and flour enough to make a moderately soft dough. Mix thoroughly, roll, cut with a round cutter and bake a light brown in a moderate oven.

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1910 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 2, 1911. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

The so-called county rings of Middlesex and Essex counties are defeated in their efforts to have the legislature legalize expenditures unauthorized by law. The treasurers we presume are under bonds and should be held responsible for the proper disposal of the funds placed in their charge.

POLICING THE COMMON

Supt. Welch says that police officers are so continuously around or in the vicinity of the South common that it is as well policed as any other part of the city. That statement differs very materially from the charges made in Mr. Corbett's letter; but while several police beats end at the common, none of them leads through it. Why not have an officer assigned there day and evening and held responsible for the preservation of order and decorum in every part of the common?

THE CITY CHARTER

The city charter bill for Cambridge has been favorably reported by the senate, and its passage is thereby assured. We cannot see why Cambridge, Haverhill, Lynn, Chelsea and other cities can have new charters enacted by the legislature, while Lowell is refused. It is now stated that the legislative committee in charge of the Lowell measure is likely to report unfavorably at the last moment. That would be a gross injustice to our city and it would be a denial of the right of home rule which has been freely granted to other cities. The people of Lowell want a chance to vote upon the new charter, and the legislative committee in charge of the measure will be open to grave criticism if it does not report favorably on the bill.

THE ANNEXATION BUGABOO

One George S. Ladd, who is prominent in the Massachusetts state senate, was in Washington the other day and told the senate committee on finance that reciprocity with Canada is not possible except by absolute commercial union which would mean the first step to annexation. Mr. Ladd is one of the men who are cunningly using the annexation bugaboo instead of argument. He knows very well that if England can be impressed with the idea that the commercial union under reciprocity might bring about a feeling in favor of annexation, then the British government will strongly oppose it. The Canadians, we believe, as well as most of the British will be able to see through this deceitful ploy, and will discount it when the proper time comes.

The Gloucester fishermen backed up Mr. Ladd with protests against reciprocity on the ground that it would injure the fish industry. There is no reason why the fish trust should be protected against a little competition because that agency has kept up the price of fish, and has made it very difficult to get fresh fish at any price. The Gloucester fishermen should have no consideration in this fight for reciprocity.

"MOTHER'S DAY" AND "FATHER'S DAY"

Somebody has instigated next Sunday as mother's day, and appeals to the public generally to observe the day as such. We do not know of anything the mothers need more than a day's rest, so that if Sunday be observed as mother's day, it is to be hoped that the mothers will be allowed to rest during the entire day, leaving others to do their work so far as that is possible.

When a fad of this kind is put out, of course, it suggests something else of a similar kind, and there is always somebody to come forward with another proposition, and as a result Mrs. John B. Dodd, of Spokane, Washington, has taken up the cause of the neglected "old man," and has fixed upon June 16th as the date of the observance of "Father's day," and part of the observance is to consist in wearing a colored flower in honor of father if he be living, and a white flower if dead. It will be a great opportunity for sermons and editorials upon the commandment "Honor thy father and thy mother."

If the observance in either case will make the lot of the average father and mother any happier, it is to be highly commended, or if on the other hand it will instill into the minds of the young a proper respect and reverence for their parents then it is to be commended. We don't imagine that the observance will make much of an impression in these parts.

WANTED—A NATIONAL ANTHEM

We are sadly at a loss for a national anthem that will be stirring in its patriotism and sublime in its poetical inspiration and conception. The hymn "America," by Dr. Smith, does not fully answer the purpose, while "The Star Spangled Banner" is good enough in its way, but it refers to a special incident in our history and is decidedly the nearest approach of all our songs to what a national anthem should be. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Julia Ward Howe, has the same objection, although a bit more stately than Mr. Keys' effort. None of these answers the purpose of a national anthem suitable to a country at peace with the world, an asylum for the oppressed of all lands and a beacon light of freedom to all the world. Dr. McPatrick, chairman of the Chicago board of education, would have a prize of $500,000 raised to be offered for the poem most suitable as a national anthem. It may be said that money has rarely ever inspired any great poem, yet it is barely possible that the desire for money may set the Muses to work in a manner that will bring out something superior to anything we have at present. The real national anthem must be an inspiration, not only from the patriotic, but the poetical and musical standpoints. Although we are a peace loving nation, no anthem worthy of the name can exist in any but a martial strain. Some, of course are sung as a funeral dirge, but that is not the proper spirit for the anthem that will swell the heart of young America. We do not imagine that the prize idea emanating from Chicago will accomplish much for the reason that every poet in the land, and we have a few, knows that a fortune awaits the man or woman who supplies this great national demand for an anthem worthy the greatness, the spirit and the patriotism of our republic.

SEEN AND HEARD

It is amazing to what an extent the industry of sharpening safety razor blades has grown. A few days ago I met Henry F. Carr, the Gorham street business man coming out of the post office with a bundle of small packages under his arm. I learned that each package contained at least twelve blades which were sent to him to be sharpened. These packages came from all parts of the United States and Canada, and three of them were from Porto Rico. On invitation of Mr. Carr, I visited his place of business which is located at 12 Bleachery street and here I found four young women busily engaged making the dull razors sharp edged as the day they were first used. Hundreds of orders were waiting to be filled and Mr. Carr remarked that this was the usual busy daily scene at the workshop. "You may wonder," said Mr. Carr, "how it is that we receive hundreds of packages of razor blades each week from all parts of the country, but it is because I advertise extensively and am getting great results. My ad in The Sun has resulted in a great increase in my local business and therefore I am satisfied to spend money when the results are coming my way." Mr. Carr has built up an immense business in a short time and a visit to his shop will repay one interested in seeing the work done and the number of blades turned out daily.

A number of answers given by applicants for the positions of public school teachers in Vermont reveal some strange notions of commonplace subjects. Of course these papers represent only the rare instances and are not characteristic of the average examination in Vermont or any other state. The following are the remarkable answers that caused so much mirth among those whose duty it was to pass on them:

"Congressman-at-large" is when congress is in session.

"Monroe Doctrine" Monroe was re-elected and died in one month after he was president; this has been spoken of as the Monroe doctrine.

"Humidity" is the human race; also the average length of human life.

Benjamin Franklin was the inventor of lightning.

"Civil Service Reform" is a bill passed a few years ago in regard to all civil questions of war.

"The Suez Canal" is between lake Erie and Lake Ontario.

"Coterie" is a place where pigeons are kept.

"Where was Vermont first settled?" Settlements were made on the Champlain canal in Vermont where Plattsburg is now, and at Crown Point in the early part of 1760.

"Slavery was introduced by William Lloyd Garrison."

"The war of 1812 arose from a dispute over the annexation of Texas."

"Absorption" is breathing pure air into your lungs and blowing it back through the nostrils.

"Letters of marque are letters of importance, and letters of reprisal are letters to be returned."

"Compare foret, fore, forer, forest."

"Correlation" means to wear crowns or to be crowned."

Preparations for the Judson centennial celebration in 1913-14 have already begun. On March 16 at Rochester, President A. H. Strong was elected chairman of a special commission. The object of this celebration is to show to every Baptist church in America the history, the results and the needs of mission work in foreign fields. Special emphasis will be put at all times on Burma, the centre of Baptist foreign mission work. A deputation will be sent to Burma. All Baptist churches will observe a special Judson day and a Judson centennial volume will be published during the winter of 1913-14.

PASTOR'S WIFE

Was Killed in an Auto Accident

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mrs. Daniel H. Overton, wife of the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Islip, Long Island, who was pastor of the Greene Avenue church in Brooklyn for many years, was killed yesterday afternoon when an automobile in which she was riding was upset between Islip and King's Park.

Mrs. Overton was caught underneath the machine. Three others were slightly hurt. A baby was thrown 200 feet and escaped without a scratch.

The machine was owned by John J. King, manager of the Bailey Lumber company's yards at Islip. He got the machine, a five passenger car, two weeks ago, and yesterday afternoon invited Mrs. Overton to go for a ride to Central Islip and King's Park. In the party were Mrs. King, her 2-year-old daughter, and Mrs. John C. Dosee. Mr. King was at the wheel.

The party drove to Central Islip and had luncheon and then started home by way of King's Park. When they were about a mile and a half from the latter village the automobile struck a stretch of soft sand, skidded and turned over. Mr. King was thrown to the side of the road and killed. Mrs. King's foot was caught underneath the machine and badly mangled. The little girl landed in the brush. Mrs. Dosee was shaken up.

Mrs. Dosee walked about a mile to the nearest farmhouse and got help. When the machine was lifted from Mrs. Overton she was dead. Word was then sent to the State Hospital for the Insane at King's Park, and the injured and the body of Mrs. Overton were taken there. Mrs. Overton's body was left at the hospital. The others of the party were taken to their homes in Islip.

The Rev. Mr. Overton was attending a Sunday school convention at Southampton yesterday and reached home at 5:24 o'clock, about twenty minutes before his wife was killed. He found a note from her stating that she had gone auto-riding with friends and would return at about 8 o'clock. At that hour he was notified that she had been killed.

Mrs. Overton was about 45 years old. Her husband went to Islip about two years ago. They have two sons in school.

A Providence Woman Took Her Life

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 12.—Despondent because of her continued ill health, Miss Nellie Breslin, 28 years old, committed suicide by asphyxiation last night. Her act was discovered by her maid when she went to Miss Breslin's room today. Miss Breslin was afflicted with heart trouble.

GREAT SUCCESS

IS BAZAAR IN AID OF ST. MARGARET'S PARISH

The bazaar in aid of St. Margaret's Church held in Highland club hall is nearing an end, for there are only two more nights left of it, tonight and tomorrow night. The general committee and the aids feel proud of the results obtained so far, and there is a reason too, for a substantial sum has been realized so far.

A very large crowd attended the affair last night and it is reported that business was rushing. There were people from Boston, Lawrence and Haverhill, and a large sum of money was spent about the different tables.

The entertainment program which was A1, was presented under the auspices of the May table, Mrs. F. Hennessy, matron. The program was rendered by talented people, and there is no use of going into details, for every one is favorably known by the local audience of music and literature. The program was as follows:

Plan selection, Miss Veronica Rediker; Spanish dance, Miss Anna McCarthy; solo, selected, C. Eugene McCarthy; reading, Miss Mary Conway; solo, Miss Margaret O'Donoghue; skirt dance, Miss Helen Makin; song, James E. Donnelly; song and dance, Miss Muriel Cronin; solo, Miss Margaret Cawley; solo, Andrew McCarthy.

Tonight and tomorrow night there will be a big auction sale in the hall, for everything that is left over will be sold to the highest bidder. Saturday night will be M. T. I. night at the fair.

PRIMITIVE METHODISTS MEET

LOWELL, R. I., May 12.—Resolutions urging a closer relationship between the Primitive Methodist church and the Presbyterian church were adopted at today's session of the eastern conference of the Primitive Methodist today. The resolutions recommended the occasional interchange of pulpits and that an agreement be made which would avoid the overlapping of the churches in new communities. Similar resolutions were recently adopted by the Boston presbytery and they will be referred to the general conference and presbyteries of both churches in order that the desired affiliations might be obtained throughout the country.

When the nervous system is at fault, we may expect symptoms of the disorder to show in almost every organ of the body for all of these organs are controlled in their activities by the nerves.

"I was all run down in every way," says Mrs. J. M. Barclay, of No. 878 Curtis avenue, Columbus, Ohio, "and was a nervous wreck. I was not confined to the bed except for a day or so at a time, but I had no appetite and was greatly reduced in weight. I was irritable and melancholy all of the time, could not get any rest and my nerves were in such a state that I would have to get up in the night and walk the floor. I suffered in this way for four years and although I had two doctors attend me, neither helped me. Thinking that a change of climate might benefit me I went to visit relatives of my husband in Nova Scotia and they strongly urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I never had much faith in advertised medicines but I got a box of the pills and they commenced to help me at once. I had not taken them a week before I was able to get a good night's rest. I kept on taking them and gained in flesh and could eat a hearty meal. I always speak highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I know they are good for nervous disorders."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the most direct cure for nervous troubles because they remove the cause of these diseases by building up and purifying the blood. The pure blood which they make furnishes the nerves with needed elements until they are restored to their normal strength. The pills have made so many remarkable cures in nervous disorders that no sufferer can afford to neglect giving them a trial.

They can be obtained at any drug store or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50. While so promptly effective, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful stimulants or opiates. They are perfectly safe and create no drug habit. LOWELL, MASS.

COL. HIGGINSON BURIED

CAMBRIDGE, May 12.—Six negro soldiers of the Sixth regiment, M. V. M., bore into the ancient First parish church (Unitarian) of Cambridge this afternoon the body of Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson, the soldier, reformer and author, whose funeral was attended by a great throng representative of the military, civic and literary life of Cambridge and Boston. During the Civil war Col. Higginson commanded a regiment of negro soldiers, and it was thought fitting that the soldiers of the race he had aided to freedom by his pen and sword should be given an opportunity to perform the final service of respect and appreciation they felt for him. The services at the church were in charge of the Loyal Legion and were of a simple character, there being no eulogy. The order of service consisted of an organ selection, reading from the psalms, hymns by a quartet, prayer, benediction, the sounding of "taps" on the bugle and an organ rendition of Handel's "Largo." The body was escorted from Col. Higginson's home to the church by Col. T. W. Higginson camp, Sons of Veterans, and by the Loyal Legion. The honorary pallbearers were:

President emeritus Eliot and President Lowell of Harvard; former Secretary of the Navy Long, Col. N. P. Hallowell, Rev. Edward Cummings, pastor of the South Congregational (Unitarian) church, Boston; G. H. Mifflin, a well known publisher; Charles Francis Adams and Dr. Edward Waldo Emerson, son of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

The interment service was private. The ashes were buried in Mount Auburn cemetery after the body had been cremated.

As a mark of the respect in which Col. Higginson was held in this city a delegation of the Cambridge city government, headed by Mayor Barry, attended the church services in a body.

HELD IN $30,000

Prisoners Rearrested on Bench Warrants

NEW YORK, May 12.—Charles W. Caccia and Stanley Gleih, cashier and assistant cashier respectively of the American Steel Barrel company and the Ironclad Manufacturing company, the two corporations in which Mrs. Elizabeth Boehman, better known as Nollie Bly, is interested as president and treasurer, were arraigned yesterday before Judge Fawcett in the county court in Brooklyn on six indictments charging them with forgery in the second degree and grand larceny. They pleaded not guilty and were held in bail of $50,000 each on each indictment, making an aggregate bail of $30,000 for each man.

The men were arrested several months ago on a warrant charging them with securing $310 by means of forged checks. On this charge they were before Chief Magistrate Kemper in the Adams street court when Assistant District Attorney Ross requested that the proceedings be dismissed. Immediately thereafter they were rearrested on bench warrants and taken to the county court.

"The MILLINERS"

35 JOHN STREET

HA-HA BY THE MERRY WAG BUNCH

AN "EXTRY" IN BABYLON.

"Husband, husband, what do you mean? You've hit mamma with the morning paper!"
"It's all right, dear. I'm merely breaking the news to mother."

HOW IT STARTED.

David: "Sorry, Goliath, but I had to have my little fling."

CUPID'S DECOY IN DARKTOWN.

"Whad's dat gal wearin' a chicken on her haid fo'?"
"Why, dat's de stuff, niggah. Hit's a catch bonnet."

HOSPITALITY UNEXCELLED.

Moldy Miffins: "Well, this is the most hospitable town I've ever struck. Food and drink set right out at the door."

NOT DECOROUS EITHER.

The wife of a clergyman warned him as he went off to officiate at a funeral one rainy day. "Now, John, don't stand with your bare head on the damp ground; you'll catch cold."

HERE'S TO 'EM.

Here's to the women of the stage. One day unknown, the next the ragal had they no charms for me and you? What would the poor old forist do?

NO CHANGE.

She (concerned about her mother's health)—Don't you think mother should have a change? I don't like her looks at present.
The Brute (heartily)—I never did.

TO REFORM IT.

Does the world seem cold to you? Your own heart fires may warm it. Take another point of view—Instantly you reform it!

IMMEDIATELY.

Her: "I am going to kiss you when I go."
His: "Leave the house at once."

BUILDING A CYCLOPEDIA.
"What became of Hamlet McDuffy, the gallery gods' favorite?"
"Writing a book on 'Wives I've Had.' He's got as far as the 5th volume."

COULDN'T BELIEVE IT.
Mrs. Penhecker—I'd like to see the man I was afraid of!
Mr. Penhecker—So would I—in fact, I'd even like to shake his hand.

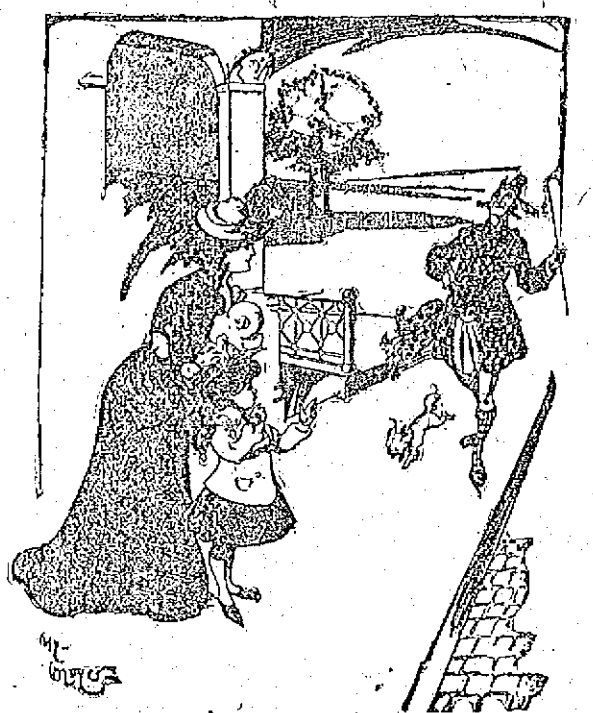

OUT OF STYLE.
"What a rut that Miss Backly lived in!"
"So?"
"Yes. Think of her eloping with a coachman in this age of chauffeurs!"

THE USUAL ULTIMATUM.

Policeman (to would-be suicide in water): "Get out o' here or I'll shoot!"

HAD READ ABOUT IT.

"Mamma, is that his harom skirt?"

COMMENCEMENT.

THE MAKER OF THE MATCH.
"Here's to the bride."

PARTICULAR.

"I would like some powder, please."
"Face, gun or bug?"

WHY HE WAS THERE.
"What brought you here?" asked the prison chaplain.
"Youth," said the convict sadly.
"Youth? Why, you look quite fifty."
"Not my youth, sir; my lawyer's."

A BEAR MOVEMENT.
Mrs. Growler—I think we'd better move on if we don't want our furs taken on storage.
